

SUES FOR HEAVY DAMAGES.

Mrs. Clara Batdorff Wants $5000 From Oregon City.

Five thousand dollars damages is claimed by Mrs. Clara B. Batdorff, of this city from the municipality, because of injuries received last January by falling in a hole in a defective sidewalk between Center and Washington streets.

On the evening of January 12, 1906, she stepped into the hole, injuring her lower limb. She was confined to her bed for four weeks in great pain and distress and is still unable to use and can scarcely use her limb.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bao, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since."

NEW BUILDINGS FOR MILL.

Work Will Be Commenced at Willamette Within Two Weeks.

Inside of a fortnight work will be commenced at Willamette on the buildings for the new planing mill and dry kiln of the Oregon City Planing Mill Company. The construction will be rushed to completion and the company will continue to operate at its present location on Main and Twelfth streets in this city until the buildings are finished at Willamette when the machinery will be moved at one time.

Three acres of ground have been given by the Willamette Falls Company, as a site for the enterprise, and further than this, light and power are among the inducements that were offered to the company to move its plant to Willamette.

Is the Moon Inhabited?

Cannot Convict Fishermen.

Gus Rosecrater was acquitted by a jury in the justice court Thursday on the charge of fishing without a license in the Willamette river. Rosecrater was arrested, along with John Erickson and R. C. Worthington. The latter was tried Monday and was acquitted. The case against Erickson is not so strong as the other cases and will be dismissed, as the authorities are beginning to recognize that fact that convictions for violations of the fish law are extremely difficult to obtain in Clackamas county.

WOULD PROTECT OREGON GRAPE.

Women's Club Protest Against Destruction of Shrub.

The Women's Club Wednesday afternoon passed resolutions for the protection of Oregon grape, on account of the large amount of the shrub that is being shipped out of the state from Clackamas county. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: "Resolved, That the Oregon City Women's Club protests against the destruction of Oregon grape for commercial purposes and recommends that persons having it on their property do all they can to save this beautiful shrub, peculiar to Oregon, from destruction."

The club met at the home of Mrs. D. W. Kinniard at Canemah. Owing to the absence of some of the members who were to participate in the debate on the question, "Resolved, That club women make better wives and mothers," the subject was postponed until the next meeting, which will be held April 11, at the home of Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow.

Rheumatism Makes Life Miserable.

FARMERS' PHONES CONNECTED.

Central Offices in Country Lines Installed in This City.

The Farmers & Independent Telephone Company has installed a 50-line switch board at the central office in Huntley Bros. Co.'s store and has all of the lines in the city connected up. This board will be installed temporarily as the new board has not yet arrived from the East, though shipped several weeks ago, and the company will wait no longer to give service to its subscribers. This line will connect with practically all of the mutual and independent systems in Clackamas county.

Caught Cold While Hunting a Burglar.

Mr. Wm. Thos. Lanorgan, provincial constable at Chapleau, Ontario says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles, I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City and Molalla.

FIFTY TONS OF BUTTER.

Receipts for Creamery For Year Were Nearly $25,000.

The Clear Creek Creamery Company, one of Clackamas county's large industries, located at Logan, held its annual stockholders meeting last week. The old officers were re-elected to hold another year. The secretary made his annual report, from which it appears that during the past year 95,888 pounds of butter were made, or not far from 50 tons of butter, which the receipts show brought $24,177.51. The net average received by the patrons of the institution for butter fat supplied during the year being 24 1/2 cents a pound.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of influenza with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston, of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."
