

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Milwaukee.

The Band and Grange social was very well attended and most enjoyable; netting the societies about $7 each.

Saturday, August 17, is the regular meeting of Grange and Mrs. Sarah A. Evans will address the meeting at 2 P. M. There will be a lesson on "Taxes," and some current events will be discussed. Further arrangements will be made for the fair to be held October 3, 4 and 5.

The bachelor trio, Duffy, Getchell and Walsh, have returned from Will-holt Springs and seem to be heart free once yet.

J. H. Reid is inspecting orchards in the valley and finds much to encourage as well as many neglected trees. The turmoil of strife caused by the "going out" of Milwaukee Club is subsiding and only the "favorers" vs. the objectors remain to settle the mixed question in words. We think quiet will be restored in time and existence will be quite possible without the "club" and its influence.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Castro, of Oak Grove, August 9, a daughter, Capt. Shaw, and family of Oregon City, have gone into comfortable living quarters on their property at Milwaukee Heights. Mrs. Shaw holds the principality of the Milwaukee school.

Sunday morning, August 11, the house of Mr. Arnold was totally destroyed by fire, practically nothing being saved. The place is situated on the County road about a quarter of a mile east of Courtney station on the O. W. & P. carline. The fire occurred about 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

Henry Phillips and family, of Minthorn, are visiting Mr. Phillips' aunt, Mrs. Gallagher in Astoria. Olivia Johnson has accompanied them and expects to remain until the opening of school in September.

Nellie Roberts, daughter of Mrs. M. L. Roberts, of Minthorn, is spending the summer at Clearhart Park, with Dr. and Mrs. Pagnie in their summer cottage.

Joseph Dobbs has sold his ten-acre fruit farm to Mr. Ham, of Portland, for $2000. The place is located one-half mile east of Milwaukee.

L. B. Andrews and family are camping at Seaside. They expect to be gone about two weeks. H. A. Andrews, his wife and children, of Portland are in camp at the same place.

Miss French has returned to her home near Corvallis, having spent a week with friends at Milwaukee.

Currinsville.

The farmers here are busy cutting and stacking grain. The crops are good this year.

Bonnie Bullard is having a new barn built.

Fruit of all kinds is very plentiful here this year, and the yellowjackets are very plentiful also.

Miss Winnie Palmateer, of Silver-ton, has been visiting relatives here and at Garfield the last few weeks.

Mrs. Nancy (Shankland) returned home from Portland last week, where she had been staying a few days with her son, Andrew, and wife, who have twin babies, born July 25.

Miss Jennie Linn, of Linn's Mills, was visiting Susie Linn Saturday and Sunday.

The Moore Lumber Co. has bought a new logging engine.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jiles Looney, of Currinsville, Mr. and Mrs. Cold Looney, Bent Sarver and Walter Lemon, of Garfield and Geo. Currin, of Heppner, started for Virginia Friday. They will attend the Jamestown fair and will visit relatives awhile before returning home.

Mrs. Wehrheim, of Currinsville, was also in the crowd, but will go only as far as Indiana, where she will visit relatives a few weeks.

Colton.

The rain, which we had last week, put the harvesting and threshing back quite a lot.

Will Jones, of Colton, has been taking some of his stock to his place, which he has bought at Brooks.

R. H. Shodgrass has been looking over the Mill Creek from James to Colton to see how much work it would take to clean it out, as he intends to float shingles bolts down next winter.

George Schiewe hauled a load of lumber from the Holts mill last Friday.

W. Jones has finished cutting grain for U. S. Dix last Saturday.

Walls Bros. took another herd of cattle to the mountains last Sunday.

J. J. Kern, secretary of the Portland Mutual Fire Insurance Company, was in Colton last Saturday and insured several places.

Clarks.

A fine shower of rain was received last week, which refreshed all garden vegetables and such like but did a light damage to grain.

W. H. Wettlaufer is building a new granary.

Sam Elmer started to thresh last Tuesday. He is doing the same old thing in the same old way as he was running it last year.

Mary Sullivan was quite sick with the whooping cough but is now improving.

Mr. McAfee, the timber buyer, was out last week and said he had $30,000 worth of timber land at Clarks now.

The Clarks church will be dedicated August 25. A good time is expected and all are invited.

Christ Kinzy went to Oregon City last Monday on business.

Mrs. F. Pray is out visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schiewe.

Oswego.

Mrs. Ball, of Portland, is visiting friends and relatives in Oswego this week.

R. C. Worthington stepped on a nail, and as a result has a very sore foot.

Mr. Walter Chuck and Clarence Haines are both suffering with the mumps.

Wm. Milay was in Oswego Saturday looking for hoppers, and reports that the hops are looking fine.

Russellville.

The people of this country were blessed with a copious rain, which soaked the shocked grain and likely some of it will sprout before it dries.

It is reported that a Mr. Long died on the trail leading from Mr. Frazer's bee ranch to the Table Rock. From the reports he was a man of age, and seems whilst the party were packing up to return home Mr. Long walked on, and the party found him lying dead in the trail. There is one man buried in the mountains near by, where this one died and it was his request to be buried there. A common rough stone marks the grave of Uncle Joe Davis.

Mrs. Wingfield has returned home from Salem, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bagby. She reports having a fine time, as she visited many places of interest that she had never seen before. She expects to return again.

This country will soon be depopulated of its residents, as the hops will soon be ready to pick. Harvesting is in full blast in this part of the country now and will soon be a thing of the past.

Miss Katy Ritter is visiting Mr. Wingfield's folks now.

Graham's Ferry.

A very beautiful wedding occurred in the First Presbyterian Church of Portland Saturday, August 10, 1907, at 8:30 P. M., when Miss Kate Buchanan Graham and Dr. Arthur W. Chance, both well known young people of Portland, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Poulkies, Dr. M. H. Cardwell acting as matron of honor and being the only attendant.

The bride wore an elegant lace gown over white silk, a veil with cluster of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. The matron of honor wore silk chiffon over lavender silk and carried a profusion of lavender sweet peas and ferns. William Wallace Graham, a brother of the bride, played the wedding march on the violin, accompanied by Prof. Goodrich on the organ.

There were only about 50 of the most intimate relatives and friends of the bride and groom present. The altar was very tastefully decorated with white and pink sweet peas and sword and maidenhair ferns. Dr. and Mrs. Chance received their friends at the Hotel Portland, and left immediately for a short tour of the Sound cities and Vancouver, B. C., returning about September 15, when they will be at home to their many friends on Mt. Tabor Heights.

Marks Prairie.

The rain did very little damage here but helped our spud crop a big lot.

Wheat is not yielding as well as was expected. Some oats are being cut and point to a big yield.

Several of our people have gone to the mountains after berries and more will go this week.

Ogley Bros. have just completed the hop camp buildings for their pickers. They expect over one hundred boxes of hops per acre.

Considerable honeydew and hoplice are showing in some of the yards.

We learn some hoppers in this vicinity will not be picked as the price will not pay to pick them, and the renters would lose money if they picked them.

Hy Jackson has his new hophouse well along. He will dry several hop crops for his neighbors.

Buena Vista.

Mrs. W. Iler and her daughter, Miss Inessa, of 464 Williams avenue, Portland, were here calling on their several friends on Monday last. They also visited their property at the hop yard. They are thinking seriously of building a fine residence there and of thoroughly overhauling and improving the whole of this property.
