At the directors' meeting of the Beaver Creek Telephone Association last Saturday, it was necided that the best plan was for every division to take care of ail the lines on that division. A committee was appointed to purchase a switchboard to accom-modate at least 25 lines. We now modate at least 25 lines. We now have close to 150 patron, and still there is more to follow. All this in a little over six mouths. Who says a Mututal won't work? Even if it very nearly causes a scrap sometimes to make the other fellow see what's best, it finally works out that everyone is satisfied. Let the good work go an and soon we (a) dictate terms to any company, as they, are already trying to make terms with us.
