PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled, "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder, and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this act," approved February 24, 1906, the People's Power League of Oregon duly filed in his office on February 8, 1906, an initiative petition containing 8042 signatures properly attached to a copy of said measure certified in accordance with law, demanding that a proposed amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to be designated in the Constitution as Sec. 1A of Article IV of said Constitution, shall be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the general election to be held in said state on the 4th day of June, 1906, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for the initiative and referendum on local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws," which said proposed amendment is hereinafter particularly set forth.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this Proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that the People's Power League of Oregon has filed said initiative petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, demanding that there be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906, said day being the first Monday in said month, a proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of Article IV of said Constitution, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for the initiative and referendum on local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws, which said proposed" amendment is as follows:

"Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon shall be and here by is amended by inserting the following section in said Article IV after Section 1 and before Section 2, and it shall be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of Article IV: "Section 1A. The referendum may be demanded by the people against one or more items, sections or parts of any act of the legislative assembly in the same manner in which such power may be exercised against a complete act. The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of an act shall not delay the remainder of that act from becoming operative. The initiative and referendum powers reserved to the people by this Constitution are hereby further reserved to the legal voters of the municipality and district as to all local, special and municipal legislation of every character in or for their respective municipalities and districts. The manner of exercising said powers shall be prescribed by general laws, except that cities and towns may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers as to their municipal legislation. Not more than ten per cent of the legal voters may be required to order the referendum, nor more than fifteen per cent to propose any measure by the initiative in any city or town."

PROCLAMATION. Whereas, The Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled, "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder, and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this act," approved February 24, 1906, the Oregon State Grange duly filed in his office on February 3, 1906, an initiative petition containing 7883 signatures properly attached to a copy of said measure certified in accordance with law, demanding that a proposed law, the title, tenor and effect of which is hereinafter particularly set forth, shall be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the general election to be held in said state on the 4th day of June, being the first Monday in June, 1906,

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore first mentioned, do hereby make and issue this Proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon announcing that the said Oregon State Grange has filed said initiative petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached demanding that there shall be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906, said day being the first Monday in said month, a bill to propose by initiative petition a law to provide additional revenue for state purposes, and to levy a license on the gross earnings of certain companies and corporations, to-wit: Express companies or corporations; Telephone companies or corporations and Telegraph companies or corporations doing business in this state; defining the manner of ascertaining the amount of such gross earnings; providing a penalty for violating the provisions of this act; defining an Express company, a Telephone company and a Telegraph company within the meaning of this act," the tenor and effect of which, in brief, is:

First: To require every Express company or corporation doing business in this state to pay a license of three per centum annually upon the gross receipts thereof received in the state; every telephone company or corporation to pay a license of two per centum annually upon its gross receipts within the state.

Second: For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the same, it shall be the duty of the proper officers of said companies particularly mentioned in said bill to transmit to the State Treasurer on or before the first day of March of each year a statement of the gross receipts of such company or portion for business transacted within the state during the preceding year ending December 31. If such company fails to make such statement or to pay such license for thirty days after the statement is required to be made or after the license is due, the amount thereof with ten per centum additional for such failure shall be collected in the way and manner pointed out by said bill.

Third: If any officer or agent of any company or corporation mentioned in the bill shall fail, neglect or refuse to make such annual statement for thirty days after the first day of March in each year he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500.00 nor more than $1000.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; and the Attorney-General of the state or the proper District Attorney is required to commence and prosecute an action at law for violations of the terms of said bill.

Fourth: Particularly defining Express, Telephone and Telegraph companies.

Fifth: In addition to the statement of gross receipts hereinbefore mentioned, such statement shall contain the name of the company, the nature of the company and under the laws of what state or country organized; the location of its principal office; the name, postoffice address and place of residence of the officers thereof and of the managing agent in this state.
