CENTRAL POINT

The warm sunshine and showers are making the crops grow beautifully in this neighborhood and the fruit trees are coming out in full bloom, with every indication of a full crop for this harvest.

The Central Point Telephone Company met in Brown's schoolhouse the 27th of March, with the president, George Randall, in the chair. After the reading of the minutes of last meeting, we found the company in a prosperous condition. All debts have been paid. The company is in luck to have such a progressive man as Mr. Randall at its head.

The effects of the late frost has nearly all disappeared, with very little damage done. The people are busy preparing the ground for potato planting.

SANDY.

Fine weather makes the farmers happy. Crops are all sown and most of the spuds planted. Some gardens are done.

Sawmills are busy and 100 men could find work here. All mills are short-handed and many farmers are looking for helpers.

Fred Freytag has gone to St. Johns to accept a position there.

The Sandy Debating Club will have its last meeting Saturday evening, April 14.

The W. O. W. and Circle will give a grand literary and basket social, April 21. After the exercises a grand ball will follow.

Newton Orr, our genial and accommodating stage driver, is supplying himself with new wagons and other stage rigs and will run this season one of the best stages ever run to Sandy.

E. Coalman is down with the measles.

Donahue's new mill is now running full blast.

CLACKAMAS.

Several cars of piling are being loaded this week under the direction of James Wells.

Mrs. Henry Smith, who has been ill for some time, was taken to the home of Dr. Hickman last Sunday. The report is that she is improving.

The store occupied by Capps & Haberlach has been moved and set fronting Main street.

E. C. Chapman has rented his house to a family from Portland. He is putting up a new building for his own occupancy.

King Spurgeon has gone with his family to Southern Oregon to take charge of a hatchery.

CANBY.

Mrs. Dixon, city editor of the Tribune, made a business trip to Oregon City Tuesday.

George Scramlin, from Macksburg, was in Portland Wednesday.

Otis Morris was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mrs. H. A. Dedman returned from Portland last Wednesday, much improved in health.

George Bair returned to Battleville Monday morning.

Charles Borroughs has moved on to the Walgamot farm. Mr. Borroughs will work for the S. P. Co.

Peter Johnson, a first class shoemaker, has opened a shop in the old Zollner photograph building.

Mr. Gifford who has taken the contract for building Ben Wolfer's new house, returned Wednesday with a sure start of la grippe.

Rev. Ames and wife had the misfortune of losing their infant son Tuesday morning, from heart failure. Funeral services were held at the residence Wednesday, interment being made in Zion cemetery.

If the farmers have any potatoes left they should bring them in now, as all the warehouses are about ready to close for this season. Common stock is worth 20c per bushel, first class stock being 40 to 45 cents per bushel. It won't pay to hold them much longer, as the season is about over.

ANNA SHAW WILL SPEAK.

Free Lecture Next Monday at Shively's Opera House.

Rev. Anna H. Shaw, the foremost woman orator of the world today, will speak at Shively's opera house in this city next Monday evening, April 9, at half past 7 o'clock. The admirers of Miss Shaw are so many that no church in the city was deemed large enough for the audience, hence the engagement of the largest hall in town. On two different years Rev. Anna Shaw packed the Chautauqua auditorium at Gladstone Park with people who came for miles to hear her; in fact, her national fame made her one of the greatest attractions the Chautauqua ever had. No admission will be charged to this lecture, but a collection will be taken to defray expenses. Miss Shaw comes as president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association as the star speaker of the great campaign now on in Oregon. On Monday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock a complimentary reception to Miss Shaw and her companions, Miss Kate Gordon, of New Orleans, and Miss Mary Anthony will be given at the home of Mrs. C. H. Canfield, where hundreds of ladies will have an opportunity of meeting the famous orator personally.

Mrs. Louis Levensen and daughter Margaret, of Baker City, are in the city visiting Mrs. Levensen's sister, Mrs. Linwood Jones.

Prof. W. W. Dixon, of the West Oregon City schools, has returned from Idaho, where he has been holding a series of teachers' institutes.

Emmett A. Steiger has been granted a decree of divorce from Grace G. Steiger in the circuit court.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled, "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon and regulating elections thereunder, and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this act," approved February 24, 1903, the Oregon State Grange duly filed in his office on February 3, 1906, an initiative petition containing 7583 signatures properly attached to a copy of said measure certified in accordance with law, demanding that a proposed law, the title, tenor and effect of which is hereinafter particularly set forth, shall be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the general election to be held in said state on the 4th day of June, being the first Monday in June, 1906.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act heretofore first mentioned, do hereby make and issue this Proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon announcing that the said Oregon State Grange has filed said initiative petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, demanding that there shall be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the general election to be held in said state on the 4th day of June, 1906, said day, being the first Monday in said month, a bill to propose by initiative petition a law to provide additional revenue for state purposes, and to levy a license on the gross earnings of certain companies and corporations, to-wit: Express companies or corporations; Telephone companies or corporations and Telegraph companies or corporations doing business in this state; defining the manner of ascertaining the amount of such gross earnings; providing a penalty for violating the provisions of this act; defining an Express company, a Telephone company and a Telegraph company within the meaning of this act; the tenor and effect of which, in brief, is:

First: To require every Express company or corporation doing business in this state to pay a license of three per centum annually upon the gross receipts thereof received in the state; every telephone company or corporation, and every telegraph company or corporation to pay a license of two per centum annually upon its gross receipts within this state.

Second: For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the same, it shall be the duty of the proper officers of said companies particularly mentioned in said bill to transmit to the State Treasurer on or before the first day of March of each year a statement of the gross receipts of such company or portion for business transacted within the state during the preceding year ending December 31. If such company fails to make such statement or to pay such license for thirty days after the statement is required to be made or after the license is due, the amount thereof with ten per centum additional for such failure shall be collected in the way and manner pointed out by said bill.

Third: If any officer or agent of any company or corporation mentioned in the bill shall fail, neglect or refuse to make such annual statement for thirty days after the first day of March in each year he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500.00 nor more than $1000.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; and the Attorney General of the state or the proper District Attorney is required to commence and prosecute an action at law for violations of the terms of said bill.

Fourth: Particularly defining Express, Telephone and Telegraph companies.

Fifth: In addition to the statement of gross receipts heretofore mentioned, such statement shall contain the name of the company, the nature of the company and under the laws of what state or country organized, the location of its principal office; the name, postoffice address and place of residence of the officers thereof and of the managing agent in this state.

Done at the Capitol at Salem, this 28th day of February, A. D., 1906.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled, "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon and regulating elections thereunder, and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this act," approved February 24, 1903, the People's Power League of Oregon duly filed in his office on February 3, 1906, an initiative petition containing 8542 signatures properly attached to a copy of said measure certified in accordance with law, demanding that a proposed amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to be designated in the Constitution as Sec. 1A of Article IV of said Constitution, shall be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the general election to be held in said state on the 4th day of June, being the first Monday in June, 1906, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for the initiative and referendum on local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws," which said proposed amendment is hereinafter particularly set forth.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act heretofore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this Proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that the People's Power League of Oregon has filed said initiative petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, demanding that there be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906, said day being the first Monday in said month, a proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of Article IV of said Constitution, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for the initiative and referendum on local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws, which said proposed amendment is as follows:

"Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon shall be and hereafter is amended by inserting the following:

"Section 1A. The referendum may be demanded by the people against one or more items, sections or parts of any act of the legislative assembly in the same manner in which such power may be exercised against a complete act. The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of an act shall not delay the remainder of that act from becoming operative. The initiative and referendum powers reserved to the people by this Constitution are hereby further reserved to the legal voters of the municipality and district as to all local, special and municipal legislation of every character in or for their respective municipalities and districts. The manner of exercising said powers shall be prescribed by general laws, except that cities and towns may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers as to their municipal legislation. Not more than ten per cent of the legal voters may be required to order the referendum, nor more than fifteen per cent to propose any measure by the initiative in any city or town."
