CAT CATCHES RATTLESNAKE. Brings It Home Alive by the Nape of the Neck. Dr. McConnell of Tulsa, I. T., has the latest snake story. It is a true story and hasn't any of the dream elements about it. Dr. McConnell was sitting on the porch when he saw a cat coming up the lawn dragging a rattlesnake about three feet long. The cat had the snake by the nape of the neck and apparently was experiencing no trouble whatever in "toeing" its load. The feline carried his snakeship under the porch, and there for fifteen minutes she lovingly fondled it with her paws. Dr. McConnell called the members of Dr. Harrison's family to watch the performance. Finally a disagreement arose and the serpent was seen to strike viciously at the cat. Tally liked this phase of the situation fully as well as the amorous stunts and fought back with zest. The snake and the cat kept the duel up for probably five minutes, when the spectators thought it was time to interfere, and the snake was killed. The cat was bitten in a dozen places, but the bites had no effect other than to rattle her fur. The snake had a number of deep scratches on its body. Fourteen rattles were taken from its tail.

Operating on Wholesale Plan and $500 Reward is Offered. Horse stealing by the wholesale has aroused the county court to action in Clackamas County and Judge G. B. Dimick and Commissioners Lewellen and Killin this afternoon offered a standing reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of any person stealing horses in the county. This offer is supplemented by William Lillie, who owns a part of the old Hackett place on the Clackamas road, and who last Monday night lost four horses. There were six animals in his pasture, one of them owned by W. A. Holmes, of Parkville, and another by William Kruger, of this city. Lillie offers $250 for the return of his four horses, as one of them was a very valuable dapple gray mare, weighing 1600 pounds and worth more than $300. While the horses were stolen some time Monday night, their absence was not discovered until the afternoon if the following day and was not reported to the authorities until this afternoon. The police believe that the theft is the work of an organized gang, who operated extensively in Marion County last Spring. During the past two months horses have been stolen from Thomas Kelland, of Mount Pleasant; John Risley, of Oak Grove; James Tracy, of Logan and Albert Grimes, of Macksburg, who lost two horses. An animal was stolen recently from Greenham, and a saddle horse was taken from near Golf Links. Mrs. Griffin, who lives one-half mile from Baker's Bridge, heard the tramp of many horses passing her house on Monday night, and while Mr. Lillie and J. S. Byers, of Clackamas, hunted diligently yesterday for some trace of the animals, they were unsuccessful.

OLD CLOCK A PROPHECY. Three Times It Has Foretold the Hour of Death. Stored away in a dusty attic at the home of Dr. W. T. Poreh, the oldest and most prominent physician of Bakerville, Humphreys county, Tenn., is an old fashioned Seth Thomas clock. Dust covered and time worn, this old clock many years ago refused to further record the fleeting hours and was put away in the attic. One Sunday morning, long after the clock had been discarded and as Dr. Poreh and his daughter Carrie were preparing to attend Sunday school, ten plain and distinct strokes rang out from the old clock in the attic. But little attention was paid to the incident at the time, and it was believed that a mouse or rat had become entangled in the clock wire and caused it to strike. However, it was noticed that the ten strokes were as plain and distinct as if the clock had been running. Shortly afterward Miss Carrie complained of not feeling well, and stated that she would not attend Sunday school. She rapidly grew worse and at exactly 10 o'clock lapsed into unconsciousness and died. Time wore on, and the doctor's next oldest child, John Boy, was taken sick. For a long while he lingered between life and death, and one night sat around the bedside there rang out clear and distinct from the old clock in the attic eight strokes. Next morning at 8 o'clock John Boy passed into the great unknown. In the course of a few years Porter, the next oldest, passed away. He was stricken with typhoid fever. His life was despaired of, and one night the attending physician, who had been called in consultation with the young man's father, stated to the company present that he did not believe the patient would live until 6 o'clock the next morning and left the room. Imagines a Man is After Him with a Pitchfork and Jumps in River. Peter Burgess, well known in police circles was arrested yesterday afternoon and lodged in the county jail to await trial on a charge of insanity. Burgess imagines that he is being pursued by a Dutchman with a pitchfork and he ran across a field in the north end of the city and jumped into the Abernethy. He emerged dripping wet and was taken into custody by John Gleason, who telephoned the officers. Burgess has been living in Kansas City Addition of late but spent the early part of the summer at Wilsonville. For years he has been a heavy drinker and three years ago created a sensation by making an affidavit that he would drink no more, and accompanied by Rev. E. S. Bolinger, now pastor of the Highland Congregational Church in Portland, visited every saloon in town and told the proprietors of his change of heart. He kept the pledge for many months, but finally resumed his old habits. Burgess has a large family, and several years ago, while drunk, attempted suicide. Money Raised For Coming Harvest Picnic and a Good Time Enjoyed. Under the auspices of the Willamette Development League a box social was given Wednesday night in the schoolhouse and about 200 people were present to enjoy the affair. Music was rendered by several members of the Oregon City Band, and the opening address was made by D. K. Bill, president of the league. The programme included recitations by Miss Mason and others and Prof. T. J. Gary made a talk along the line of civic improvement. As a result of the social, 30 names were added to the roll of membership. There was a fish pond for the little folks and the major portion of the evening was spent in informal conversation. The proceeds of the affair were $34, which will go towards defraying the expenses of the harvest picnic that will take place on Labor Day, September 2.

Surprise to Miss Pratt. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt Wednesday night was a merry gathering when their daughter, Miss Cicely Pratt, was tendered a surprise party by the Aloha Club, of which she is a member. The evening was devoted to bridge and music. In the game of bridge Miss Marion Lewthwaite won the first prize and Mrs. N. R. Long won the second prize. During the evening Miss Martha Frances Draper favored the guests with several pleasing selections, and Mrs. E. E. Brodie sang. Refreshments were served. Miss Pratt was presented with a beautiful engraved gold bracelet by the club. Hahursts Return. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hayhurst, of Portland, returned from their long tour of the United States Saturday, and are spending the week with Mr. Hayhurst's parents, at Parkville. In Nebraska they met Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robinson, of this city, and both parties visited the points of interest in St. Louis together. From St. Louis the Robinsons went directly to the Jamestown Fair, while the Hayhursts journeyed there by the way of the South. In Pennsylvania Mrs. Hayhurst was joined by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Evans, formerly of this city, but now of Baker City, who are on their way to Europe. Mr. Schnoerr, Going to Germany. President Gus Schorrer, of the Deutscher Verein, who leaves this week for Germany, where his father is very ill and anxious to see his son once more before he dies, was tendered a farewell Wednesday evening at Schoererville, near Willamette. Many of the members of the German Society went over from this city to surprise their president and to bid him God-speed on his journey. The evening was informally and pleasantly spent and toothsome refreshments were served. Mr. Schnoerr was asked to purchase a German flag for the society while in the Fatherland, as the Deutscher Verein loves both the American and German emblems. Needy. A few young people of Needy visited R. W. Zimmerman, of Marks Prairie Sunday. Mrs. Jake Stauffer, of Hubbard, visited relatives here a few days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Askins attended New Era campmeeting Sunday. Ernest Reams passed through here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ritter are the proud parents of a baby boy.

Sues Orange Barbur For Divorce. Lydia Barbur has filed suit against Orange L. Barbur for a decree of divorce, alleging cruel treatment. They were married in this city January 10, 1905, and the plaintiff alleges that her husband failed to provide her with necessary clothing and says he carried away furniture and other things from their home. She is in fear of bodily harm from him. Barbur earns $72.50 per month. He owns 42.13 acres of land worth $5000 and has a life interest in 26 acres. Mrs. Barbur petitions the court to compel her husband to pay $75 for her expenses in the prosecution.

L. SERVIN, Administrator of the estate of Ruth E. Hobbs, deceased. GORDON E. HAYES, Attorney for Administrator. Dated July 18th, 1907.

Lawn Social at "Lilacs." The lawn social given Wednesday night at the "Lilacs," the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner, by the Mount Pleasant Civic Improvement Club was a very successful affair, both socially and financially. The grounds were beautifully lighted with Chinese lanterns, and the house was artistically decorated with flags and bunting. The "Lilacs" is one of the prettiest sites in Mount Pleasant for an affair of this kind. During the evening C. A. Miller sang several of his popular songs, and was forced to respond to a hearty encore. Harold Swofford, who is well known in this city as an excellent whistler, delighted his hearers with several selections. The proceeds of the entertainment, which will go to the Mount Pleasant Civic Improvement Club, amounted to $11. There was no admission charged, but ice cream and cake were sold by the women of the club.

Use Water Sparingly. Economy in the use of water is recommended by the Water Commission, for at noon yesterday the headworks at the basin were torn out to be replaced with concrete. This work will take about 10 days, and in the meantime the water will be pumped by an electric motor. Superintendent Howell advises that consumers keep constantly a supply of water on hand for use in the event of an emergency. Everhart Sells to Cutting. Harvey N. Everhart has sold 60 acres of land east of Molalla Corners to Oren Cutting, whose land adjoins the place he bought. The purchase price was about $2300, which is considered good, as only a small portion of the property is cleared.
