

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MT. PLEASANT.

The telephone line has been extended from Ed. Kellogg's to George Randall's.

Carl Shank returned Monday from a visit with his father at Portland.

Ellie White butchered two sizable porkers Monday; one for J. S. McCord.

M. M. Myers sold a fine cow to Chas. Holmes this week.

Investors in realty have been looking over the neighborhood recently with a view to buying desirable farms.

Art Warner's chimney caught fire one evening last week and the hose wouldn't work, but a pedestrian handed up two pails of water and the flames were extinguished.

Mr. Cain has leased the Shipp farm for another year. Cain & Dimick raised seven hundred sack of potatoes on the Shipp farm this season.

The rumor will not down that the Twilight and Mt. Pleasant schools will consolidate this winter after the Xmas vacation, but it is persistently denied by the patrons of the Twilight school who would get the little end of the bargain. A graded school at Mount Pleasant is needed just the same.

Jim Hollingsworth returned recently from Albany, after a season spent near that place, and is satisfied that Oregon City and vicinity offers better attractions for a man of small means than points in Oregon further south. He lives on the Kildler place.

The Mt. Pleasant school, under the management of the teacher, Miss Roma Stafford, gave a Thanksgiving entertainment Wednesday afternoon. The program for Xmas will be more elaborate.

This community captures the penit for having instituted more law suits in the November term of the Clackamas County court than any other burg.

Mr. Joehne is setting out more strawberry plants.

The poor price of hops have discouraged prospective hop farmers.

Mr. Andrews, the strawberry man, attended the farmers' institute at Oregon City one day last week and made a business trip to Portland.

Our most progressive agriculturists have got their ground plowed and grain sowed and are now "sawing wood"—politically and literally.

Who will be the next state senator?

When you come to Oregon City go to George Bros. restaurant for your meals. First-class service at lowest prices. You will not be disappointed; it's the best place to eat.

SPRINGBROOK.

Springbrook district boasts of the finest new school house in the state of Oregon.

Farmers are busy hauling cabbage into Portland.

G. Kruse and W. Stone shipped a car load of cabbage to Walla Walla, Washington, half of which was sold at the state penitentiary.

Mrs. Magone, of St. Johns, spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Wilnot, of this vicinity.

George Kruse has employed a number of Japanese to cut wood.

An exhibit of school work was held at the school house November 29. Prizes were awarded to pupils of different grades, for the neatest and most original work. Those receiving prizes were: Elmer Cook, Jessie Kruse, Rosie Irving, Lucile Stone, Dewey Stiegler and Francis Kruse.

Miss Carlette Haley spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Portland.

Mr. Cook, while building a barn for Mr. C. Kruse ran a nail through his arm. Blood poison set in and he was taken to the hospital and is reported to be slowly improving.

Harold Kruse is reported ill with la grippe.

Pupils who were neither absent or tardy during the month of November, were: Clarence, Francis and Harold Kruse, Johnie, Lucile, Lelah and Lon Stone, Dewey and George Stiegler, and Elmer Cook.

CARUS.

Arthur M. Lewis, of San Francisco, one of the most able lecturers of the Socialist Party, will deliver a free lecture at the Beaver Creek Hall, Saturday, December 9, at 8 p. m.

The Carus School is doing good work under the instruction of the teacher, J. F. Mitts.

E. A. Howard is very sick at present. Dr. Goucher has charge of the Bertha Spangler is visiting in Portland at present.

Telephone is the main subject for discussion in this part of the county at the present time.

Geo. Orm is farming the R. M. Cooper place this year.

Tom Inskeep has gone to Portland to work.

Services at the Evangelical Church are being well attended this winter.

In Mad Chase.

Millions' rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away. Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble. 25c at Howell & Jones' drugstore; guaranteed.

STONE.

There will be a bible reading held at the Church house at Stone, Oregon, commencing on the first of January, to continue ten weeks.

All persons are heartily invited to this reading. No charges for tuition; two dollars and fifty cents per week for board and lodging, simply enough to cover expenses. S. O. Pool, of Seattle, Washington, will conduct the readings. For further information address J. L. Mumpower, Oregon City, Oregon R. No. 2, Box 12.

MADRAS.

The Thanksgiving ball given by the Woodmen was a grand success, both from a social and financial standpoint.

Don. P. Rea left Saturday for a trip to Portland to spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Wm. Terrell went to Shaniko last week for a load of freight.

Bob Gard, of the big plain, made a trip to Shaniko, last week and reports six inches of snow on the ground at Shaniko.

M. Lousberry and Mr. Arnold were building brick chimneys last week out on the big plain.

U. S. Cowles passed through Madras Thursday, en route to his saw mill on the Deschutes river.

Mr. Courtney and Irwin returned from a trip to Bend county last week.

The teachers' institute was held in Madras December 2d, and all report a good time.

The auction sales of the F. J. Maloy stock drew a number of people to town from the country, but was stopped by Mr. Hahn buying the remainder of the stock last Friday.

W. H. Zell returned from Prineville last Thursday.

John Drummond was a visitor in Madras the last of the week.

More railroad talk now. The latest is that the O. W. P. Ry. Co., is to extend their line through this section. We only wish there was more building done and less talk, then one might think they meant it.

Mr. Sanford went to Shaniko to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

The new chop mill is now set up ready to run on the lot opposite the Maloy stone building.

One passing along the street in front of Lousberry's shop would think there was a planing mill running when he is running his foot-power machinery.

Geo. Stevens will move into his new dwelling about the 15th of December.

Jim Sharp, of Prineville, was in town a few days last week.

J. P. Hahn has put up a new hotel sign in front of his place of business and attached a bell to it so he can ring the bell by means of a rope.

MARQUAM.

Our Winter weather has finally arrived.

J. P. Miller and W. Sherman have taken a contract of making ties for a rail road company.

Monroe Groshong made a business trip to Silverton a few days ago.

W. Sherman and his sister, were visiting relatives at Turner a few weeks ago.

Mrs. McCormick was visiting with friends in these parts last week.

Bert Wade and Charles Earl are making rails for O. A. Karm this fall.

C. K. Quinn has repaired his fence for the winter.

O. A. Kaun has moved into his new house.

There was a Thanksgiving supper given at the M. E. church at Marquam by the Ladies' Aid.

Mr. Manere, of Scotts Mills, died November 29.

Isaac Sharp and Mr. Freeman are about to quit business in the meat market at Marquam.

CANBY.

Mrs. H. N. Brown was a Portland visitor this week.

Clyde Evans and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday in Canby, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Knight.

Prof. A. T. Winches and wife were Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Batten was transacting business in Portland this week.

Mrs. M. E. Carothers was on the LIBERAL.

The rain has stopped farming the last few days. Seeding will stop until Spring, as the ground is full of water.

More plowing has been done this fall than usual.

The stock are going for the straw stacks and Winter is all around us, but no snow here yet.

E. Bowman is putting in windows for N. H. Darnall. The outside work will soon be done on his new residence.

Miss Effie Morey is visiting relatives in Portland for a few days.

P. Sager has moved into the J. L. Udell house near Wrights Springs.

Our school is progressing nicely and more pupils are coming in.

Mr. Trullinger will also teach the Spring term of school.

Last Sunday W. Morey and W. Austen killed three large coons on the J. B. Jackson place. Who says we will not have coon grease now?

Pierce Wright and W. H. White made a flying business trip to Oregon City Wednesday.

Mr. Burns is improving the looks of the Liberal Store. He is putting in new shelving, and a general overhauling in the store and new goods arriving.

D. Kinnard, surveyor of Oregon City, was doing some work for J. L. Edell last week.

E. James and M. Armstrong are slashing a lot of brush for W. H. White.

S. Wright had one of his horses cut will spend the Winter with her daughter, Mrs. Elva Garrett.

Grandpa James is also on the sick list.

Mr. Frank Winslow has bought J. H. Wright's place for Mr. Wallace Winslow.

The Vaughn Bros. have started up a new logging camp at what is known as the Old Mill Orchard, and will soon begin logging out the Killen timber.

The roads in this section of the country are a little bit moist—enough so that we can begin to notice it a little bit now.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Moving seems to be the order of the day this week.

The family who lived in the Brook's house have moved into Mrs. Sykes' house at the head of 7th St.

Mr. Skinner and family have gone to Portland.

F. A. Ely's pleasant conversation is heard in the streets again, after his serious illness.

Mr. Warner is still quite poorly.

Mrs. West's baby is on the sick list. Dr. Meissner was called Tuesday evening and Wednesday.

Pearle Wickham has the typhoid fever.

Charlie Krieger, of Gold Hill, Oregon, was shaking hands with friends in this burg Tuesday. He has special business in Portland this week.

Father Dixon started to California last Saturday evening to be gone one

CENTRAL POINT.

The shooting match at Mr. August Scheer's was a grand success. Mr. Lucke, of Canby, being the champion shooter; also Mr. Menke, of Canby.

The rest of the Canby boys must be dreaming as they try to make out that no others got any game but them.

A. C. Scheer and daughter Alta, were Portland visitors Thanksgiving day.

Arthur Foster left Wednesday for Portland, where he intends going to school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Alger passed through our little burg, going to Oregon City, where they visited Mrs. Anna Miller, formerly of this place.

Mr. O. A. Miller, on the Meacham place, left Sunday to work in the oil factory in Portland.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, has been duly appointed by the County Court of Clackamas County, Oregon, Administratrix with the will annexed, of the Estate of Aurelius N. Munsey, deceased. Any and all persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same, duly verified, to me, at the office of Gilbert L. Hedges, Rooms 1 and 2, Weinhard Building, Oregon City, Oregon, on or before the expiration of six months from the date of the first publication of this notice.

NEVADA L. MUNSEY, Administratrix with the will annexed, of the Estate of Aurelius N. Munsey, deceased. Date of first publication, November 24, 1905.

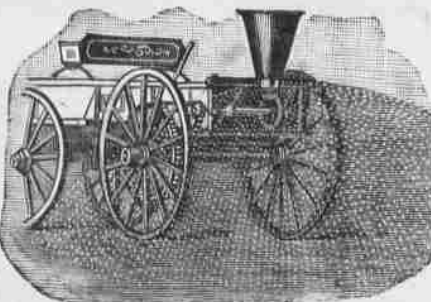

FOR A LARGE ORCHARD Myer's Hydraulic Spray Pump

Is the thing. It has two Discharge Valves, two Sprays, can be used at once. A good big pump that will stand lots of pressure. Has a long handle, a 36 in. air chamber and a powerful agitator that keeps the liquid stirred all the time. A wrench is all you need to take it apart. Drains itself completely.

FREE

Book telling what sprays to use and when to use them. Write for it.

FOR A SMALL ORCHARD use a MYER'S Bucket and Barrel Pump. Throws a fine steady spray. A patent agitator keeps the mixture stirred. No mixture can injure them. They are Brass.

J. C. ZINSER, Agent

Successor to Fairclough Bros.

Oregon City, Ore.

HOOSIER END GATE SEEDER

Forcefeed throws evenly to right and left and straight behind the wagon.

Has Double Feed Rolls, Double Grain Spouts, Double Cog Gear.

Quantity can be changed without changing Gear Wheels.

The grain cannot clog in the Hopper.

Always sows the amount it's set to sow, no matter how fast or slow the team goes.

Mitchell
LEWIS & STAYER CO.
First and Taylor Streets
Portland, Oregon

Christmas Dainties

This is season when every housewife is confronted with the problem of Christmas buying. The question to be decided is "where can I get the purest and best groceries for the Holiday season at the lowest prices?" Economy in buying, you know, is an art worth acquiring. We have just received a complete stock of pure, fresh

Holiday Goods

Nuts, Fruits, Raisins, Fancy Candies and everything for the Christmas season. Let us help you save money on your Christmas luxuries.

A. Robertson

7th Street Grocer

Willamette Grocery

STEVENS BUILDING
SIXTH AND MAIN STREETS
Telephone 1141

- 14c Pound Best Hams
- 10c Pound Jellyed Pigs Feet
- 10c Pound Liver Sausage
- 10c Pound Wiener Sausage
- 5c Ring Fine Bologna
- 10c Pound Pickled Pigs Feet
- 12 1/2c Pound Pickled Tongue
- 25c Box Fine Smoked Herring

Miles & McElashan

C. D. & D. C. Latourette

ATTY'S AT LAW

Commercial, Real Estate and Probate our Specialties. Office in Commercial Bank Building, Oregon City, Oregon.

Eby & Eby

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW

General Practice, Deeds, Mortgages and Abstracts carefully made. Money to loan on good security. Charges reasonable.

George C. Brownell

ATTY AT LAW

OREGON CITY, OREGON

Office Hours: 9 to 5. Phone, Main 3085 Res. Phone, Eastgate

DR. C. R. McAYEAL

DENTIST

413 Dekum Building 3rd and Washington Sts. Portland, Oregon

G. B. DIMICK W. A. DIMICK

DIMICK & DIMICK

Attorneys at Law
Notary Public. Estates Settled. Mortgages Foreclosed. Abstracts Furnished. Money Loaned on Real and Chattel Security.

2, 3 and 4 Garde Bldg., Oregon City, Or.

RETIRING SALE

After closing out most of our stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Women's and Men's Shoes we are now offering to the public the remaining stock at prices that are far below cost.

HOLIDAY BARGAINS

Men's $1.00 & $1.25 Underwear 75c per suit	Men's Hats $3.00, $2.50, $2.00 values, now $1.60
Men's Suits and Overcoats $8, $9 & $10 values at $4.70 $12.50 & $15 values at $9.55	Our numerous Shoe Bargains are unmatched at The Douglas Shoe Store

BUY YOUR X-MAS CLOTHING NOW

J. M. PRICE

SIXTH AND MAIN STS., OREGON CITY

sick list this week.

Mrs. W. M. Shank, of Oregon City, was the guest of Mrs. Andrew Koehler Tuesday.

George Sushauer, a prominent farmer of Cornelius, Washington county, is transacting business in Canby this week.

Rosecoe Mack is recovering from his recent illness.

Jake Schmitt, of the Canby Packing Company, was a Portland visitor last Wednesday.

The S. P. steam shovel has returned and resumed work in the gravel pit.

An excellent program is being prepared by the Sabbath School of the M. E. Church for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. William Knight spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Verta Clark, of Silverton.

Professor Mathews has been called to Estacada to the bedside of his mother, who is dangerously ill.

Wilson Evans and Frances Smith, of Cornelius, Washington, were married last Wednesday, and will make their future home in Canby. We extend our congratulations.

J. E. Cronan of Cronan & McArthur, bankers, of Ione, Oregon, transacted business in Canby Tuesday.

The city election passed off quietly Monday. Both factions worked like beavers and a full vote was polled. The independent ticket carried the day by electing a mayor, and treasurer and two councilmen.

In tow places on the front leg, by his O. L. C. boar Saturday.

Oh, yes, when he fell down with his new shoes and knocked down two panels of fence, he jumped up and said: "That beats old Missouri!" with his stiff hat mashed as flat as a pancake.

The China Phenants are coming out in the fields and will be enough left for another start.

When you come to Oregon City go to George Bros. restaurant for your meals. First-class service at lowest prices. You will not be disappointed; it's the best place to eat.

JAMES.

The people of the vicinity of James gave a big Thanksgiving dinner at the residence of David Robeson. The object of the dinner was as a Thanksgiving offering to Frank Winslow for bestowing a great blessing upon the community. It is thought that James-town will soon reign in peace and harmony. The dinner was beautifully arranged by the fairer sex, the turkey was delicious. Everyone enjoyed themselves splendidly and had all of the good things they could eat, and then there was enough left for as many people.

Mrs. M. E. Robeson has been quite poorly for the past week, she intends going to Jacksonville, southern Oregon, for her health as soon as her strength will permit her to go. She or two months.

Elmer Dixon attended the poultry show at Corvallis.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger will hold services at the Mountain View church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock; Sunday School at 2:45.

Mrs. Selby is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Carver took his little boy to the hospital Tuesday for an operation of a growth on the cheek, which has become very large.

Mr. Sherrard started Tuesday morning to Seattle to spend a few weeks with his son.

WILHOIT.

Once again we are visited with rain.

There was an entertainment at the Russellville school house Wednesday last, and a large crowd attended. Frank and Jim Melton and B. J. Johnson furnished the music.

Mrs. J. Nightengale is visiting at Molalla.

Miss Bonifigts is home on a few days' visit.

F. Bagby, of Aurora, passed through our burg one day last week on his way to Coal Creek.

Diamonds and watches on monthly payments covering nine months. No money until goods are delivered, any honest person, regardless of residence or occupation. Leading Chicago Diamond House. For particulars address Representative, P. O. Box 412, Portland, Oregon.