

FAREWELL TO THEIR PASTOR

Rev. E. S. Bollinger Given a Reception By Members of Congregational Church.

The approaching departure of Rev. E. S. Bollinger and family for Portland, where Mr. Bollinger goes about October 1 to assume the pastorate of the Highland Congregational Church, was marked Tuesday night with a farewell reception tendered by the members of the church to the minister and his family. The affair was held in the parlors of the church and was a signal testimonial of the esteem in which the clergyman is held, after an uninterrupted service of eight years as pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city. Something like 150 people attended.

The exercises in connection with the reception were purely informal. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, in behalf of the members of the church, presented Rev. and Mrs. Bollinger with a complete set of magnificent Haviland China, and fitting responses were made by the minister and his wife. They spoke feelingly and Mr. Bollinger, turning to a lighter vein, said that other people than ministers never had good things said of them until after they were dead, but ministers enjoyed these pleasant things while living.

Rev. H. B. Robins, pastor of the Baptist Church, spoke briefly, declaring there must be something peculiar in the character of a pastor who could remain eight years in one church.

Rev. R. C. Blackwell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, referred to the preciousness of the friendships that enrich the memory of ministers with succeeding changes of location.

Light refreshments were served the guests. Mr. Bollinger's successor has not been chosen, but there is a host of candidates for the position. Mr. Bollinger's departure marks a rare period in the history of the local church where a pastor is leaving with the well wishes of the united church.

DU BOIS JURY DISAGREES.

Estacada Sawmill Man Charged With Dumping Sawdust in Stream.

The jury in the case of the State of Oregon vs. C. E. DuBois failed to reach an agreement Tuesday and were finally discharged by Judge Stipp after several hours deliberation. DuBois, who operates a sawmill at Estacada, was charged by Water Bailiff W. W. Smith with dumping sawdust into a small stream tributary to the Clackamas River, to the injury of the fishing industry. Attorney George C. Brownell defended DuBois and Deputy District Attorney C. Schnebel prosecuted the case.

Hop Picking Over.

Hop picking has been finished in Crisell's hop yard near Wilsonville and a large party from this city returned home Tuesday after a three weeks' stay at the yard, which has as fine a lot of hop that have been picked in the Willamette Valley. The crop totals about 5100 boxes, which is fully 1000 boxes more than last year. Among the Oregon City party were E. H. Cooper and family, Harry Charters, Mrs. McClure and children Elmer Lanckins and family, Mrs. W. W. Aldredge and children, Will Amen and family, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Hewitt and family.

HEGAN-HORNSCHUCH.

Daughter of Well Known Family Becomes Bride of Portland Man.

The marriage of Miss Mary Dorothy Hornschuch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Hornschuch, to Mr. Alexander J. Hegan, of Portland, was solemnized Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. E. D. Hornschuch, of Everett, Wash., officiating.

The interior of the home was handsomely decorated in ivy, ferns and asparagus and Oregon Grape, and Japanese lanterns shed illumination over the porch and lawn. The ceremony took place under a canopy of ferns, Oregon Grape and ivy and was beautiful in its simplicity. The wedding march was played by Miss Lydia Hornschuch, a cousin of the bride, as the bridal party, headed by the clergyman, entered the parlors. The bride was gowned in cream Dutchess satin, with chiffon and embroidered net, and carried a showy bouquet of carnations. Her veil was caught up with a bunch of orange blossoms. Miss Phoebe Brown, of Portland, was her maid of honor and Mr. H. Bouge, of Portland, was best man.

Following the impressive ceremony, the bride and groom received the congratulations of the 60 guests and then a bountiful wedding supper was served. The tables were laden with good things and the evening was spent with music and conversation until the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Hegan for Portland, amid a shower of rice.

The groom is connected with the Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company, of Portland, and the happy couple will reside at Fulton. The bride is well known here as the daughter of a pioneer family and has a host of friends to wish her God-speed on her journey through life.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Married on Fourth of July.

Suit for divorce was commenced in the Circuit Court Saturday by Anna Laura L. Benson against Raleigh E. Benson, to whom she was married in Canyon City, Oregon, July 4, 1901. The fact that they were wedded on Independence Day was no good omen for Mrs. Benson complains that her husband deserted her September 1, 1905. She is represented by Attorney George C. Brownell and she asks for the care and custody of their two children, Rita E. Benson, aged four years, and Geneva A. Benson, aged three years.

Mrs. Mathews' Estate Probated.

The estate of the late Mrs. Permelia Matthews has been admitted to probate. The estimated value of the estate is $900 and the husband of the deceased, David P. Matthews, was appointed administrator. Mrs. Matthews died at Estacada July 1. The heirs are the widow and John H. Matthews, of Portland; Oliver S. Matthews, of Milwaukie; David P. Matthews, of Harmony; James E. Matthews, of Milwaukie and Mrs. Anna Stoller, of Sellwood.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Oregon City.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. H. R. McCarver, inspector for the Transcontinental Co., and living at 284 East First St., North, Portland, Ore., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me so much good about three years ago that I publicly testified to my experience. I had been suffering with kidney complaint and backache and it was very painful and distressing. I think it started from a cold which settled in my back. I had always been more or less skeptical about proprietary medicines but somehow [the recommendations of Doan's Kidney Pills influenced me to begin using them. The results were so satisfactory that, as stated above, I gave the remedy my recommendation. I am pleased to state that the time that has elapsed since has only served to increase my confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at Huntley Bros. drug store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Bradley Buys Feed Stable.

George W. Bradley has purchased the Harbord feed barn on Main street near the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company freight depot and will take possession next Monday. He will also operate a livery stable and will remodel the barn. Mr. Bradley formerly was engaged in raising Rhode Island Red poultry for the stock market and had a place 8 1/2 miles east of this city and recently sold the property to Mr. Browner. The new livery and feed stable owner is moving with his family to Oregon City this week, and will make his permanent residence here.

PARTNERSHIP DISSOLUTION.

The firm of Albright & Kloostera is this day dissolved, Mr. Kloostera retiring. Mr. Albright will continue to conduct the business at the same place and will endeavor to serve all old and new customers with first-class meats at reasonable prices.

George C. Brownell and W. A. Heylman, a lawyer of Estacada, have become associated in the practice of their profession, under the firm name of Brownell & Heylman. The latter attorney will look after the interests of the legal business of the firm in the Eastern part of Clackamas County.

If a Cow gave Butter mankind would have to invent milk. Milk is Nature's emulsion—butter put in shape for digestion. Cod liver oil is extremely nourishing, but it has to be emulsified before we can digest it.

Scott's Emulsion

combines the best oil with the valuable hypophosphites so that it is easy to digest and does far more good than the oil alone could. That makes Scott's Emulsion the most strengthening, nourishing food—medicine in the world.
