

OUTLAW'S LIFE ATTRACTED HIM

Thrashed Because Would Not Study Boy Takes To Brush For Awhile.

Clay Green, who lives on the West Side, came to the sheriff last Friday afternoon with the information that his son, Gwynne, a young chap about fourteen years old, was becoming dangerous and that he desired to have him taken into custody. Deputy Schuebel made out a complaint and the sheriff appointed Charles Ely as deputy to go after the boy and bring him in. He, however, was unable to find the young desperado.

It seems that the boy has been feeding his mind on dime novels and trashy literature, and has become filled with the deeds of valor of the characters in the novels. For a few days he ran wild in the brush with a rifle and a belt of cartridges.

It is said that he took two shots at Hugh Burdon, one of the West Side residents, and is said to have made the remark that he had three shots waiting to be fired, one for his father, one for the sheriff if he came after him and one for himself. His father was badly scared at his son's actions, and thought that there was no doubt he would carry out his threat if he had the chance. He is said to have been a wild boy all his life, and his father has had little control over him. He has devoured the cheap novels of the five and ten cent series and has been fond of playing outlaw and Indian games. Finally his imagination has made him an outlaw in reality.

Monday he became tamer, and had a conference with his father at which it was decided that he should go to work in the state of Washington. He had had trouble with his father over the question of going to school, and it was a thrashing administered by the father over his refusal to study that precipitated his outlaw ideas. Mr. Green sent him to Washington and withdrew the complaint against him.

CHAPMAN-ROBINSON WEDDING.

Very Pretty Ceremony at Home of the Bride's Parents.

The recent marriage of E. C. Chapman, of Clackamas, to Miss Grace Robinson of this city was one of the prettiest wedding that has occurred here in a long time. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents at 310 Sixth street and the young couple were united by the Rev. Henry E. Robins, pastor of the First Baptist church. The bride was attended by Mrs. W. H. Robinson, of Portland as matron of honor, and E. M. Dalrymple of Salem was best man. The bride was gowned in a charming champagne colored traveling suit and a white Leghorn hat with a profusion of pink roses. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The house was decorated with potted plants and ferns.

At the reception which followed the wedding the following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Alex Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, of Portland, Mr. E. M. Dalrymple, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. A. Thompson, Mrs. Kate Mark Blum, of Portland; Mrs. J. M. Mark, Mrs. C. D. Tillson, Miss Jessie Black, Miss Albina Thibert, Miss Leah Lemon, Miss Bees M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Kendall, Miss Blanche Kendall, Mr. F. W. Youmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman took the evening train for Portland and will be gone on a short wedding trip.

Washington's Birthday Reception

The Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church gave a reception last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourrette on the bluff. The affair was in the nature of a colonial party, and the young ladies who assisted in receiving were dressed in becoming costumes of the colonial period. Miss Mignon Chase, the president of the society, had charge of the entertainment and great credit is due her for the novel and interesting features that she had planned.

An informal program was rendered, consisting of a song by Miss Ivah Roak, piano selections by Miss Martha Frances Draper, and violin numbers by Miss Ivah Gordon and Charles Stow. The house was effectively decorated, and the soft glow of candle light shed its radiance over the pretty costumes. Candles lighted the supper tables, and the group at each table after supper took its part in a charade illustrating a character in early American history. Some of these were very cleverly acted. As the guests were departing, Miss Chase announced that this was the first of a series of parties to be given by the society.

Fraternal Brotherhood Has Visitor.

The Fraternal Brotherhood held the most important session last Monday night of any since the local lodge has been organized. The Supreme Vice-president, Mrs. Neldig, was present, as were also Past State Manager Buford, State Manager Taylor, State Deputy Supreme Organizer Harris, Past President Lee of Multnomah lodge, and President Gee of the St. Johns lodge. About a carload of visitors came from Portland and other points, and a class of thirteen was initiated. After the work, a social time was spent, and refreshments were served. A program was rendered, and dancing was indulged in till a late hour.

Dickens Club Meeting.

The Dickens Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Adams, and after an hour spent in reading Mrs. Adams served a luncheon. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. S. U'Ren, at Greenpoint Monday afternoon, March 11th. The members attending Monday's meeting were: Mrs. Theodore Clark, Mrs. Frank Newton, Mrs. J. P. Keating, Mrs. W. S. U'Ren, Mrs. Samuel Dillman, Mrs. John Adams and Miss Sybil Lippitt.

Pretty Wedding Ceremony.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place last Monday night at the home of Mr. O. L. Barbour, when his daughter, Miss Nettie, became the wife of Mr. Roy Kemp, of Portland. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Robins at 6 o'clock, and the young couple left on the 7 o'clock car for Portland, where they will make their future home.

Change in Teachers.

Miss Marie France has resigned her position as teacher in the Canemah school, and it is said will accept a better one at Portland. Miss Anetta Gleason, who has been teaching with Miss France, will have her room, and a successor to Miss Gleason's position will be appointed.

HAS NEW HOME MADE FOR HIM

Gorham Bridges Moves Into House Built by Kind Hearted Friends.

An act of charity done by some of Oregon City's kind-hearted men has just been made public. A new house was ready Monday for the occupancy of Gorham Bridges, who has been the victim of one misfortune after another.

The house stands at the corner of 14th and Jefferson streets, and was constructed from materials furnished by Charles Parker, who not only donated the lumber for the dwelling, but helped put up the structure as well. The land on which the house stands was deeded by J. W. Loder, and William Straight also helped in the erection of the house.

Gorham Bridges and his sister, Elsie, lived together in a little house in the north end of town. Both were old people, and both were in poor health. Gorham did odd jobs for people around town, and his sister helped to make their living by taking care of offices. Then the sister developed tuberculosis, and became too weak to work. Her brother did his best to get a living for them, but was forced to ask aid at times from the county. About three months ago Elsie died, and her brother was left alone. During the sister's illness she was taken care of by Mrs. Charles Parker, who took a great interest in the old couple, and did what she could to make them comfortable. Mrs. Parker's kindness became known, and a local organization of society girls called the Gypsies gave her a testimonial of this appreciation of her goodness. Miss Bridges left an agent to each of these girls at her death.

After the sister's death the little home where the couple had lived had to be given up, and the old man was forced to move to a house in the eastern part of the city. From this, too, he had to move later, and there was no place for him to live.

At this time the men above named stepped forward and made possible this new home where the old man may spend the rest of his days. It is cozy and comfortable, and Bridges' heart is full of gratitude to those who thus provided for him.

Changes Meeting Night.

The Lincoln Annuity Unit held its regular meeting at Woodmen hall on Sunday evening at which two applications for membership were filed. The Union has decided to change the meeting night from Saturday to Tuesday evening, and the next regular meeting will be held on March 5th, after which a necktie social will be given and a programme is being prepared by the women. Every one is cordially invited to the social.

Milwaukee Gets Piano.

Former Senator George C. Brownell went to Milwaukee last Friday night to make the presentation speech on the occasion of the presentation to the city of a new piano by the Milwaukee Glee club.

The glee club in Milwaukee takes the place of a Board of Trade or Commercial club, and was organized for the purpose of boosting Milwaukee in every way possible. It not only has its place in the social life of the town, but is active in securing immigration, and in furthering the best civic interests of the town. Largely through the efforts of the Glee club the new city hall which has only recently been completed, was secured, and the piano which they have given to the city will have a place in one of the rooms of this new building.

Mr. Brownell in his remarks complimented the club on what it had done for the town, and the city for having such an organization to aid in its development. He was unusually happy in his remarks as to the place that music has in a city's growth. Mayor Shindler, on behalf of the city replied to him and accepted the piano. After the speeches the Glee club rendered some songs, and the piano was displayed later showing its usefulness by furnishing music for a dance.

SUICIDE BY CARBOLIC ACID

Joseph Peringer Living Near Canby Makes A-way With Himself.

Coroner Holman held an inquest yesterday over the body of Joseph Peringer, a prosperous farmer who lived four miles east of Canby. Peringer was found dead in a secluded part of the woods about a mile from his home with a bottle that had contained carbolic acid grasped in his hand. The jury brought in a verdict of death by suicide.

Peringer had left his home about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, and this was the last seen of him. For some time he had been despondent, and the effect of some domestic trouble had unbalanced his mind to such an extent that he imagined there was a great deal more trouble than really existed. He is said to have had everything for which a man should live. He leaves a wife and children, and was considered to be very well off. He was about 55 years old, and was buried from Canby on Tuesday, Feb. 2.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Oregon City Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

E. Warner, living in Elyville, village, near Oregon City, Ore., says: "I had kidney trouble until it ran into diabetes. I had backache day and night and had to get up nearly every hour of the night to pass the secretions. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Huntley Bros' drug store in Oregon City. In about a week after commencing to take them I could sleep the entire night without unusual disturbance. All pain and other annoying symptoms had ceased and I stopped taking them. I had a slight recurrence of the trouble after a few weeks, but on using Doan's Kidney Pills again the relief was immediate."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

First Social of New Club. The first social held by the Oregon City Young People's Social club since its organization a few weeks ago, was given last Friday night at the Baptist church. About thirty were present and a programme suggestive of Washington's birthday was carried through. A novel game with cherries to pin on miniature trees furnished much fun, and informal refreshments of candy and fruit were furnished.

J. A. Harmon, of Lismore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say: take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at Howell & Jones, druggists.
