

EGGS WEAK IN MARKET

Little Demand Locally For Ordinary Potatoes.

POULTRY HAS FIRM TONE

Wheat Is Lower, Dressed Hogs Scarce and Drop Is Expected In Veal By Dealers.

In the local market this week eggs are still weak, running from 16 to 18 1/2c; fancy potatoes are acting a little better; onions are in better demand than last week and the wheat market is sharply lower. Some sales of hops are recorded; ordinary potatoes are still at the weak point with little demand at present values. Storage operations in eggs are likely to start the latter part of this month.

The poultry situation remains a very firm tone and the demand is as good as last week. Apples are moving fast and celery is scarce and prices higher; dressed hogs are very scarce but meat dealers look for a drop in the veal market.

M'FARLAND ELECTED CHIEF.

Wins Office by Majority of Ten Over Chris Hartman.

E. L. McFarland, of Cataract Hose Co., was Monday afternoon elected chief of the fire department by a majority of ten votes over Chris Hartman, of Fountain Hose Co. The election was rather quiet, as there was no contest for any office save that of chief, and considerable work was done by the friends of the candidates. Mr. McFarland will succeed himself, as he was appointed chief some months ago by the board of fire commissioners, after the resignation of Frank McGinnis, who was elected chief one year ago. Charles E. Burns, Jr., who was appointed to fill the position of assistant chief, vacated by the promotion of Mr. McFarland, was elected to succeed himself without opposition. Three fire commissioners were chosen. The vote follows:

For Chief—E. L. McFarland 61 Chris Hartman 51

For Assistant Chief—Charles E. Burns, Jr. 85 For Commissioners—Fred W. Humphrys 81 Clarence Bruner 82 E. Frederick 95

Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Itch, Ring Worm, Herpes, Barbers' Itch.

All of these diseases are attended by intense itching, which is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Salve and by its continued use a permanent cure may be effected. It has, in fact, cured many cases that had resisted all other treatment. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co. Oregon City and Molalla.

STRICKEN BY PARALYSIS.

Miss E. S. Watrous is Dangerously Ill at Salem.

Miss E. S. Watrous, a sister of Mrs. E. D. Kelly, of this city, was stricken with paralysis at her home in Salem, Thursday, and is lying ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Craig, near Morningside, south of Salem. Some time in February Miss Watrous complained of not feeling well and left her place in Patton's bookstore in order to rest and recuperate, nobody considering her ailment serious. Since that time she has been stopping at the suburban home of her sister, and about midnight Wednesday she was heard coughing violently. Mr. and Mrs. Craig went to her room to ascertain what the trouble was, and found her unable to speak, having suffered a stroke of paralysis. It is feared the violent coughing caused a bursting of a blood vessel in the head, and her case has been a very serious one since. Miss Watrous is about 60 years of age and lived for some time in this city, where she has many friends.
