SOCIAL NOTES

19—COURIER

Stout-Walden.

In the presence of 150 relatives and friends Miss Antoinette Walden Wednesday night was married to Mr. Lansing Stout by Rev. A. Hillebrand, pastor of St. John's Catholic Church.

The wedding was the occasion of the most brilliant society event of the winter and was a happy affair. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Elmer Ellsworth Charman, and the house was beautifully decorated with ferns, smilax and sweet peas. The spacious lawn twinkled with Japanese lanterns, and refreshments were served to the guests on the grounds after the ceremony.

To the strains of the wedding march from Mendelssohn, with Miss Martha Frances Draper at the piano, the bridal procession descended the stairway at 9 o'clock. Little Harriet Griffith was a charming ring bearer and was followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Susie Stott, of Portland, and Miss June Charman, of this city.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Edward Everett Brodie, preceded the bride, who was a beautiful picture in her gown of white silk. The altar was set between six candles and here they were met by the groom and his brother, Mr. Edward Stout, who was best man.

The clergyman pronounced the solemn service of the Catholic Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Stout were surrounded and congratulated.

In the dining room the bride's table was set and a delicious menu was discussed. The cake was duly cut and the ring fell to Miss Myrtle Buchanan.

The bride's bouquet of white carnations was caught by Miss Veda Williams. The matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore pink and carried shower bouquets of pink carnations.

At midnight Mr. and Mrs. Stout left on their honeymoon trip to California, where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride has lived all her life in Oregon City and has hundreds of warm friends to wish her success in her new life. Mr. Stout is well known in social and business circles in Portland, where he is cashier of the Hibernia Savings Bank.

After their return from California they will be at home on Jackson street, where their house waits their arrival.

Four departments of the Oregon City Women's Club were formed Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. S. O'Brien. The gathering was not strictly a meeting of the club, neither was it altogether of a social nature, but after the business was completed, games were indulged in for pastime and music was rendered. Thirty members of the club were present and two guests of Mrs. O'Brien from Portland.

The new departments are as follows: Parliamentary, Mrs. Rosina Fouts; leader; Shakespearean, Mrs. Linwood Jones; leader; current topics, Mrs. them away. Catlin claims that the Itham E. Straight, leader; natural history, Mrs. George A. Harding and Mrs. W. A. White, leaders. The new departments have been organized largely for educational work, and are entirely independent of the club. They will hold meetings probably twice a month during the coming winter.

A quiet wedding took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Ada Egge, of Willamette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Egge, and Mr. Silas B. Shadle, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John M. Linden, pastor of the Baptist church, under a canopy of white flowers and satin streamers. The bride was prettily attired in cream colored serge and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, and the bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Egge, sister of the bride, wore cream colored mulle. Harry Greaves was best man. After the marriage ceremony, a wedding dinner was served. The young couple have gone to Salem on their honeymoon, and before returning to this city they will visit with the groom's mother, Mrs. J. Martin, at Lebanon. Mr. and Mrs. Shadle were the recipient of many beautiful gifts. The young people are well known in this city, where they have many friends.

The St. John's Club of the St. John's Catholic Church gave one of their delightful socials at Knapp's Hall Friday night. The hall was artistically decorated with marguerites and ferns, with pink shades on the electrolights. The entertainment was a novel affair, and was termed "The Spiral Shakedown," and there were amusements during the whole evening for both the young and old. After charades and instrumental music and games were indulged in, dancing followed until a late hour. Refreshments were served by the club. St. John's Club was recently organized.

Now that small fruits are about done we begin to see if the trees that promised so well in the Spring are ripening their wealth for us.

Bartlett pears are loaded with fine looking fruit, the branches having to be propped up to prevent breaking, but the vineyards are the cynosure of

Apricots, not very largely planted, are extra good, so are early plums, while the splendid looking Bradshaw plum is very large and nice.

Milwaukee Grange's lesson for Friday night, August 2, will be "The Assessor, His Duties, Limits and Privileges." The fair will be held about October 1.
