TEACHERS STILL RESIGNING.

Two More Added to the Corps in Oregon City Schools.

Two more teachers were added Wednesday night to the corps in the city schools. Miss Retta Scoggin was chosen teacher of the fifth grade in the Barclay building, to succeed Miss Maude Adair Rutherford, of Vancouver, who resigned, and Miss Helen G. Abbot, of Portland, was elected instructor of the ninth grade in the Barclay High School. This position was created last June, and last Monday Miss Snedcor, of Medford, was elected to the place, but she had already been engaged.

Miss Scoggin is a resident of Portland, but formerly lived with her family in Oregon City. She went East at the age of 13 years and was educated mainly in Illinois. She taught several months in Texas, and last year was teacher of the school at Liberal. She holds a Clackamas County first grade certificate.

Miss Abbott is a graduate of Central High School, Cleveland, O., and of Oberlin College, Ohio. She has taught in the high school at Anacortes, Wash., and last year had English and history in St. John, Wash., also having charge of that school a part of the year. She has had considerable training in literary society work and has coached a basketball team.

The board of directors have adopted new rules and regulations for the government of the city schools. Several important changes have been made.

Corporal punishment will hereafter be inflicted only by principals, in the presence of one or more witnesses, either before or after school hours and on the day following the offense. The teachers and grade meetings shall be held at frequent intervals. The hours of the regular sessions shall be from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 1 P. M. to 4 P. M., except in the primary grades. The first grade will close in the afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, the second grade at 2:30 o'clock, and the third grade at 3 o'clock. In the mornings the primary grades shall be in session from 9 to 12 o'clock. The daily work of pupils shall count one-third in determining promotion, and the standing made in the examinations shall count two-thirds in the final average of the pupils. This rule has been reversed from the rule in force last year.

Perhaps Another Vacancy.

Another vacancy is likely to occur in the ranks of the Oregon City School teachers, for Mrs. Viola M. Godfrey, who was elected principal of the Eastham building at a salary of $75 per month, has been offered the principalship of the Willamette school at a salary of $90. The directors of the Willamette school have agreed to elect Mrs. Godfrey at this salary and will meet this week to formally confirm the offer. Miss Frances Myers, teacher of the first primary in the Eastham building, who was elected to the second grade in the Harrison school at Portland, has not yet notified the local board of directors whether or not she expects to accept the Portland position.

CITY SCHOOLS WILL OPEN.

Two New Teachers Elected By the Board of Directors.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the city schools Monday it was decided to open the schools for the Fall term Monday, September 3, which is just one week from next Monday. The work of kalsomining some of the rooms in both the Barclay and Eastham buildings is complete and other renovations and improvements are finished.

The corps of teachers was augmented by the election of Miss Stella Pennick, of Portland, to succeed Miss Gustena Randall, as teacher of the Sixth and Seventh grades of the Eastham building. Miss Pennick has had one year's teaching experience in Idaho and Eastern Oregon and holds a second-grade certificate in Multnomah County. She has had two years' normal training at the Oregon State Normal of Weston, and attended the University of Washington for one year, and Whitman College, at Walla Walla for two and one-half years.

Miss Jennie Mae Snedcor, of Medford, was elected teacher of the Ninth grade in the Barclay High School at a salary of $60 per month. She was educated at the Michigan Normal College at Ypsilanti, graduating in 1897. She has a life certificate from Michigan and first-grade teacher's certificate from both Oregon and Washington. Miss Snedcor has had special preparation for work in English, mathematics and history and some of the sciences. Her teaching experience covers 100 months, and for six years she taught in Fisk and Straight Universities.

MONEY SAVING PAINT

Money saving in painting doesn't mean the use of cheap-by-the-gallon paint. It means the use of first-quality paint—paint that will cover most surface to the gallon, that will spread easy and save the painter's time, that will wear well and put off for the longest time the need for re-painting.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

is a money saving paint. It covers most surface to the gallon because it is ground exceptionally fine and is thoroughly mixed. For the same reason, it spreads easiest and saves the painter's time.

It wears longest because it is made from the best materials, so thoroughly combined that they become inseparable, and hold together on the building for the longest time. When you buy The Sherwin-Williams Paint you buy economy. We sell it. Color cards free.

PAINTS and Painters' supplies are no longer a side line with us. We have a big, complete paint store, filled with quality goods—paints, Oils, glass, painters' supplies—we have a practical paint man with years of experience to answer your questions and give helpful advice—and we meet or beat Portland prices on every sale.

HUNTLEY BROS. & CO. THE QUALITY DRUGGISTS

"DOPE" KILLED THIS MAN.

In Pockets of Rice Were Found a Burglar's Outfit and 30 Cents.

The body of a man who Tuesday night told Chief of Police Burns that his name was Rice, was found Wednesday morning in a room at Anderson's lodging house. He was taken to the place Tuesday night by Officer Cooke, who found Rice in a restaurant in a deplorable condition, as he was dizzy and frothing at the mouth, indicating to the officer that he was a "dope" friend of the worst type. Wednesday at 7 o'clock Rice was called and he failed to respond, and his room was entered. He had been dead only a short while when found, and was taken to the morgue, where Coroner Holman took charge of the remains. In the pockets of the man were found a complete "hypos" outfit, a bunch of skeleton keys, a small burglar's jimmy, a blank book with the name of Frank Kelly on the cover, and 30 cents in change. Rice was apparently about 30 years of age. He told the officers that his people run a lodging house on Third and Burnside streets in Portland.
