

LOCAL NOTES

Money transferred by Postal Telegraph. All pattern Novelty Hats at a great reduction. Miss Goldsmith. William Daniels of Beaver Creek, was in town Monday. Dr. A. L. Beattie, dentist, Weinhart Building. Miss Martha Lazelle attended the Grange picnic at Wright's Springs last Saturday. Miss Rosa and Louise Strohmeier left Tuesday for a three weeks' visit at Eugene. Percy Caulfield, who has been visiting relatives in Forest Grove, returned home Sunday. Mrs. L. Damm and daughter, Miss Emma Damm, of Mackburg, were visitors in the city Saturday. D. J. H. A. Z. Swackhamer, a negro lecturer, left Tuesday for Molalla, where he will talk on his travels. Don't fail to see the 5 and 10 cent counter at the Parkplace store. W. A. Holmes. Mrs. W. H. Wood has gone to Drain, where she will spend the summer with her husband, who is in the sawmill business. Marabelle Cheney has returned home from Corvallis, where she has been attending the State Agricultural College. 7 per cent interest on money left with us to loan. Dimick & Dimick, attorneys and abstractors, Garde Bldg., Oregon City. Mary Belle Meldrum, who has been attending the University of Idaho at Boise, has returned home to spend the summer. Mrs. E. T. B. Thomas of Molalla passed through the city Wednesday en route for Portland to attend the Annual Pioneer Reunion. Miss Sedonia Shaw has returned from Canby where she has been the guest of Miss Arline Hardin. Miss Hardin is visiting friends in this city. Mrs. John P. Keating and children leave about July 5, for Newberg, to join Mr. Keating, who is connected with the Spaulding Logging Company. Superintendent Henry O'Malley of the United States Bureau of Fisheries returned yesterday from an inspection trip at Baker Lake, Wash. Mr. Burke, who has purchased the old O. T. Williams place, is planning to make extensive improvements to the house and grounds. Dr. Hugh S. Mount, who is sojourning at Honolulu, writes to Dr. E. A. Sommer that he will return home about July 1. He is having a delightful trip. Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't cure them. Doan's Ointment cures itching, bleeding or protruding piles after years of suffering. At any drug store. Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Strickland and children are arranging to go East next month for an extended visit with relatives and to attend the Jamestown exposition. Mary L. Roberts has instituted suit in the Circuit Court against John C. Roberts, to whom she was married February 24, 1883. She charges the defendant with gross and habitual drunkenness. Most disfiguring skin eruptions, scrofula, pimples, rashes, etc., are due to impure blood. Burdock Blood Bitters is a cleansing blood tonic. Makes you clear-eyed, clear-brained, clear-skinned. Cataract Hose Company was out Monday night for practice for the Fourth of July races and will have a fast bunch. The team of Columbia Hook & Ladder Company was out on Tuesday night. If you haven't the time to exercise regularly, Doan's Regulents will prevent constipation. They induce a mild, easy, healthful action of the bowels without gripping. Ask your druggist for them. 25c. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye will attend the annual convention of the State Teachers' Association in Salem, July 1, 2 and 3 and will speak on "The School of the Pioneer." Mrs. Thomas Warner, Miss Bessie Warner and Miss Bessie Kelly leave the latter part of the week for Eugene to attend the commencement of the University of Oregon. Charles Warner will be graduated this year. Harry Baxter has purchased the general merchandise store of A. P. Stokes at Canemah. He has been in the employ of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company for the last nine years. Stops earache in two minutes; toothache or pain of burn or scald in five minutes; hoarseness, one hour; muscleache, two hours; sore throat, twelve hours.—Dr. Thomas Electric Oil, monarch over pain. Lawrence and Winjean Gardner have returned from Forest Grove, where they have been attending Pacific University, and will spend the summer at the home of their parents near Canby. Chester Steel, of Sterling City, Cal., is in the city visiting his aunt, Mrs. Bruce C. Curry, and leaves in a few days for Seattle, where he will make his home with his parents, who have just moved to Puget Sound from California. Leo Rosenstain, John Hanny, Roy Sleight, Marshall Lazelle, Joe Ganong and other students of the Oregon Agricultural College are home from Corvallis for the summer vacation. Mr. Rosenstain was a graduate of this year's class and left Monday for Coos Bay, to take a place in an electrical office. The medicine that sets the whole world thinking. The remedy on which all doctors agree. The prescription all your friends are taking is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Huntley Bros. Co. Prof. Stauffer, of Portland High school, has returned to his home after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner in Mount Pleasant. Prof. Stauffer and wife, who is a teacher in the Vancouver schools, will spend the summer at their farm near Redland. Lumber is advancing rapidly and our lumber bills and house building will soon become an important item in estimates. Cedar doors will have to be replaced with fir doors on account of scarcity of cedar but there are more than 2000 cedar doors of all stock sizes in Frank Busch's warehouse in Oregon City which are to be sold at the old price.

Mrs. Moehke was in the city Saturday from Clarkes. Mrs. J. M. Brodie of Eugene is in the city visiting relatives. William E. Grace of Baker City visited relatives here Sunday. Born, last Friday, to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mason, at Ely, twin boys. New Tams and Duck Hats at Miss Goldsmith's. Everything in the millinery line reduced. Miss Celia Goldsmith. Frederick J. Nelson has gone to the Siletz country to remain during the summer. Sam Stow left yesterday morning for California, for a two weeks' visit with his parents. License to marry was issued on Wednesday to E. Vida Dale and J. E. Stubbs of Estacada. Miss Robert Ringo of Clarkes and Miss Effie Grace were guests of relatives here Saturday. Roswell L. Holman was in McMinnville Sunday to visit his family, who is spending several weeks there. In the office of the county clerk a marriage license was also granted to Eva K. McHaffey and G. G. Parman. George H. Gregory, the well known tassel man of Molalla, was in the city on business Wednesday. John B. and P. A. Fairclough, who have been in the city for the past week, left Monday for the Ogie Mountain mines. Free dishes with coupons (coupons given with cash purchases in the Dry Goods side) at the Parkplace store. W. A. Holmes. Fourth of July "Fixings" at the boys' corner. For reliable dry goods, shoes and Furnishings try Thomson's Bargain store. Veronica Astman has filed a suit against Frank Astman, et al., to quiet the title to lot 1, in block 4, in the town of Canby. D. C. and Levi Yoder has filed a suit against Fannie Yoder, et al., for the partition of 140 acres of land in Clackamas County. Attorney Corwin S. Shank of Seattle, and daughter arrived here Saturday for an over Sunday visit with his brother, W. M. Shank. Mrs. George Anderson and sister, Miss Sophie Christensen, arrived home Tuesday night from Los Angeles, Cal., where they have been spending the winter. Miss Jessie Paddock left Wednesday for Eugene to attend the commencement of the University of Oregon. Her brother, Harry Paddock, is a graduate of the class of '07. Leo Rosenstain, a student of Corvallis Agricultural College, returned home Friday from Corvallis, and will spend his vacation in Oregon City. The marriage of John T. Mahoney to Julia E. Olson was solemnized on Thursday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Rev. P. K. Hammond, officiating. Aurora Lodge, Fraternal Union of America Tuesday night entertained a party from Portland, and the visitors came up on a special car and remained until a late hour. Mrs. F. E. Glisan and daughter of Seattle, and Mrs. C. E. Ralston and daughter of Everett, Wash., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Miller in West Oregon City. Bert Gorham and Ruby Wessen were married Sunday afternoon at the Congregational parsonage by Rev. E. Clarence Oakley. The bride and groom reside in the vicinity of Oak Grove. L. L. Porter is home from a three months' stay in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Porter and son are visiting her parents in Corvallis and will return to Oregon City in a few days. J. A. Zimmerman, of Milwaukie was in the city Wednesday and reports good business in his newly established dairy farm. Mr. Zimmerman has one of the few creameries in Clackamas County, and is making a success of it. The Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star concluded its annual sessions Friday at Portland by installing officers for the ensuing year. This ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Inez M. Ryan, of Oregon City, past grand worthy matron. No greater mistake can be made than to consider lightly the evidence of disease in your system. Don't take desperate chances on ordinary medicines. Use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Huntley Bros. Co. Orel Welsh returned home Friday from McMinnville College and left Saturday for Gearhart Park on Clatsop Beach to attend the Northwest convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, which will be held from July 15 to 24. You can't tell a woman's age after she takes Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Her complexion is fine. She is round, plump, and handsome; in fact she is young again. 35 cents Tea or Tablets. Huntley Bros. Co. Information has reached this city of the death of George W. Hanegan, aged 61 years, at Colfax, Wash. For 13 years Mr. Hanegan lived with his family in this city, and was in the confectionery business here and in Colfax, Wash. He was 61 years of age and died suddenly of heart trouble. Norwood R. Charman, who has been attending the State University at Eugene for the past year, left Saturday for Chico, Calif., where he will resume his old position as road master for the Northern Pacific Company, and will remain there during the summer, returning to Oregon in the fall to resume his studies at Eugene. Charles William Robison of this city, a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Robison, was Friday night graduated from Portland Academy, and was awarded the first prize of $30 in the declamation contest. His subject was "John Brown." The young man was the poet of the class of 1907. He will probably attend Princeton University next year. Mrs. Emilie C. Shaw, principal of the Eastham school at Oregon City, was elected principal of the Milwaukie school at the meeting of the directors Friday night. She was present and accepted. Mrs. Mildred Eisert, who has been temporarily acting as principal, declined to accept the place. Mrs. Shaw is considered a high-grade teacher and the directors are pleased with their choice. The other teachers all were re-elected.

Florence Grace was the guest of Mrs. Ed Macy in Portland Sunday. Mrs. Duff, who has been house mother for the Tau Pi Sorority at the State University, is in Oregon City the guest of Mrs. J. R. Humphrys. Mrs. Doris McAvoy of Needy was Saturday afternoon committed to the state insane asylum. Her condition is that of senility, and she is 75 years of age. Miss Catherine Lehr and R. G. Drake, both of Portland, were married Saturday evening in the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. R. C. Blackwell, officiating. Fifteen hundred Eastern brook trout were planted in the waters of the Molalla river and tributaries by the United States Bureau of Fisheries, through the efforts of C. G. Huntley, H. E. Straight and the sportsmen of Molalla. A black horse was stolen Tuesday between 9 and 10 o'clock from the barn of Thomas Kelland at Mount Pleasant. The animal was worked all day Tuesday and was placed in the barn. His absence was discovered about 10 o'clock, but there is no clue to the thief. Mrs. Charles Latourette leaves on Sunday morning for Eugene to attend the graduation exercises at the State University, where her son, Jack, will graduate from that institution. She will also be one of the patronesses at a large party Wednesday evening. Mrs. Charles Pope will also go up on the Molalla river and will be the soloist at the graduation exercises of the University Wednesday morning. Fifty Red Men came up Tuesday night from Portland on a special car to pay a fraternal visit to Wachenon Tribe, No. 13, I. O. R. M. The visit was a complete surprise to the local braves, as they had not been notified of the intention of their brothers to come. There were Red Men present from Minnehaha, as well as Willamette Tribes of Portland, Vancouver, Cathlamet, Denver, Col., and Wabash, Ind. ROAD HOUSE ON CLACKAMAS. Pleasure Resort Will be Thrown Open To the Public in Few Weeks. August Erickson, who owns a fine property on the Clackamas road several miles from this city, has nearly completed the furnishings of his new road house which will be thrown open to the public the latter part of June. Mr. Erickson was in the city this week and stated that a grand picnic would be given to mark the opening day. The situation has considerable advantages as a health resort and will be known as Clackamas Tavern. Everything will be done to make the resort pleasant and attractive and a dancing pavilion is now being constructed. Mr. Erickson will place a telephone line on the road to connect with the electric cars from Portland and next winter he expects to build a large and commodious hotel on the place. The proprietor says he is looking for the best class of custom only, and that the resort will be patterned after The Oaks. EIGHTY MILE TRAIL. Twenty-four Men Will Have Outing At Uncle Sam's Expense. Twenty-four men have gone from Oregon City to Dodge, three miles east of Estacada, to accept jobs with the government trail making party. The trail is to be 80 miles long and goes to Cold Springs, thence back to Hot Springs and then on up into the forest reserve. They receive $2.50 a day for eight hours work and are boarded for $4 per week. A number of well known men have gone, several of them taking guns and fishing tackle. They look upon the affair as a nice summer's outing. Scholarship Fund Benefit. The Women's Club entertainment Saturday night at the home of Mrs. George A. Harding for the benefit of the Scholarship Loan Fund was a very successful affair and the net proceeds were $17. Mrs. E. A. Sommer and Miss Mary S. Barlow entertained the company with talks on their travels in foreign lands, and illustrated them with objects of interest that they had gathered, including hundreds of postal cards and these were placed on the walls of the parlors. Mrs. Inez M. Ryan, of Oregon City, past grand worthy matron. Large Crowds of People Enjoy Sunday in Its Shady Groves. Canemah Park is now open for the season and hundreds of people through its pleasant shady groves every Sunday. The delightful coolness is a refreshing relief during these hot summer days and there are no places that can compare with this park for a retreat. The manager of the park has put a force of men to work cleaning up the baseball grounds this week, and the Park will be the scene of many good games during the summer. Famous orchestra from Portland furnishes music at the park Sundays and the dancing pavilion is open during the afternoon and evening. Excursion to Camas. The steamer Ione will take a large excursion party from this city to Canas next Sunday, leaving at 8 a. m. The affair is arranged by the baseball team of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company team, Billy Neffzger, formerly of this city, is pitching for the Camas team. Refreshments will be served on the steamer and the party will return home about 8 o'clock Sunday evening. The Willamette players and their positions are: McElin, catcher; Carlidge and Sydney Johnson, pitchers; E. Long, first base; E. Blanchard, second base; O. Roberts, shortstop; Mahoney, third base; Finucane, left field; Simpkins, center field; Frey, right field. A Thousand Dollar's Worth of Good. "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurme, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good." Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease. Howell & Jones, druggists.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL Read-White. The marriage of Mr. Walter A. Read to Miss Cora May White, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. White, was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 214 Third street, Rev. R. C. Blackwell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. The house was tastefully decorated with wild orange blossoms and ferns, and the ceremony took place under a beautiful arch of Oregon Grape and fern. The bride, who was attired in white silk, was attended by Miss Bertha Runyan, who was gowned in blue, and the best man was Clayton White. The bridal party and guests were served the ceremony and the happy pair received the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. Many handsome and useful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Read, who left for the 11 o'clock car for Bellwood where they have a furnished house waiting for them. Friday for a honeymoon of two weeks in Linn County. Their departure was the signal for a shower of rice and shoes. Mr. Read is connected with the firm of Simonds Saw Company in Portland, and is employed by the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company. Those present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. A. Baker and Mrs. Ava Smith, of Sodaville; Mr. and Mrs. George Finney of Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pettit of Sellwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burns, Miss Pearl James, Miss Florence Price, Mrs. Emma Thomas, Miss Irene Moore, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Ethel Davis of Mulino, Gus Read, Martin Seiler, Harry Bond of St. Johns, Miss Clara Nehren, Mr. and Mrs. M. White, Harry White, Miss Mrs. W. White, Mr. Paul White, Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Portland, Walter White, Miss Martha Dungee, Mrs. O. C. Ashbaugh. One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caulfield, when Mrs. Caulfield's nephew, James Edwin Phillips, was united to Miss Ruth D. Himes, of South Hampton, Michigan. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Oakley, pastor of the First Congregational Church. The marriage took place beneath an arch of pink roses and sweet briar, which made a very pretty effect. The reception hall was in wild orange blossoms; the parlors in pink roses and sweet briar and the dining room was a bower of beauty in ferns, palms, pink roses and festoons of sweet briar. After the wedding supper the young couple left for Portland, and from there they took the train for Seattle, where the groom is in business. The bride wore a pretty gown of white Persian lawn and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. She is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Himes, of South Hampton, Mich. The groom is a promising young business man of Seattle, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Phillips, of Wheaton, Ill. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the sending of the bride's cake by the bride's mother from Michigan, and that of the groom's cake by the groom's mother from Illinois. The following were present: Mrs. E. J. Phillips, of Albany; Paul B. Phillips, of Seattle, brother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caulfield, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Phillips and daughter, Miss Antoinette Wagon, Miss Murrie Stevens, Percy Caulfield, Wallace Caulfield and Raymond Caulfield. The commencement exercises of St. John's Parochial and High School were held in Shively's Theatre Thursday evening, and Most Rev. Alexander Christie, archbishop of Oregon City, delivered the address to the graduates. This is the last class to be graduated from St. John's School, the school of St. John the Evangelist, Longhlin Institute will be established in its place. The program for Thursday evening follows: "My Own United States".....School Overture, "Lustspiel".....Keler Bela Misses Mae Christensen, Annie Michaels, Lavada Freeman, John H. Longhlin, "The Postman's Whistle".....Rose Drill and March..... "By 21 Little Girls Essay, "Character Sketch of the Ancient Assyrians".....Miss Annie Michels Duet, "Kalliope".....A. J. Weid Mandolin, Joseph Muench; piano, Joseph Justin. Essay, "Our Earth in Relation to the Sun," Miss Florence Draper Indian Club Drill.....By Five Boys "Pride of the Ball".....H. C. Vermer First mandolin, E. Telford; second mandolin, F. Trovenger; guitar, M. Flanagan; piano, F. Clancy. Vocal quartette, "Come Where Lillies Bloom".....Class '07 Vaudeictory.....Miss Mary E. C. Weber Duet, "Gypsy Dance".....Violin, Frank Busch; piano, John Busch. Address to class and presentation of diplomas.....Most Rev. Archbishop Christie Mrs. C. D. Latourette entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club at her home on the bluff Tuesday afternoon, when a most delightful afternoon was spent. Mrs. J. P. Keating and Mrs. Lewellyn Adams won prizes, which were beautiful Haviland-plate and creamer. Mrs. Charles Pope, who recently returned from New York, rendered several solos, and Mrs. Pope's clear, sweet voice was well suited for the selections. The Latourette home was prettily decorated with carnations and maid-on-hair ferns for the occasion, and refreshments were served. Willamette Council, Knights and Ladies of Security, held a banquet Monday night in Woodmen Hall. Four candidates were initiated. The three months' membership contest has just closed, the two sides breaking even, and the captains were Mrs. P. J. Latourette and M. P. Chapman. There was a large attendance last night and the latter part of the evening was spent in dancing. William Benton Shively, Jr., who was last week admitted to the Oregon Bar, will be married next Tuesday afternoon at Forest Grove to Miss Pearl Peterson, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Peterson. Mr. Shively is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shively of this city, and the happy couple will reside at 428 Hall street in Portland.

YOUR BED ROOM Is Where you Spend Half of your Life You cannot afford to have your bed room full of poor furniture. IRON BEDS One of these fine Iron Beds will make a great improvement to your sleeping room. BUREAUS One of TOLPOLAR'S BUREAUS will make a fine addition to your bed room. They have large, clear plate mirrors, and will make you look pretty whether you are or not. I. TOLPOLAR Main Street, Oregon City, Oregon. New and Second Hand Furniture. The annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Barclay High School will be held Friday evening in Knapp's Hall, instead of on Thursday evening, as previously announced. The class of '22, recently graduated from the Barclay High School, have been invited to attend and become members of the association, and officers will be elected for the ensuing year. There will be a program rendered and refreshments will be served. The Women's Club Saturday unanimously elected Mrs. H. S. U'Ron president for the ensuing year to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. P. K. Hammond, who leaves about July 1 for Eugene. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. M. M. Charman and the newly elected officers assumed their respective offices. The club has adjourned until next October. "Where are you going my pretty maid?" "I'm going a'mulking for 'townsend sir," she said. VACATION IS HERE Before you start on your trip come in and see the many new things just received from the Kodak City. KODAK BROWNIE CAMERAS.....$1.00 TO $9.00 KODAKS.....$5.00 TO $35.00 TANK DEVELOPERS.....$2.50 TO $6.00 and a full line of supplies for the Kodacks BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN The Oregon City Jewelers Suspension Bridge Corner Oregon City, Oregon