Rewards For Stamp Collections

There's a fascination in stamp collecting of any kind, and there's a rich reward for collections of Adams Brothers Premium Trading Stamps
On all cash purchases made at this store, we give free to everybody, at all times, these trading stamps, one with each ten cent purchase, or ten cent part of a purchase.
When you have filled one of our stamp books, holding 300 stamps, you are entitled to take your choice of a variety of valuable premiums.
300 stamps represents an expenditure of only $30.00 for merchandise, and think how quick you spend this sum on wearing necessities.
And the prices of our merchandise are not "fattened out" to make up for the stamp discount—they are the very lowest you can find.
Two, three or four books of stamps entitles the holder to premiums of commensurate values. It's just like finding money, that's all.

CLARK HAS THE FIGURES.
Farmers Want Railway Between Oregon City and Portland East of S. P. Line.
Farmers along and east of the Southern Pacific Railway between Willburg and Oregon City, including Minthorn, at Milwaukie, Harmony, Clackamas and Gladstone, says the Oregonian, are watching the various electric railway movements in the hope that some of these enterprises will not overlook that rich district. They have a complete organization, or rather series of organizations, at those centers along this route, ready to assist any company which will build them an electric railway to Portland. Furthermore, in the hands of C. F. Clark, who has worked in and out of season, living at Clackamas, is a mass of statistics showing the probable passenger and freight traffic of such a railway. These figures were carefully gathered over every foot of the territory and are thoroughly reliable. When the figures shown by Mr. Clark to C. F. Swigert, formerly of the City & Suburban Company, he expressed doubt as to their accuracy, but Mr. Clark took Mr. Swigert over the entire route, and he was convinced that a field was there for an electric railway, and he would take it up, but the merger of the Portland lines was in the air and nothing has been done.

"I cannot understand," said Mr. Clark yesterday, "why the companies now proposing to build to Portland from the Willamette Valley have overlooked this rich route, which is wholly unoccupied, when our statistics show such investment would pay immediately on completion of the line. I recently attended a railroad meeting at Harmony and 300 farmers were present. They were then ready, and are still ready, to make reasonable concessions. Grades are easy, and there is settlement every foot of the distance. Why build down the west bank of the Willamette River into Portland when an easy grade may be had through a well settled district that is now out of reach of quick transportation facilities?

The intense itching characteristic of salt rheum and eczema is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. As a cure for skin diseases this salve is unequalled. For sale by Hentley Bros. Co., Oregon City and Molalla.
