DENTISTRY, at Molalla, Every Monday—Saturdays on Appointments only. JOHN W. THOMAS, Dentist

Springwater. The Courier office was honored this week by a visit from its Springwater correspondent, A. M. Shibley, who turned over the following notes of his thriving little town. Mr. Shibley is going to take a trip East soon, and will contribute a few notes of his trip as he makes his journey. Following are the items of news left by Mr. Shibley: On Sunday the mercury stood at 100 degrees. Mr. and Mrs. James Shibley and the twins are taking an outing at the coast. The Rev. Blair and his family are taking a vacation. Miss Eva Lewellen is at home on a visit. She has been absent in Sherman County for some time. Mr. Deyons, of Seattle, and Miss Minta Hickman, of Willamette, were the guests of Mrs. L. E. Bard on Sunday. Threshing is pretty well along, and grain is turning out fairly well. Ed Closer has a field of oats which yielded 81 bushels. Dad Ridgway has wheat which is running 57 bushels, which shows what thorough cultivation will do in Springwater. The Springwater carpenter, Earl Shibley, took the overland train Monday evening for Southern Oregon presumably to get a helpmate. In ending his budget of news, Mr. Shibley adds that he had strawberries and cream for his dinner, but does not say when, so this office is left in a blank state of stupefaction. It is presumed that he meant Sunday dinner, but there is a possibility that it was Monday, or it might have been last June. At any rate, they must have been enjoyed, for

Mr. Shibley wore a wide smile of contentment when he left the office. Highland. Heft & Moehnk have now got their mill in good running order, and are putting out some fine lumber. Last Saturday Batt Sullivan set fire to an old stump in a stubble field, and Monday afternoon it took a French leave, and went into the big timber, burning out Pat Sheave, his grain, hay wagon, hack and barn. Huckleberries at Cold Springs are a total failure this year. O. Fellows took off a load of 16 shotes, these being the first hogs to leave here this fall. Alger-Hilleary. At the bride's home, at Damascus, Or., by George C. Carl, Oscar Alger, of Portland to Pearl Hilleary, only daughter of Henry and Louisa Hilleary. A home wedding was in order, with a bountiful repast. Many presents were given, the most substantial a 20-acre farm from the parents. The bride and groom will take a trip up the Columbia, and after September 1 they will be at home on the farm to meet their many friends. Pianos for a Song. We have several beautiful, strictly high-grade, well-known makes of pianos in storage, which we will sell at a great sacrifice, in order to dispose of them at once. Easy payments, if desired. For full description and prices, write Merchants' Collection Agency, P. O. box 430, Portland, Or.
