SUNSHINE IS THEIR MOTTO

WILL LAST FOR 14 YEARS

Yet They Predict a Dreadful War With Japan.

Members May Have Anything They Desire—Society Says It Is In Advance Of Spiritualism.

Sunshine in word and deed, sunshine in the present and sunshine in the future is the motto of a freak society that has invaded Oregon City, and already has a membership of 20, according to the men who are promoting the organization. One, Dr. Dickey, of Portland, is said to be head and front of the society and a Portland grocer is hustling candidates, who as fast as they signify their willingness to join, are numbered. Their work has been done quietly and effectively, but some publicity has been given to the "Sunshine" brokers through their error in approaching one of the best known women in the city, who tried to find out what they were and what they were trying to accomplish.

"Sunshine Society," said the lanky speaker, "is calculated and intended to give you anything you want. If you want wealth, it is yours, and if it is health you desire, it is yours for the mere asking. Certain formalities, however, must be gone through. For instance, if you are number seven and you desire to possess seven, all you have to do is to make known your wishes at a gathering. The members assemble in a circle and join hands and they repeat together: Number seven wants wealth. Then we all recite the petition to the Spirit, which takes possession of the idea and you at once are blessed with the attainment of your desire."

"Our spirits also know what is coming in the future. Before long we are to have a great war with Japan. It will be by far the greatest war the civilized world has ever known, and the Pacific coast will be devastated, and hardly a tree will be left standing. Millions of Chinese will enlist under the banner of the Mikado and England will come to our aid. In Illinois there will be monster battles and a lake of blood will be formed, and people will ride in boats on this lake. The war will last 14 years and for 13 years the flag of the United States will go down and down and millions will be slain. Finally, however, this country will emerge triumphant from the terrible struggle but not until all of the countries of the world except three are swept out of existence. America and England are two of these, but the third has not been made clear."

The demonstrator did not reconcile his belief of sunshine to war. He said that the society was not formed for practices in Spiritualism but was far in advance of the Spiritualists of today. He admitted that the members of the circle might hold private seances after the meetings. The inner working of the Sunshine society are apparently innocent enough, and their forecasts of the future will be watched with considerable interest.

War of Extermination

Sunday-closing agitation would no longer be an issue or a matter to argue about."

Mr. Pagot added that he stood ready to assist any organized movement looking to the closing of the Clackamas County saloons on Sunday, and would enlist the efforts of his party leaders in the state.

E. S. J. McAllister, who until recently was counsel for the State Anti-Saloon League, and is still an earnest worker for reform, wants to get to the bottom of the matter, and if he is able to secure the necessary assistance will start the war of extermination on the saloon in Oregon.

"We will make Clackamas County the example, if you like," he said last night. "I am willing and ready to draw up a brief, if we can get a regulator to sign it, and we will bring injunction proceedings to close up all the saloons, not only on Sundays, but on every other day in the week. We will strike the blow in Clackamas County, if necessary. That will settle Sunday closing for good and all. I would like to see the fight carried up to the Supreme Court of the United States, and let the highest tribunal in the land interpret the Constitution with regard to the sale of intoxicating liquor."

"The matter will get to the Supreme Court sooner or later along the very lines Judge Artman has explained to us here, and Oregon might as well have the credit for taking the initiative as any other state. And I venture the prophecy that when the Supreme Court of the United States does consider the question, it will knock out every liquor license in America. There is no right granted by the Constitution allowing a man to sell intoxicating liquor. It is merely a privilege, and I am sure it will be held unconstitutional, on the ground of being destructive to the public morals, inimical to society, corruptive of our citizenship and dangerous to public weal."

"Something should be done to make the officials of Clackamas County do their duty, just as they do in this county. I will put my shoulder to the wheel."

"It is a Shame," says Stone. "It is a shame," said H. W. Stone, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., "that such conditions should exist over in our neighboring county. The law is a state law and it applies there as strongly as it does here. I hardly think, however, that our citizens here should be called upon to chastise public officials over there in this matter. They know their duty and ought to be honest and courageous enough to enforce them without being hit over the head with a club."

Finlay McKercher, another devoted prohibitionist, says he is willing to carry the war into Clackamas County if somebody else will start the movement. He thinks the citizens of Clackamas County should arise in their might and protest to District Attorney Hedges, and if they can't compel that official to do his duty, Mr. McKercher would like to see every citizen of Multnomah County go over to Oregon City and join in the protest.

"Let them start it over there," said McKercher, "and we will lend our moral support to the movement. It is an outrage on public decency that a little strip of country through Clackamas County should be allowed to violate the Sunday closing law when all other portions of it are forced to obey."

The question of compelling District Attorney Hedges to go on record to force him to show his hand as either with or against the law-and-order people of Clackamas County is likely to be brought to the attention of the Municipal Association, early this week the protest to be made by thousands of people who desire to go to Clackamas Sunday for an outing or a picnic should not be forced to endure the insults and indignities of the drunken rabble that goes out there for no other reason than to get beastly intoxicated and raise hell on the streets on the way back to town.

Portland Will Protest.

"The emptying of a pack of drunken men and women into the streets of Portland every Sunday night is the complaint which the reform movements of Multnomah County and Portland will no doubt lodge with Mr. Hedges before the present week is over, and an attempt will be made to have the issue settled by next Sunday. Should this fall, the injunction weapon will be resorted to."

That is the programme which was informally discussed by several members of the Prohibition party and Municipal Association at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

CLACKAMAS TAVERN OPEN.

Skating Rink Will Be Built, and Nothing But Soft Drinks Will Be Sold.

Clackamas Tavern, the popular road house on the Clackamas River, has been thrown open to the public, and is commencing to enjoy a popularity that is amazing. Only a few miles from Oregon City, the Tavern is located in a beautiful spot, and is a delightful place for people to spend their Sundays and leisure hours. Mr. Erickson has abandoned his original idea to erect a dancing pavilion, and will build a commodious skating rink, where no liquors will be sold, but soft drinks may be obtained. The rink will be operated by a man of experience. The management invites the public to come early and often to the Tavern, where there may be assured of a warm welcome and a pleasurable outing.

TAKE IT IN TIME.

Just as Scores of Oregon City People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills relieve back-ache.

Cure every kidney ill. Oregon City citizens endorse them.

E. W. Midlam, machinist, living at 410 Main street, Oregon City, Ore., says: "Kidney and bladder trouble became very serious with me about six months ago, and the remedies I used did me no good as the trouble only became aggravated I consulted a physician and although I faithfully followed the treatment, instead of getting any results I got worse. The kidney secretions were accompanied by pain and a burning sensation during passage, and their too frequent action was annoying and embarrassing. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Huntley Bros' drug store and it was astonishing the effective way in which they acted on the kidneys. In a short time all symptoms of the trouble had disappeared, and the secretions were relieved to a natural condition and the pain did not bother me. I can do nothing else than give all the credit for this to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mrs. Margaret Sawtell.

Mrs. Margaret Sawtell died Monday, July 22, at her home three miles southeast of Molalla. Her maiden name was Todd, and she was born in Scotland in 1847. Her parents emigrated to America when she was a year old, first settling in Tennessee, but coming to Oregon in 1853. She was married to William Oliver Sawtell in 1865, and to them were born five children, two of whom are living—Mrs. Alice Tubbs and Ralph Sawtell. The funeral was held Tuesday, the interment being in Adams cemetery by Molalla grange No. 310, of which the deceased was a charter member.

Bad Burn Quickly Healed.

"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Myrtton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter had a bad burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City and Molalla.

New Era Camp Ends Sunday.

Next Sunday, the closing day of the New Era campmeeting, the program will be in charge of the First Spiritualist society of Portland. Special musical and literary programs will be given both at forenoon and afternoon services. The evening session will be a farewell meeting.

HIGHLAND CHURCH DEDICATED.

Enthusiastic Crowd Raised $180 to Clear off Obligations.

Highland, Or., July 24—We read in your issue of July 11 that July 14 would no doubt be a day long to be remembered by the people of Highland. We feel that the statement was well made. When we awoke on the morning of July 14 we found a heavy rain had visited the community, but by 9:30 A. M. the clouds began to clear away and the somewhat gloomy appearance of the morning was changed into one of the most pleasant days of the season. About 10 A. M. the crowd began to gather at the new church to hear the dedicatory address by Presiding Elder B. F. Rowland. By the time the services began at 11:15 many people from Clarks, Viola, Dover and the surrounding vicinity had filled the new building to its capacity.

The pastor, invited Evangelist Mrs. Minnie Branson to play the first hymn under the new Estey organ. Captain C. O. Branson made the opening prayer. Dr. B. F. Rowland took for his text, "And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee." Acts 24:25. At the close of the sermon Dr. Rowland announced that $150 were needed to complete all obligations of the building committee and church for the year. In a short time the enthusiastic crowd responded with $180.

After the services the ladies brought well-filled baskets and spread the contents to the delight of all present.

George Brown, of Maple Lane, who had charge of carpenter work is now at work in the new M. E. Church at Clarks.

Farm For Sale

Our business is to show investors that Clackamas county farms are better investments than U. S. gold bonds.

There are many real estate signs in town but the office over the Bank of Oregon City continues to do the real estate business of the county.

Get Down to Business

If your farm drags on the market let's talk the matter over. Maybe you need the services of a live agency. The "con" talk of the amateur agent won't sell your land. For results see
