

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Continued use of Alum means permanent injury to health.

Avoid Alum Ailments—Say plainly ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Guest day of the Women's Club attracted many people Wednesday afternoon and Mrs. David W. Kinnard entertained at her home in Canemah. This was also the postponed Emerson Day and a clever farce was given by Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. Linwood Jones, Mrs. Hiram E. Straight, Miss Cls Barclay Pratt, Miss Gustie Humphrey, and Miss Ivah Gordon. The program for the afternoon opened with a piano number by Miss May Stevens, which was followed with two piano selections by Marie Walker. The resignation of Mrs. Phillip K. Hammond, president-elect, who leaves in July for Eugene to reside, was received, and the new president will be elected at the next meeting when officers will be installed. This meeting will be held Thursday afternoon, June 13, at the residence of Mrs. M. M. Chapman. A feature of the meeting was a recitation by Miss Gladie Humphrey, who delighted the company with "The Raggedy Man," by James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet. Mrs. Kinnard served delicious refreshments.

About twenty of the young people of St. John's Catholic church gathered at the home of Father Hillebrand on Tuesday night and adopted the constitution framed by the committee appointed for that purpose. It was decided that the club, which has been named the St. John's Young People's Club, should meet on the evenings of the first and third Mondays of each month. The club will be of a literary and social nature.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, at Clackamas Heights, when their daughter, Miss Lena May Moore, became the wife of Cosby V. Smith. The ceremony was performed at high noon, on Wednesday, in the presence of only the family and most intimate friends by the Rev. W. R. Kraxberger of the Lutheran church of Oregon City.

It was a merry party of students and former students of the Barclay High School that held a picnic Thursday in Magoon's Park, leaving Oregon City at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and returning after 10 o'clock at night. There were two boat loads of young people, a launch towing one boat. Ice cream, cake and sandwiches helped to make the day enjoyable and at a late hour the voices of students could be heard on the placid waters of the Willamette.

St. John's Parochial and High School will hold its commencement exercises in Shively's opera house Thursday evening, June 20. There will be a class of seven graduated and they will have the distinction of being the last class to come from this school, as next year the new Dr. John McLaughlin Institute will replace the parochial school. The graduates are Joseph Michael Justin, Florence M. Draper, Joseph Alphonse Muench, Mary E. C. Weber, Mae C. Christensen and Lavada M. Freeman. The class colors are pink and white and the flower is the lily. The motto is "Our Pathway Turns." Most Rev. A. Christie, archbishop of Oregon City, will deliver the address and present the diplomas.

The teachers of the Barclay and Eastham schools and others who were formerly teachers here were delighted to be entertained at the home of Miss Marjorie Caulfield, Tuesday night at her home on Seventh street. Miss Caulfield was assisted by her mother, Mrs. David Caulfield. The evening was devoted to "500", and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Emilie C. Shay and Miss Frances Mysore. Refreshments were served. The Caulfield home was prettily decorated for the occasion with roses and sweet brier.

Members of the Gypsies Thursday held an informal picnic in Canemah Park and enjoyed the afternoon to the utmost. The start was made before noon and a thoothsome luncheon was served on the grassy sward during the noon hour. Games were played in the afternoon.

The fifth and sixth grades of the Eastham school, with Miss Ida Mae Smith as chaperone, held a picnic on Saturday afternoon at Gladstone Park. The affair was a most happy one and each pupil took along a basket of generous proportions, laden with appetizing dainties.

DEDICATE ESTACADA CHURCH.

Methodists Have New Edifice in East Clackamas Town.

The new Methodist Episcopal Church, just completed at Estacada, was dedicated, the largely attended services beginning in the morning. Following was the program for the day:

9:30—Sabbath school.

10:30—Sermon by Rev. Clarence True Wilson, of Portland.

12:00—Dinner in a picnic and basket form near the new church.

3 p. m.—Platform meetings in the new church, addressed by John F. Carroll, W. J. Clemens, B. Lee Paget, F. S. Alken and others.

7 p. m.—Address to the young people by Rev. T. S. McDaniels.

8 p. m.—Closing sermon by Rev. B. F. Rowland, presiding elder, Portland district.

Mrs. C. T. McPherson had general charge of the music, as director of the choir. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Dr. Wilson. At the platform meeting the various laymen who spoke congratulated the people of Estacada on the completion of the church.

Rev. C. T. McPherson, the pastor, to whom the town is indebted largely for this new church, was sent into that field seven months ago. He secured the donation of five lots, three for the church and two for the parsonage, which is to be erected later. The church cost about $3500.

The value of the whole property, with the parsonage, will be $10,000, a remarkable showing for less than one year.

Divert Waters of Walker Creek.

M. C. Pulley has instituted suit against William Mastensen and Fox to restrain them from diverting the waters of Walker Creek, and the plaintiff has asked the court to grant an injunction. Pulley is the owner of a large tract of land in section 20, township 11 south, range 2 east, through which Walker Creek flows. For the last 12 years Pulley has operated a sawmill on his property, obtaining power from the waters of the creek, and he alleges that May 20, 1907, the defendants diverted the waters from their natural channel and turned them into a flume, prevented the water from flowing to the mill.

RURAL CARRIERS MEET.

Will Eat Ice Cream and Cake Saturday Evening Next.

Thirteen rural free delivery carriers met Thursday in the hall of Hose Company No. 3, and held an interesting meeting. Routine business was conducted, and the next meeting will be held at the same place Saturday, June 15, in the evening. Ice cream and cake will be served at this meeting, bringing into play a social feature. There are 16 carriers in Clackamas County and it is planned to bring all of them into line, as only three remain to be enrolled. It is probable that the carriers will pass resolutions relative to the improvement of county roads and to the penny franchise. The state meeting of the rural carriers will be held in Portland Friday and Saturday, June 7 and 8, and all of the Clackamas County carriers expect to attend, placing substitutes on their routes for those days.
