

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MILWAUKIE.

Milwaukie Grange held an evening meeting last Saturday. A class of five were admitted to the order. The married men of the Grange gave the program. At the next meeting, the married women of the Grange will give the program and will have a table and sell useful articles. There will be an open meeting from 1:30 to 3 p. m. for the public. The Patrons hope to see many friends outside the order at that time.

Many members of the Olympic Club went to Portland to attend a meeting of the M. A. A. C. last Monday evening.

Work on the new club house on the Island at Milwaukie has been started this week. It will be a large, roomy house, fixed up in latest style. The work will be rushed, so as to have the building ready for the summer travel.

George Attwood and James Phillips met with an accident while clearing land for Gracie Bros. The cable of the stamp-puller slipped, striking Mr. Attwood and breaking one rib and otherwise bruising him. Mr. Phillips had his foot hurt. Both men will be laid up for several days.

The Milwaukie school will give an entertainment after Easter. The teachers and pupils are working hard to prepare a fine program.

The Milwaukie Olympic Club will give a dance at W. O. W. hall April 21. The Milwaukie Band will furnish the music.

CANBY.

Mrs. Henry Evans and sister, Miss Ida Cantwell, returned from California last Saturday, where they have been visiting for the past three months.

Charles Matlock was a Canby visitor last Sunday.

Frank Walgamot was up from Portland Sunday fishing in the trout streams. Frank didn't require any help to carry the trout home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Penman returned to Canby last week. Mr. Penman has been working in the mines in Northern California for several months. They expect to make their home here for the present.

The new bank for Canby will soon be in operation. All of the stock has been subscribed by the business men and farmers near here. In the near future they will erect a stone and brick building, and then Canby will have one of the best banks in Clackamas county.

The Southern Pacific Co. has a large force of men laying 80-pound rails through Canby and the big steam-shovel is at work again giving employment to a large force of men.

CENTRAL POINT.

All farmers are busy sowing spring grain, and the busy wives are busy making garden.

Charles Foster returned Monday from Portland.

Mrs. Minnie Scheer is visiting her son, A. C. Scheer.

Homer Barnett left Monday for Portland, where he has accepted a position as head waiter in the Lewis and Clark restaurant.

Mike Stauber visited his daughter, Mrs. Rosa Cooper, of Portland, Monday, returning Tuesday.

Mrs. Gilbert Randall visited her sister, Mrs. Blanchard, of Portland, Saturday and Sunday.

HOOD VIEW.

Died, at her home near Aurora, Thursday night, at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Fred Yorgen, aged 31 years, of peritonitis. She leaves besides her husband and two small sons, many relatives and scores of friends. Miss Mary Ehlum was born in Oregon, not far from the home she just left, August 4, 1874, and has always resided in Marion county, beloved by all who knew her.

C. T. Tooze has sold his home at Wilsonville and expects to move to Butteville some time this summer, where he has a fine farm.

Morris Young was home Saturday, Sunday and Monday from school at Corvallis.

ELDORADO.

Dr. and Mrs. Goucher visited their daughter, Mrs. Charles Noblitt, of Needy.

Mr. and Mrs. Grisenthwaite, of Beaver Creek, were the guests of C. Spence and family last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Helvey made a business trip to Canby last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones went to Colton last Sunday.

Miss Clara Schoenborn went to Oregon City last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jones went to Portland Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Spence attended Pomona Grange at Stafford Wednesday.

John Heivey returned to Marquam Saturday and resumed his work in the sawmill near that place.

HIGHLAND.

Two big loads of homeseekers came into Highland Monday. The new arrivals are from Russia.

A great many potatoes are being planted here now.

John Wallace intends leaving down the river next Monday, to drive oxen in a logging camp.

Several hands went from here to Canby to sort potatoes as there was a rush call for several carloads at 75 cents per hundred. Wonder what's the matter with Oregon City? They never seem to be in the market.

Dr. Pruden is moving away. He has bought a home out southeast of Portland at Arleta.

Farmers are now taking their cattle back on the range. Feed is getting a pretty fair start.

Judging by the general tone of the voters here Geo. C. will have to get up and dust if he succeeds in explaining away the federal indictment. The time is getting very limited.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Miss Maud Moran went to Portland to school again this week. Last week she was at home on account of her mother's illness.

Albert Frost was here visiting his mother last Sunday.

Mrs. Smith was visiting last week with her cousin, Mrs. Laura Bullard. She is nursing in a Portland hospital and her little boy is staying with Mrs. Bullard.

Mrs. May Fesler and Miss Laverne Craig were guests of Mrs. Grubbs last Sunday.

R. O. Thomas and wife, lately of Mount Pleasant, were calling on friends in this burg Monday. They are going to Spokane, Wash.

J. W. Murrow is on a business trip to The Dalles this week.

P. D. Curran, candidate for justice of the peace for this district, is out in Abernethy and Maple Lane precincts this week fixing his political fences.

Mrs. Skinner, lately of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Warner last Sunday. Mr. Skinner is moving to Hillsboro and Mrs. Skinner and the children are visiting out at their farm with Mr. and Mrs. Oswald.

Messrs. Estes, Church & Horace Williams are sorting potatoes this week.

J. W. Currin and wife spent last Sunday down town at the home of Mr. Edmondson and wife.

Miss Bertha Prebe was taken to the Portland hospital last Tuesday.

Harry Kinder and wife have moved into Mr. Johnston's house near Mr. McGeehan.

Miss Emma Roman, of Mount Pleasant, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Garber, Tuesday.

Mrs. Smalley is on the sick list this week.

A literary entertainment will be given in W. W. May's hall next Saturday evening. Refreshments will be served. Games will be played after the program is rendered.

Mr. Mighles had a dray load of furniture brought up from St. John's Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning it was taken to his house at Maple Lane.

That Maple Lane Grange quilt was drawn last Saturday at 1:30 o'clock, the quilt number being 310 Miss Jess Montgomery had the ticket.

Easter Sunday will be observed by the Mountain View Sunday school with a short program of appropriate exercises and a surprise gift for the children.

CENTRAL POINT.

The rain storm that came up on Sunday and Monday was well appreciated by the farmers of this place as the crops were very much in need of rain.

Politicians have been numerous in this vicinity for the last few weeks and various candidates delivered stump speeches at Brown's school-house on the 4th and 11th.

Herbert McDonald of Tigardville, visited our city last Sunday and Monday.

George G. Randall has been stringing hops the past few days.

Tom Penman made a flying trip to Canby Tuesday last.

Frank Inglis' smiling face is now seen in our vicinity, as he is working for Robert Brown.

Miss Anna Pollard and sister, Nellie Godwin, spent Saturday in Portland.

George G. Randall's umbrella disappeared at the funeral held in the M. E. church some time ago and has not yet appeared. A liberal reward will be offered to any one returning it. The umbrella had a gold band with the initials engraved on it.

BEAVER CREEK.

Mrs. Flora Fisher and children of Oregon City, is visiting her brother, August Blum and family, for a couple of days.

Misses Marie Hollman and Anna Steiner spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Grim, of Mt. Pleasant, and Mr. and Mrs. Splinter and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Rindfleisch, of Maple Lane, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Schrieber and family.

All schools were closed last week on account of smallpox, but they will commence again Monday.

Miss Minnie Schwartz, formerly of this place, is visiting with friends here.

Miss Lena Grossmiller returned present. Games were the feature of the evening.

Saturday evening, March 24, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davis was the scene of much enjoyment, the occasion being the 18th birthday of their son, Herman, who was surprised by a number of his friends. Games and music were indulged in to the delight of all until 11:30, when the guests were in turn surprised by a very enjoyable repast, served by the hostess and her daughter, Grace, after which the guests departed, having spent a very pleasant evening together. Those present were Misses Rachael, Ada and Grace Davis, Florence Duncan, Elsie Covey, Inez Krighbaum, Iva Dale and Messrs. Curtis and Russell Wilcox, Floyd Davis, Grover Krighbaum, Herman Davis, Horace Davis, Robert Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. William W. Davis.

Ed Mullen went to Portland Friday.

G. T. Hunt, of Leats, with a number of friends, came out last Saturday to fish. Mr. Hunt will move out on his place in July.

REDLAND.

J. T. Fullam is cleaning up his spuds at 60 cents per sack, which he sold to Mr. Jaggar.

Blaesing Granite Co. put up a monument for Mrs. C. H. Senn last week.

Miss Maude Stone was home on a visit from Salem.

D. H. Mosher was also taking in the ridge.

Otto Polehm came home from Salem

this too by a man who wants the nomination for county commissioner.

Some one certainly wants to make a record while in office, the way the county court is dribbling out contracts for road plank.

RUSSELLVILLE.

We are now favored with a nice rain. We are in hopes it will continue a few days, as some were plowing new ground and it was very dry. Oats that came up since the cold spell look fine and bid fair to make a good crop if we have enough rain. Some barns are getting empty but grass is right at hand, which is good for the stock, as many are in want.

John Trullinger has gone to Eastern Oregon for the summer to earn wages. He is a faithful hand.

L. B. Trullinger is working for E. H. Dart, planting potatoes.

Mr. Paulson is still seeding.

Louis Daugherty had the misfortune to get his leg broken by rolling logs. A log rolled on his leg. Charles Hardy was with him at the time, and it was with the utmost effort that Charley got the log off.

Henry Daugherty went after his goats a few evenings ago and found more kids than he could carry and called for help to get them home. The wolves will have a fine time catching them after awhile. There are only a few persons doing well with sheep or goats, on account of the wolves and dogs.

MULINO.

Mrs. J. D. Rainey and children are spending a few days with J. Trullinger.

Dot Mallat's little daughter has been quite sick the past few days.

One of Mulino's young men was seen giving his girl a "buggy ride," in a lumber wagon last Thursday.

Quite a bit of carpenter work is being done in Mulino at present.

Misses Jennie Akins and Mary Trullinger visited the Liberal school Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and sons, of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. Ashby Friday and Saturday.

Miss Elva Erickson is staying with her grandmother, Mrs. Ball, at present.

Albert and Elmer Erickson are working at Meadowbrook.

Everybody, including the hens, are preparing for Easter.

Johnny Erickson is working for Ed Trullinger.

Alfred Dodge is spending a few days with his father at Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Maple and Miss Vesta Churchill visited J. Trullinger and family Sunday.

CLACKAMAS.

Regular day meeting of the Grange No. 298, P. of H., was held Saturday, April 7. The attendance was much smaller than usual, owing to the busy season. A communication from Milwaukie Grange was read, relating to a table of necessary articles for the household which was being prepared by ladies of that Grange. These articles will be on sale at next meeting, Saturday, April 21.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson was buried Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Holcomb, of Portland, were visiting R. B. Holcomb and family last Sunday.

Easter services will be held in the Congregational church next Sabbath morning, at 10:30.

Brother Landes made some remarks on the need of a permanent home for the order, and offered plans and estimated costs. Brother Kerchem offered some excellent suggestions on getting material together and making a start toward building. The Grange voted to accept Brother Landes' plans, and to instruct the building committee to begin work at once. A few matters of business were laid over until next meeting. Lecture hour was pleasantly filled. Grange closed in due form.

Clackamas Grange will meet as usual Friday afternoon. An Arbor day program will be given by the pupils of the school. Everybody cordially invited especially mothers.

Miss Ethel Clark visited friends in Eugene last Saturday and Sunday.

Several men are still engaged in cutting, hauling and loading piling.

Misses Emma Kennedy and Myrtle Purcell, of Parkplace, visited Mrs. Buck Saturday.

MEADOWBROOK.

Another good rain. Farmers all busy; plow deep; sow alfalfa; raise hogs; fat cattle; leave the politicians to raise h—l.

Charles Holman and family, of Portland, was out Sunday visiting Ralph on the ranch.

J. W. Staudinger was transacting business at the hub this week.

There are a few more cases of measles in town and some cases not reported.

Our usual quiet burg was thrown into excitement bordering on a panic. We all had met to discuss Brownell and other political matters, when there came strange noises borne on the evening breeze. Some thought steamboats on the Molalla river; others thought a motor was falling, but a little later on it proved to be the Molalla band practicing a new piece of music.

Uncle Davy Solinsson is still undecided as to voting the Democratic ticket.

Mulino wants a band to discourse sweet music. Be careful, boys.

Joshua Gorbett passed through our town last week smoking a cigar.

Owing to a rash of business the faithful nine failed to meet this week.

German Society Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the German Society was held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Knapp's Hall, and a fine program was rendered, consisting of songs and recitations. Several of the members delivered brief speeches, and the male choir rendered a number of pleasing vocal selections. A feature of the afternoon was a vocal solo by Mrs. Betzel. The ladies and children present enjoyed the afternoon as well as the members, and the program was followed by a toothsome luncheon.

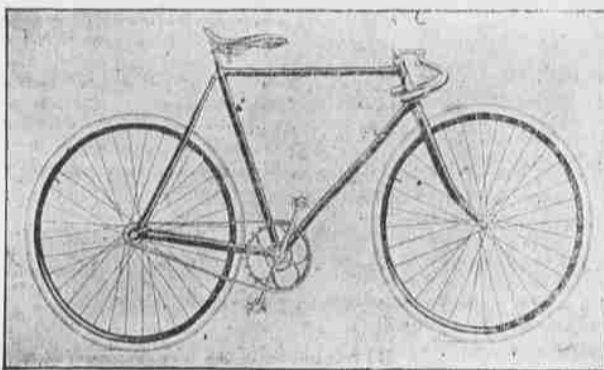

ALTI-TONE

NATURES PERFECT TONIC

City Drug Store
CHARMAN & COMPANY

"Everybody Rides But Father"

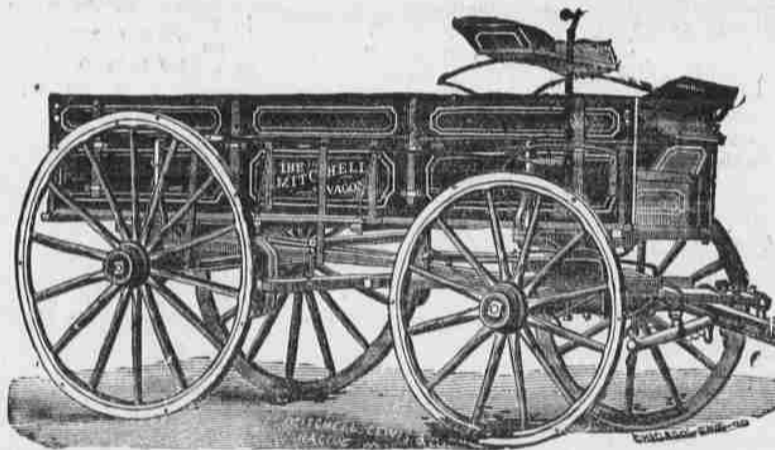

And he would be riding, too, if he could see our new 1906 model

Snell and Mitchell Wheels

THE SNELL FOR ONLY $35

MITCHELL $25

Remember we SELL the same grade of wheel for $35 that others ASK $50 for.

WHY MITCHELL WAGONS?

Not because they run easiest and last longest. Not because they represent over 70 years of experience in wagon building, but because

The Mitchell Quality is Always Sure

Every Mitchell Wagon is just like every other Mitchell Wagon, the quality never varies. Every one is the best that it is possible to build. No dissatisfied users, not a customer ever lost on account of bad goods. They make friends wherever they go.

MITCHELL, LEWIS & STAVER CO.

J. E. SMITH MDWR. CO., Agents, Oregon City, Ore

First and Taylor Streets

Portland, Oregon

home from Portland last Monday.

Misses Bertha and Lizzie Thomas, of Mt. Pleasant, were visiting with friends here for several weeks. They intend to leave for Spokane soon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Bohlender received the news of another grandson, which was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mat Smith, of Barton.

Miss Lucy Gwyer, who was visiting with friends here for several months, returned to her home in Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henri and Mrs. Shelly went to Clackamas to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Henri.

GARFIELD.

Sunshine and rain after the cold spell makes everything brighter up. Farmers are busy making garden.

Florence Buchanan completed a successful term of school at the Tracy school last week and left on Saturday for her home at Hood River. After a visit there, she will resume teaching in Clatsop county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Anders visited Mr. and Mrs. Holder one day last week.

An oyster supper was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Huxley, in honor of Miss Ruby Wagner, it being her birthday. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were last week, where he has been for some time.

Our L. & D. S. closed its meetings last Saturday. They expect to give an entertainment and basket social the evening of April 28.

Dr. Roland preached at Redland M. E. church last Sunday. On April 23 Professor Matthews, of Willamette University, will preach at the M. E. church at the usual hour.

H. A. Allen's brother, from the East, arrived Sunday afternoon with his family, to make this his future home.

Louis Funk has posters out for the sale of the Hart estate.

If some of the gentlemen were as anxious to help Oregon City and Clackamas county farmers in general to get a market as they are to serve the people by getting in office, this would be the best place in the world, but not!

The communication of R. Petold in last week's paper has more truth in it than poetry, but it seems that the scale will some time work for the interest of the buyer, which happened to the writer not long ago, as the weigher gave 40 cents less on first weight on two steers, which would certainly have gone in somebody's pocket besides the producer. This might have been an accident, but it shows carelessness on the part of the weigher, if it was an accident, and

NEW ERA.

Mrs. Engel is on the sick list this week, caused by the upsetting of a chair and shaking her up very badly.

Mrs. Overacker, of Toledo, Or., is visiting old friends here this week, after an absence of four years. Miss Overacker remarks that a great many marked improvements have been made since she left.

Elmer Lucas was in the city Sunday and says the measles are not what they are cracked up to be.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Young, of Beaver Creek, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Engel, last Sunday.

The county rock crusher is at work on the McCord hill north of Beaver Creek. Let the good work extend to all the bad hills.

Mrs. Madder and daughter, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kell.

Mrs. Lottie Penman is cooking on the R. J. Brown farm, Chief Chris Huff having resigned.

Thomas Kelland spent Sunday with his brother, George, on Mill Creek. Miss Noble, Miss Newbury and Mr. McArthur attended Kirk Robekah lodge at Canby Tuesday last week. Latest—T. W. Blanchard is in telephone touch with the world since Sunday. Call him up; he'll take it good naturedly.

Duane C. Ely General Dealer

I have the following lines of Merchandise that I will offer in competition with any dealer on the Coast as compared to quality and prices of the same. I have the agency for the

John Deere line of Plows, Harrows & Buggies

Which speak for themselves wherever used. The KEYSTONE FENCING, which is cheaper than building rail fence, and will not burn. WEBER WAGONS; NATIONAL CREAM SEPARATORS, simplest and best on the market.

Drygoods, Shoes, Rubbers, Small Hardware of various kinds. I wish to say for those parties living in other parts of the county that have not traded with me before, that I have as large and well assorted variety of everything in the general merchandise line as any store in the county and at prices that are right for a good grade of goods. All that I ask is to have them call and examine the goods and get my prices before buying elsewhere, as very often I find people taking out goods that I could have saved them money on. Anyway it does not cost them anything to call and find out at

DUANE C. ELY

Drygoods and Implement House

OREGON CITY, OREGON