JONATHAN BOURNE, JR. OGLE AND CURRY EXPOSE BROWNELL!

Republican Candidate for United States Senator Champion of Statement One

Jonathan Bourne, Jr., candidate before the Republican primaries for the nomination of United States Senator in Congress, for the long term commencing March 4, 1907, was born in New Bedford, Mass., February 23, 1855; was a member of the class of 1877 at Harvard University; came to Portland May 16, 1878; was a Republican member of the Oregon Legislature in the session of 1885 and the extra session of 1886; was one of Oregon's delegates to the Republican National Convention of 1888 and Oregon's member of the Republican National Committee from 1888 to 1892, and a delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1892; and was elected as a Mitchell Republican to the Oregon Legislature in 1896.

Mr. Bourne has been more prominently identified with the development of the mineral resources of Oregon than any other man in the State, having expended in the last 20 years over $100,000 of his own money in the acquisition and development of Oregon mines.

While Mr. Bourne has had his residence and main office at Portland since 1878, he has had another office at New Bedford, Mass., and has carried on the business of his father's estate since 1889, which makes him familiar with many of the large interests and leading men in the East. These qualifications, in conjunction with his tremendous energy, originality, executive ability and experience in business and political affairs pre-eminently qualify him for making an able and influential Senator for the State of Oregon.

Mr. Bourne has always favored extending the direct power of the people over their government as far as possible. He was one of the leading spirits in the Initiative and Referendum movement from 1896 until it was approved by the voters at the June election in 1902. In 1904 he was a member of the executive committee of the Direct Primary Nominations League, and holds the same position with the People's Power League at this time. In all these movements he has been one of the few to guarantee the necessary expenses of preparing and proposing their measures to the people.

He says that the choice of United States Senator should be by direct vote of the people, and that the Legislature should be compelled to elect the man the people select. To accomplish this result, he is championing Statement No. 1, of the primary elections law as the only method by which public opinion may be crystallized and made effective upon the Legislature.

In his petition for nomination he says:

IF I AM NOMINATED AND ELECTED I WILL, DURING MY TERM OF OFFICE, FAVOR

- REPUBLICAN POLITICS.
- AMENDING NATIONAL CONSTITUTION FOR PEOPLE'S ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS.
- PUBLICITY POLITICAL CAMPAIGN EXPENSES.
- NATIONAL CONTROL OF CORPORATIONS IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE.
- RIGID EXCLUSION OF ASIATIC COOLIE LABOR; GOOD WAGES MAKE GOOD CITIZENS.
- LEGAL LIMITATION LABOR HOURS FOR SAFETY ON RAILROADS.
- PARCELS POST, INCLUDING RURAL DELIVERY.

- FAIR SHARE OF IRRIGATION FUND FOR OREGON.
- LOYAL SUPPORT OF SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES.
- RIGID ENFORCEMENT STATEMENT ONE.

I DESIRE THAT THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT BE PRINTED AFTER MY NAME ON THE NOMINATING BALLOT:

"I WILL SUPPORT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S DETERMINATION THAT JUSTICE BE DONE ALL MEN."

SOCIALISTS CONVENTION

Party Will Meet April 7 to Nominate Ticket.

BARRED FROM PRIMARIES

All Persons Who Affiliate With Local Organization Entitled to Sit as Delegates.

Claude S. Howard, secretary of the county organization of the Socialist party, has called a convention which will be held in Knapp's hall in this city, Saturday, April 7 at 10 a. m. for the purpose of nominating a complete legislative and county ticket of candidates for the general election in June. All persons who are now members of the local organization and any others who may apply for membership and who pay one month's dues in advance will be seated as voting delegates. In addition to nominating candidates the Socialists will adopt a platform and transact the regular monthly business of the party. The ballot for candidates will be taken at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be no meetings of local Clackamas county next Sunday as the regular meeting has been postponed until the day of the convention.

Socialists will nominate by convention in the usual manner and are barred from nominating by primary ballot, as they cast less than 25 per cent of the vote for congressman in the last general election. The party is a unit against this provision of the law and also look with disfavor upon the clause that requires registration of party affiliation.

arator that The Courier is going to give away Saturday, April 7. For several weeks Mr. Stormer has led the race but it is apparent that the Molalla friends of Miss Moody consider that her chance [is] worth fighting for and a large number of the Molalla subscribers of The Courier have renewed their subscriptions and have given their votes for Miss Moody, who now has ten votes more than Mr. Stormer.

The race is a close one and the end is near. Next in line comes E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas, and he is closely followed by John Damm, J. W. Stone, L. D. Mumpower, C. N. Wait, J. G. Cummins and Orin Hammond. There are many others who have received less than 100 votes, but their chance for getting the separator does not seem to be very bright.

All votes must be in by 5 o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, April 7, in order to be counted and this date is near—a little more than a week distant. Not in many years has The Courier given away such a valuable premium as this separator and the leading contestants are working hard to secure the coveted prize.

denied by a referendum of the Oregon City voters and vetoed by the mayor. The candidate of the O. W. P. Co., Geo. C. Brownell, is traveling over the county, abusing and belittling the citizens of Oregon City and blaming them because there is no electric road through the southern end of the county. At least, that was his attitude at Molalla. My understanding at the time was that the people of Oregon City were perfectly willing that the council should grant a right-of-way on the back street near the river, but objected to allowing them to absolutely monopolize Main street. However it seems somewhat inconsistent for one who pretends to be such a champion of the referendum principle to object to the decision of this question by this very principle, as was done last fall. However, no one expects consistency from George C. Even poor Jim Campbell, who has served him faithfully for 101 these many years! comes in for his share of abuse because he at last shows indications of having a mind of his own. He also howls in virtuous indignation about Porter charging the county exorbitant rates for printing, yet did not order the county court to ask for competitive bids or scale Porter's charges down if they were too high, for it is pretty generally conceded that he controls nearly the whole court house push, including those officers who rise in their majesty to prevent a boxing match between two brunette gentlemen at Canby, while allowing the Milwaukee Monte Carlo to run full blast. It was surprising to note the ardent admiration for William J. Bryan development.

and Mr. Brownell merely a personal one, or is it of great importance to the people of Clackamas county which of these two shall be chosen?

After a careful investigation of the matter I am fully convinced that it is not a personal matter but that it is one of the greatest importance and involves questions of principle and good government and the protection of the rights of citizens against the encroachments of the great corporations.

I firmly believe that every voter of Clackamas county should and does realize that the great and paramount question of the day is, "Shall the corporations control the people or shall the people be controlled by the corporations?" How near the corporations come to controlling the people now is too apparent. Just a glance at the daily papers or examination of the late magazines will convince the average citizen that the fight of his life is to be against the corporations; that the corporations have their agents and attorneys everywhere. That the corporations are ever hungry for franchises for the public rights; they want to control the light, heat, water and streets and to fill the air with wires of every description, and they are not satisfied to have this right for a reasonable length of time—they want it forever.

Who of the two men above mentioned represent the corporations and who the people?

The answer is well known. Brownell represents the corporations, not the people. Brownell has acted as the attorney for almost every corporation operating in Clackamas county; he has been the OPPOSITION CONCENTRATED.

J. R. Cole, of Molalla, Will Help Defeat Brownell at Primaries.

J. R. Cole of Molalla, was in the city Friday. Mr. Cole is known as one of the strong anti-machine men of Clackamas county and has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for the Republican nomination of state senator, and his political friends have been urging him to make the race ever since the political horizon opened. Mr. Cole has been sounding the situation carefully, and has determined that his entry into the fight would only serve to split up the interests of the party that are opposed to Mr. Brownell's renomination for a fourth term in the state senate. He gave out the following statement for publication:

"I will state that while I had contemplated becoming a candidate for the Republican nomination for state senator, on canvassing the situation in Oregon City, I find the opposition to Mr. Brownell's nomination united. I feel that my entry into the contest at this time would divide the opposition and would act against the true interest of the people of Clackamas county. I only considered becoming a candidate in the hope of bettering the political situation in the county, but am convinced that success lies in uniting the element that desires better things—not in dividing it."

Deputy County Recorder Chauncey E. Ramsby sprained his ankle Saturday night while driving from Oregon City to Molalla. He was in a buggy that collided with another vehicle, and Mr. Ramsby was thrown out. He is on crutches, and will not be able to work for several days.

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

I have had pneumonia three times, and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has brought me safely through each time. I have just recovered from my last attack, aged sixty-seven. No wonder I praise it.—E. V. BROWN, Stevens Point, Wis.
