

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Hood View.

The social given by the Ladies' Aid at the parsonage and the program at the church Friday evening were a grand success.

Mrs. Robert Graham is very slowly recovering at the Graham home, attended by a trained nurse.

Mr. F. F. Seely is enclosing his residence with a nice new picket fence, painted white.

Mrs. C. T. Tooze spent the greater part of the week visiting her daughters, who are attending school at Mouth.

Miss Goldie Seely has entertained many friends this week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swartz, a boy, May 7.

Rev. Warren, formerly of this place, is now located in St. Johns.

Mrs. B. E. Moor entertained quite a number of guests Sunday.

Dan Stahlmecker, our road boss, is doing some good as well as much needed road work.

Mr. F. F. Tooze made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Quite a lot of work is being done in the Pleasant Hill cemetery recently.

Miss Daisy Vinson is much improved from her recent illness.

Mr. Kinyon of Butteville is improving rapidly with his broken limb, under the able treatment of Dr. Benj. Giesy.

There will be preaching at this place next Sunday without fail. Since Rev. Warren left ministers are scarce.

Molalla.

"Made in Oregon" made to order weather is now enjoyed on the moist side of the appreciation.

The democratic speaking set for next Saturday night has been changed to 2 o'clock p. m. on account of the halls being occupied Saturday nights.

First campaign gun was fired off here last Saturday night by our next state senator, sheriff and others.

Molalla band or the candidates attracted quite a full house Saturday evening.

A three-cornered wager: Last week a Needy voter offered to wager that Nelson would get 100 votes for state senator in the county; a Marquam voter took the wager.

Now a Molalla voter, not going to be outdone, offers to bet that Beattie will receive more votes at Molalla for sheriff than Nelson will in the county for state senator.

Fred Schaffer's railroad ties are due at Canby this Tuesday noon, sooner or later.

Mark's Prairie.

All grain here is growing fine and it is raining today, thus insuring good crops.

Our hop raisers are well along with their yards and hops are making a fine growth.

Oglesby brothers have their hop yard in fine shape and have the vines trained on the wires and will have their yard work done in a few days.

Mr. Dave Zimmerman is still a very sick man and but little hopes for his recovery are entertained.

Don't forget the entertainment at Mark's Prairie school house Friday evening, May 18; be sure and be there. A fine program has been prepared.

Mrs. John Gesse has been with her mother, Mrs. George Kestlering of Canby, the past week.

An impromptu social was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ritter Saturday evening. The evening was spent in social converse and some tripped the light fantastic toe till the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Mr. George Oglesby was calling on Mr. Jim Mills regarding road matters Sunday.

Mr. Percy Ritter and Miss Laura Reams were out driving Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ritter of California are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ritter, at present. They have been absent for several years.

The road supervisors are keeping the road grader hot grading our roads.

Avon Jesse now sports a new buggy and some of our young ladies are "all smiles."

Mr. Ben Wolfer moved into his new residence last week. The carpenters are putting on the finishing touches at present.

Several republicans here openly say they will not support several of their party nominees and we predict that there will be lots of scratched ballots in June.

Mr. Hedges won several votes at Needy by his manly stand for better and cleaner men in office for this county. That George C. has no walkover is very certain.

Beaver Creek.

Mrs. J. S. Jones and daughters of Chinook and Mrs. Reed of Portland are out visiting Mr. and Mrs. Spatz.

Mr. Fred Steiner is building a large barn.

Jim Shannon is sawing out lumber for his barn.

J. S. Jones was up from Chinook looking over his farm, and gave his house a new coat of paint.

Our merchant, Henry Hugh, is doing a flourishing business.

Last Sunday Mr. Spatz and family, Mrs. J. S. Jones and daughters and Mrs. Reed of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Kallfleisch of Canby.

Bolander brothers took a load of pigs to Portland Tuesday.

Crops are looking fine in this part of the country.

New Era.

Miss Jennie Noble closed a successful term of school here last Friday with appropriate exercises.

The basket social given by the W. C. T. U. Saturday was well attended and the proceeds, $30.85, will be used toward finishing the interior of their hall.

An excellent program was rendered and ice cream went fast as it could be dished out.

Miss Mary Klohe of Portland visited friends here last week.

Wild strawberries are about gone. Supervisor Will Randal has been doing some good work on some of our back streets this week.

The board of officers of the First Spiritual Religious Association of Clackamas County, Oregon, consisting of Rev. G. C. Love, John Burgoyne and Lidie J. Irwin, held a meeting in Oregon City May 10 and decided on the date of the annual camp meeting to be held on their grounds at New Era, commencing July 7 and closing July 29.

Harrison D. Barrett was chosen speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Underwood and Mrs. Lapworth have been selected as co-workers and other mediums will be present during the entire season of the camp. All who are interested in the truths of spiritualism are cordially invited to attend. Tents are for rent on the grounds and good hotel accommodations are also at your service at moderate rates.

Mr. and Mrs. William Slyter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slyter of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Dustin Sunday.

Mr. Kleiser, of Foster & Kleiser Co., Portland, and party were hung up all day here Sunday on account of a breakdown of their automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McArthur celebrated their first anniversary last Tuesday evening.

John Stalmaker and Wesley Riggs of Canby were fishing near here Sunday.

Mr. Lash left Tuesday to visit his daughter, Mrs. John Crawford, of Vancouver, Wash.

CANBY.

Mrs. Dedman and Mrs. Dixon were Portland visitors Monday.

Mrs. Wing, from Portland, came up last Friday to attend Mrs. Geo. Keselring, who has been very low with pneumonia.

Mr. Herbert Johnson, from Needy, was in the city last Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Dedman went to Portland Friday evening.

Wm. Bissell, from Oregon City, was shaking hands with old friends in Canby last Saturday.

Miss Arline Hardin and friends went to Portland Friday evening to attend the Mme. Bernhardt entertainment.

Mrs. Robert Irwin, from Pomeroy, Washington, was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Kesslering, who has been very low with pneumonia.

Mrs. Kesslering is much better at present writing.

Mr. Tooze and wife were in the city yesterday looking for a house. Mr. Tooze is a brother of Walter L. Tooze of Woodburn.

Mrs. L. D. Walker spent last Tuesday in Portland with her sister.

Mr. Robert Baker, of Willamette, Democratic candidate for county treasurer, came up Tuesday to attend the Democratic meeting.

Harvey G. Starkweather made G. Whipple and family a short visit last Wednesday.

Mr. Grant White has purchased

Evans is now running the City Hotel at Canby.

SHUBEL.

R. Ginther and family visited relatives at Macksburg last Sunday.

H. Hornshuh came out Sunday to see his daughter, who is staying with his brother's family.

The boys have been trying to organize a ball team for some time, the prospects are there will be two teams. Well, hurry and play ball.

The saw mills are rushed with orders, and are crowding things. One mill sent out sixteen loads in one day.

Moehnke & Heft have traded their old saw mill for a new one. The new one will be placed on Fred Heft's place where they have timber enough to run for several years.

C. Hornshuh is expecting all his boys home for a visit this week. Five of them are preachers in the Evangelical Association.

Mrs. G. A. Schubel visited her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Lieser at Sellwood, for a few days last week, returning home Sunday.

Our supervisor commenced grading on the Buckner hill last week. A good many think it is about time to replace some of the plank, as there are several places on the Oregon City road which are very much in need of repair, and their question is, why is it not repaired at the proper time? The supervisor says the Court will not allow it, and the Court says why don't the supervisors fix it, and there you are, guess again.

Mrs. Ada Moehnke has been engaged to teach our school for the next year.

Everything seems quiet so far as politics are concerned. There is some rumbling beneath the surface and no telling what a shake-up there will be on June 4th.

D. F. Moehnke is building an addition to his house.

RUSSELLVILLE.

People of Russellville were visited by the Democratic speakers, five of them. They interested the people for the coming election.

We were visited by a fine shower of rain yesterday which was much needed and more would be better.

Ben Johnson has bought himself a nice double-seated riding rig. Now in the city last Monday to see about moving Mrs. Jas. Phegley's household goods to Woodburn, where she has purchased a house and lot and will make that thriving little burg her future home.

Mr. Dick Garrett, veterinary surgeon from Needy, was called to Canby last Friday to see a very sick and valuable horse belonging to Mr. Chapman. Mr. Garrett is one of the best veterinarians in the state and is on the go night and day.

Mr. William Cantwell, from Portland, came up Sunday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Henry Evans. Mrs.

Ben Johnson has bought himself a nice double-seated riding rig. Now in the city last Monday to see about moving Mrs. Jas. Phegley's household goods to Woodburn, where she has purchased a house and lot and will make that thriving little burg her future home.

Mr. Dick Garrett, veterinary surgeon from Needy, was called to Canby last Friday to see a very sick and valuable horse belonging to Mr. Chapman. Mr. Garrett is one of the best veterinarians in the state and is on the go night and day.

Mr. William Cantwell, from Portland, came up Sunday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Henry Evans. Mrs.

between the Oswego and the Oregon City team. The score was 9 to 10 in favor of Oswego.

Mrs. Brant, who was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital Saturday, is said to be improving.

Mrs. Ball of this place, was also taken to the Good Samaritan hospital Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Thomas is dangerously ill.

HIGHLAND.

A dance was given at Jean Cummins' last Saturday night.

B. R. Miller lost his brood mare last Sunday.

Moehnke & Heft have exchanged their boiler and engine for a portable one.

Bob Shockley has quit the job of Mr. Selby is at home for a few days this week.

Bob Bullard, of Carus, was in this burg Sunday. He is in town taking care of his little boy who broke his leg last week Thursday.

Quite a number of the children in this burg have the measles.

Leslie Curran had pneumonia with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Chisum who bought Geo. V. Ely's house have gone back to New York. They were unexpectedly called away on business and will not be back before next Spring.

Mrs. Smalley went to Salem last week on Friday afternoon, to visit her parents and returned home again Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fesler, of Portland, spent Sunday here among relatives and friends.

Mr. Everhart went out to Molalla Saturday evening and returned Monday morning.

Property has been changing hands in this burg lately.

Mr. W. W. May traded four lots near the Catholic grave yard for 12 lots opposite Mr. Murrow's residence, known as the Sanford property.

Mr. Burley has bought two lots from Mr. Nickels and had Mr. Coonsman plow it Tuesday morning.

Miss Maud Moran went to Portland again Monday to school, after an absence of two weeks on account of her mother being ill.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger will give a lecture at the Mountain church next Monday evening, May 21st with stereopticon views. All invited to attend.

Mrs. Aneta Hornshuh is staying with her parents this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. May went to Portland last Sunday after Aneta who had fallen down stairs and hurt herself.

Mrs. Reynolds and daughter of the earthquake district of California, arrived here Tuesday.

Miss Grace Reynolds of Portland, accompanied them out to their farm beyond Maple Lane.

Mrs. Sinclair is quite poorly again this week.

Children's Day will be observed at the Sunday School here with appropriate exercises the third Sunday in June.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger preached at the Mountain View Church last Sunday.

LOGAN.

The Democratic candidates were at Logan on the 12th and were well received. H. G. Starkweather, J. T. Grace, O. D. Eby and R. W. Baker were the speakers and they discussed the political situation in Clackamas county very thoroughly. H. G. Starkweather was the first speaker and his clear, straightforward businesslike address disproved the statement that the County Judge should necessarily be a lawyer and also Brownell's plea that Starkweather is "a nice, pleasant gentleman, but is devoid of backbone necessary in a County Judge." Clackamas county's official business would be entirely safe in his hands.

J. T. Grace made a short talk and explained his position on questions of interest to tax payers.

R. W. Baker told some humorous stories and promised efficiency in the treasurer's office if elected. O. D. Eby is a fluent and entertaining speaker and promised to try to give the people a chance to elect their road supervisors and to not convict at work on the public roads.

A. L. Beattie and J. J. Cooke were present and the latter made a short talk on the political situation.

Mrs. Clara B. Colby will speak at the Grange hall on Sunday, May 20, at 7:30 p. m., on woman suffrage. Mrs. Colby is highly recommended as a fine speaker.

W. R. Heelis was visiting in Logan last week.

The dance at the Grange hall on May 11th by Milwaukie people, for the benefit of their Grange hall fund, was a great success. A large crowd was in attendance. The music by an orchestra of five pieces, was excellent.

Coming.

Beeson Bros.' Big Double Uncle Tom's Cabin company, with their own solo band and operatic orchestra; a pack of man-eating bloodhounds; performing ponies and a first-class company of twenty-five artists, will give one performance only at Shively's opera house, Wednesday, May 23. Popular prices will prevail and seats now on sale at Huntley. Parade at noon.

Millinery cut. Child's Trimmed Hats, 40c up; Ladies' $1.39 up; Stylish Hats, underpriced. Red Front.

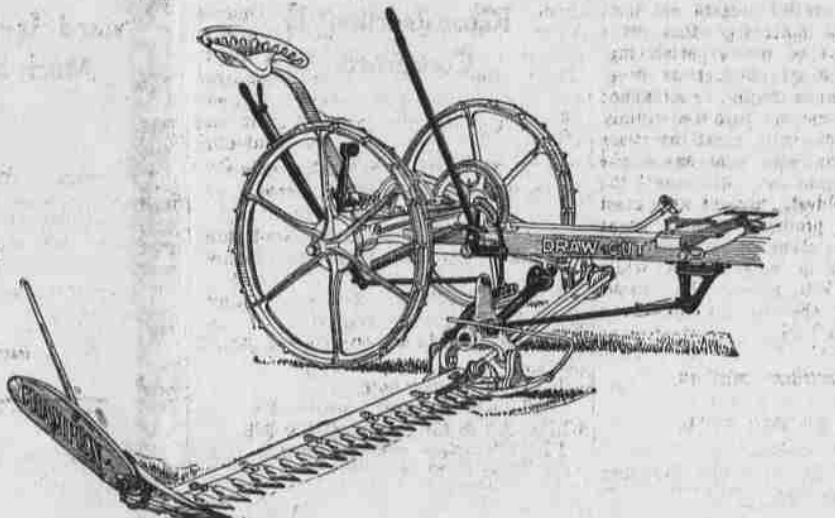

Independent (Haysee) Candidate for STATE SENATOR

N. F. NELSON Of Harding Precinct, Clackamas County

THE STRONGEST CUTTER IN THE WORLD

The Champion Draw Cut Mower

Draws the Bar, Holds the Wheels to the Ground, Gives Great Power to the Knife, Impossible to Choke Down the Champion. Adjustable Lining up Feature Keeps Knife and Pitman Always in Line, No Power Lost. Easy to Handle on Rough Ground or in Lodged Clover

GASTON, Oregon, April 9, 1906

MITCHELL, LEWIS & STAYER CO.

DEAR SIR:—I will drop you a few lines to let you know that I have sold my old Binder, a Champion by name and by use too. I have cut in eight years about 1150 acres and it is good for 500 more, but I got a good price for it so I let it go. Hoping to get me one of the late improved ones that may prove better if it can be. In eight seasons I have been to the expense of $2.25 for extras.

Yours truly,
(Signed) A. A. WALKER,
Gaston, Oregon, R. F. D. No. 1.

MITCHELL, LEWIS & STAYER CO. First and Taylor Streets Portland, Oregon

J. E. SMITH HDWR. CO., Agents, Oregon City, Ore

THE MODERN FARMER

Makes his farm modern because that's the kind of a farm that pays best. And he buys modern farm tools because he couldn't do his work properly with any other kind. We'd like to show you

A Full Line of Modern Farm Implements and Vehicles

That will save you money, time, work and worry. We have on display the latest of everything—the most improved implements made—and enjoy showing them to our friends. Among the best of the good things you'll find here are the world-famed

John Deere Plows, Harrows and Cultivators

Every farmer knows what kind of tools they are. But we'd like to point out to you some of the improvements and labor-saving tools of this "good old line," made since last season; a whole house full of tools which will help you to dig more dollars from the dirt this year. Come in next time you're in town—there's a great feast here for the farmer. I have purchased a number of mowers at a great bargain, which I am selling at less than cost while they last.

DUANE C. ELY

Drygoods and Implement House

OREGON CITY, OREGON

Evans is now running the City Hotel at Canby.

a paralytic stroke. Scott Carter's folks went to the circus in Oregon City and report a good time.

Mrs. Carter sold three fine pigs that dressed about four hundred pounds at 8 1-2 cents per pound.

Mr. O. S. Boyles contemplates going to the mines for a few days to work for a company on their mine in the Ogle Creek district.

Mr. Wingfield went to Canby a few days ago with some produce, among which he had one hundred dozen eggs. Canby is still buying all kinds of produce.

Wales Russell has bought himself a new Studebaker wagon that looks like business.

Farmers all busy—watch the rain drops falling. Brother Wingfield preached a very interesting sermon at Meadowbrook Sunday.

Uncle Jake Harless made a flying trip to town Sunday.

Mr. Fred Schafer, the mill man, has a drive of about 30,000 ties on the river road to market. Ties are a good price. We hope to see Fred do well on the venture.

Mrs. Amanda Oren is quite poorly at present writing.

Joshua Gorbett was in town this week. He is talking bridge business for this part of the county.

The all important question now before the faithful nine is whether to Rooseveltize the Republican party or Republicanize Roosevelt.

The voice of the politician is once more heard in the land and the world swings around. The gulf is widening, the conflict is nearing; plutocracy is preparing to feast, Nero is fiddling, some are burning, Caesar is crossing the Rubicon.

A social meeting of the Epworth League was given at the home of Mrs. Shipley last Friday.

The Rebekahs gave an entertaining Friday evening. A number of invited guests were present.

There was a ball game played here logging at the Cummin's mill. All of the saw mills in this vicinity are running full time. The most of this lumber is being loaded on S. P. cars at Parkplace. It is to be hoped that a place in Oregon City will be made to load these cars. Much more lumber would be shipped, thereby bringing hundreds of dollars more in to the country.

Last Saturday a bee was given for the opening of the road between the old Beeson saw mill and Klinger's. Some 15 of the boys turned out. Logs of average size were of no consequence towards evening. The road is now open.

Chas. Parish was a visitor here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Broom Mayfield are contemplating to move up by the store of their children.

Mrs. Nickols came home from Beuna Vista last week.

Mr. Pettit and wife expect to move to Portland the last of the week. They have sold their property at this place.

Mrs. Lewellen is visiting in Springfield this week among relatives and friends.

Charley Dickey was at home last Sunday.

Mr. Dickey went to Wilsonville on Wednesday morning to spend a few days on the ranch with Charley.

There are to be a few new buildings put up in this burg soon. Some of the lumber is on the ground to build a new house next door to Mrs. A. Harrington and Mr. Nickel's.

Mrs. Hickman's daughter, from California, is here. They were turned out of house and home by the earthquake.

Mr. Beattie has bought Mr. Harrington's lots west of Mrs. Hickman's and will build soon.

Mrs. Clarence Frost had a telephone put in her house last week.

Mrs. Burley's parents moved into their new house at Maple Lane last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Darling and Ella spent last Sunday at Maple Lane with John Darling and family, who returned from California last week.