Major Wants Divorce.

Major V. Makinster has brought suit against Ida E. Makinster for a decree of divorce. They were married at Oronoco, Minnesota, in February 1877, and the defendant alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, specifying that his wife for many years and up to the present time, without cause or provocation has found fault with everything he did and has kept up a continual nagging at him and has also accused him of lack of mental stability.

Husband Deserted Her.

Mrs. Effie M. Edwards has commenced suit in the circuit court against Matthew O. Edwards for a decree of divorce. They were married in San Francisco, Cal., April 9, 1904, and the plaintiff alleges that her husband deserted her in July, 1904, and without cause or provocation. She desires to resume her maiden name of Effie M. Roadarmel. She is represented by Judge Gordon E. Hayes.

Fined $50 For Assault.

George Macinnaw was Tuesday fined $50 by Justice Stipp and in lieu of the payment of the fine he was committed to the county jail for 25 days. Macinnaw was found guilty of assault and battery. He was employed on the rock crusher in West Oregon City, and Monday afternoon he drank too much and assaulted a driver of a wagon with a huge rock.

Letter List.

The following letters remained uncalled for in the postoffice at Oregon City, Or., for the week ending June 28, 1906.

WOMEN'S LIST.

Calkins, Miss V. A.; Douglas, Miss Ida; Jackson, Miss Cora; Johnson, Sarah; Kirk, Miss Ellen; Nickels, Mrs. Sarah A.; Paquet, Mrs. S. E.; Stober, Mrs. Rose.

Mrs. Jones Entertained.

At the St. Paul hotel a delightful party was given in honor of Miss Anna Williams, who was recently married to Mr. Jones, of Washington. The early departure of Mrs. Jones for her new home will be regretted by her many friends here. Those attending the party were: Mrs. C. J. Nelson, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Weed, of Canby; Mrs. Grinstead and Miss Howard, of Canby; Misses Kuppenbender, Jackson and Zimmerman.

NEW RURAL ROUTE.

Service Will Probably Be Commenced Next Monday.

Postmaster Tom P. Randall announced the establishment of a new rural route out of Oregon City, and service will probably be commenced next Monday. The route embraces the territory covered by two separate petitions that were filed some time ago, and will start from the Oregon City postoffice each morning, Sundays excepted, going South through Canemah to McArthur's place near New Era, east via Kellands place and over the South End road to Oregon City, returning about noon. In the afternoon the carrier will leave the local postoffice and go north through Parkplace, past the Holcomb place, north past the Holcomb schoolhouse, west through Parkplace and back to Oregon City.

The participants in the drama "Valley Farm" extend their sincere and cordial thanks to the people of Barlow for the hearty reception given them at that place and to the Twentieth Century Grange for courtesies extended at the home of Mrs. Shepperd.

BROTHERS WED SISTERS.

Four Souls With But a Single Thought
Four Hearts That Beat as Two.

One of the strangest incidents that has occurred in courthouse circles in a long time happened Monday when Clerk Greenman granted licenses to marry to Nellie Anderson and A. L. Wallace and to Zelma Anderson and E. F. Wallace. The grooms are brothers and the brides are sisters and both girls are under the legal age and the consent of their parents was necessary to the consummation of the match.

E. F. Wallace called at the clerk's office last week and inquired the method of procedure necessary to marry a woman under the age of 18 years, and Mr. Greenman obligingly wrote a blank form on his typewriter, and was nearly taken off his feet when Mr. Wallace said:

"Now, can't you give me one for my brother?" The clerk was at a loss to know what he was up against, but was enlightened Monday, when the Wallace brothers arrived with the necessary permits, accompanied by the mother of the brides, and obtained licenses to wed. The happy grooms and the blushing brides went to the Congregational church parsonage, where four hearts were made to beat as two by Rev. E. S. Bollinger, who tied the knots.

Personal and Local Notes

Attorney and Mrs. O. W. Eastham and daughter have returned from a sojourn at Cascades on the Columbia.

The marriage of Miss Catherine Lavina Ann Dye to Mr. Henry Swales was solemnized Wednesday afternoon in the county courtroom, Judge Thomas F. Ryan officiating.

Licenses to marry have been issued to Anna Wagner, of Wilsonville, and Martin Drageeth, of Hood River; Anna Linquest and T. F. Johnston; Mabel Spartz and Henry P. Goss.

"Everybody Works but the Plumber"

That is 'an exploded idea—so is the notion of millionaire plumbers; there ain't any! The plumber has to work hard to earn a decent living—to work early and late, in all kinds of weather, in dirt and danger, and he well deserves praise for his labors. We are expert plumbers, and make a specialty of quick, cheap and conscientious work. Estimates for new work or repairs given.
