

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Clarkes.

The new church is nearly completed and has very interesting sermons on every Sunday evening.

J. T. Grace attended the school board meeting in Oregon City last Saturday.

Miss Treasie Conings, who is teaching at Barton, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Grace M. Smith, who is teaching the Timber Grove school, attended the teachers' institute last week; also the school board meeting. She was very unfortunate in getting her ankle sprained at the Riverbank skating rink last Saturday evening.

Miss Madge Booth, of Salem, visited with Miss Grace Smith during the teachers' institute.

Marks Prairie.

Looks like rain and our farmers are getting ready to plow.

Ogleby Brothers and Henry Kraus finished digging their spuds Saturday.

Our road boss has been working the roads the past week.

Jack Keor has been sowing some grain the past week.

A great many of our hop raisers have got "cold feet" and are selling their hops for less money than it cost to raise them.

Ben Wilfer purchased a horse of Hy Jackson last week.

William Sticker, a former resident of near Aurora, was instantly killed near Reedville last week, by an accident.

The price of potatoes is rising and our spud raisers are all smiles. The wedding dance given at the residence of Mr. Zeland last Saturday evening, in honor of the marriage of their daughter Anna and Mr. John Nordhausen, was a big success. Over sixty invited guests were present. A delicious luncheon was served at mid-night. Dancing was kept up until 4:30 a. m. when the guests departed for their homes, wishing the young couple a long and happy life. The music was furnished by Ogleby Bros. orchestra.

Mullins Items.

The little rain we have had was quite welcome.

Potato digging is about over in this vicinity.

Edwin Poust, who was operated on for appendicitis, is getting along nicely and will be home in a week.

Mrs. Daniels and daughter, Katie, spent a few days in Oregon City last week.

The sewing bee at H. Seltzer's was an enjoyable affair.

F. Brunner has his new fence about completed with the help of Fred Churchill.

Russellville.

Once more the scribe in this country takes pencil in hand to inform the readers of the Courier what is going on in these parts.

Carlton & Rosenkrans and D. R. Dimick, of Canby, are in these parts to have their regular fall hunt. How long they will stay is uncertain.

Mr. Wingfield had a man to herd or guard his sheep. He was armed with a gun and one day Mr. Wingfield found him on the ground as though asleep. He was immediately discharged though he had hitherto been faithful.

O. S. Boyls has been at home about ten days and is now at Grants Pass, having been called there. It is not known when he will return.

Mr. Wingfield and wife spent the fourth Sunday with L. R. Trullinger's family.

Mrs. O. S. Boyls is on the sick list from having her teeth extracted.

Charles Daugherty bought a cow and calf and some other cattle from Mr. Wingfield.

Ralph Hardy, a young man raised in this country, started out not knowing where he was and was found at Mr. Wingfield's.

E. P. Carter was out to his farm in this country after a load of apples. Scott Carter expects to cut a new set of teeth in the near future.

Frank Sherman is building a new house. When finished it will be second to none in this country.

Liberal.

The long dry spell broke at last, and the gentle rain is coming down. This is what the farmers want. Grass is fine and there should be no complaint from the farmer, as his produce is sought for and at good prices.

From the present indications it looks as though there would soon be no beef cattle left in the country. Hogs are going on the market fast.

Our school started Monday morning with V. H. Dutton as teacher.

J. B. Johnson is sowing his farm to cheat this fall for hay.

J. O. Norris leaves for a southern trip soon and will be gone for a couple of months. Perhaps he will bring back a helpmeet.

R. A. Wright has his fine house about completed, and it is a credit to his farm.

Mrs. J. E. Cones was out from Portland for a few days and rented her farm to Fred H. Burns.

We need a wood saw badly in our section to saw up the big firs into wood.

The farmers are a terror on the farmer and a man would get rich that would find something to exterminate them without shooting them.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City and Molalla.

Molalla.

Robbins Bros. are putting in a gas plant to light up their store. Standard oil has become too much of an expensive nuisance; the "standard" has fallen below the Standard seemingly in all the oil products, and as to prices the Standard has been putting up "stakes" so the people will be better off with the Standard.

Twenty-eight days in October without rain and of course the rain to-day is welcome. Ready for it? Well, that is an open question. However, the grass will look green, wheat will come up that has been sown and more plowing will be done and all things will appear better than so much foggy weather.

F. C. Perry, while unloading baled straw Monday made a slip with his hook and fell to the ground backwards, striking his head and shoulder. Mr. Perry sustained it, is feared, internal injury. Dr. Powell is giving the sufferer all the aid possible to abate the pain.

Molalla school district No. 35 has a call meeting for November to vote a tax to purchase additional land for school grounds; something that is much needed in the increasing school center.

While walling a well with brick last week a 7 year boy got struck by a falling brick on the side of the head and mouth. It was fortunate for him that the brick did not hit a straight blow on the top of the head, as there would have been no Lebo-Shaver marriage in this life.

W. H. Miller had another sinking spell Sunday; Dr. Powell was called to give medical assistance.

James Melica moved to his new home, at Lebo, last week. James is a remarkable man; he not only tool a large load of potatoes, but also his intended wife and mother-in-law accompanied him on his life's journey. Rumor has it that there will be a wedding en route as there is a new house going up at the other end of the road. May success be with you this time, James.

Teasel trimming has begun in the G. H. Gregory teasel house for the winter. So now it will be a clip-a-clip all the day long.

Molalla Grange has purchased one-half acre of land adjoining their property on the north; consideration $75.

Let all members be present at the November regular meeting of the P. of H. and get into the harness for the winter's educational benefits.

Grandma De Shazer has been on the sick list the last few days.

Rev. D. A. Walters, of Portland, took dinner with J. W. Exon and family Sunday.

The people of Dover and Firwood are awakening up to the necessity of better roads. The road between Sandy and Firwood is mostly planked and the balance will soon be in good condition.

dition. Last week the citizens of Dover and Firwood graded Deep Creek hill by donation work, as follows:

From Dover—C. A. Keith $10, H. Fitzgerald $14, George Santell $12, J. W. Exon $16, A. J. Morrison & Son $20, Joseph De Shazer $12, George Wolf $10, A. J. Kitzmiller $9.

From Firwood—James De Shazer $24, Antone Malara $2, Ed Gilman $4, James Swain $2, Marj New $2. The Dover people think they have now done enough road work outside of their district and would like for the people in the east end of Eagle Creek district to fix up their part of the road.

Meadowbrook.

Once more the much-needed rain is on time and the loggers are happy. We expect to soon hear the whistle at Mr. Snodgrass' shingle mill on Milk Creek.

Mr. Dennison is doing a rushing business, hauling posts and lumber. Our young bachelor made a business trip to Oregon City Sunday, returning the same day and came home alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Fry, of Newport, and their son, Emmel, are visiting friends and relatives in town this week.

A. L. Larkins is hauling household goods for Jack Dodge from camp to Mr. Jackson's, on Upper Molalla.

The flying Dutchman is a good plow, but Meadowbrook has a crazy Dutchman that is no plow.

Wonder who brought the school-mam home Sunday from the teachers' institute?

There are several parties looking around for timber lately. Meadowbrook may get another sawmill soon.

H. S. Ramsey, of Molalla, called on H. C. Bonaker Monday.

Young Mr. Gorlet, of Colton, is taking some large buggy rides lately on these good roads, sometimes by him-

Needy.

Prof. Eugene Ogle, of Molalla, began teaching music here last week.

Logan.

Well, as we write, the rain has come at last and soon farmers can be speeding the plow where it has been too dry before.

Potatoes are out of the ground except some that are green yet, of which there are an unusual amount this fall.

Jacob Bahler, who was badly injured by a fall in the cannery in Alaska, is some better, according to last reports, and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Logan young men who have been away at work, have, we believe, all returned. Edwin Gerber is back from Alaska. Mr. Howard has returned and moved to Kirehem, Morconsequence was thrown off, lighting on her head, and was unconscious for several hours. Be more careful hereafter "Sissie".

On Wednesday of last week Arthur Blanchard and Miss Charlotte Dundas were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dundas. Only relatives and a few intimate friends being invited. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard left on the evening train for Portland and showers of rice and cupid darts. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard are at home on the Blanchard farm, where they will welcome their friends.

On Saturday night the young people gathered at the home of Mr. Furgason in honor of his son's birthday, and enjoyed a social dance until the small hours of the night. A beautiful lunch was spread and all enjoyed themselves. Sevel's orchestra furnished the music.

Rae Newbury is on the sick list this week.

August Bremer, Jr., has moved on to his term at Mount Pleasant.

Mrs. Laura Kelland visited Mrs. Wink a couple of days this week.

A Halloween party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burt McArthur Thursday night. Spooks and "Jack-o-Lanterns" were in abundance.

A farewell party was given Katie Friedrich Wednesday night before the family's departure for Liberal.

The best lemonade is made as follows: Beat an egg to a froth, add the juice of half a lemon and two teaspoonfuls of sugar; stir again and fill glass with water, when thoroughly mixed you have a delicious, nourishing drink.

precinct was a dry precinct instead of a "soft drink" precinct or hard drink. If the precinct is not a dry precinct would be pleased to be corrected by Mr. Erickson.

Springwater.

Joseph Raney, of Boring, was found dead in bed the other morning. He was called at the usual hour and as he did not respond, an investigation was made and life was extinct. Heart failure was supposed to be the cause of his death. He had no family, but had a brother in Springwater, Samuel Raney, and a host of relatives and friends. He was formerly from Missouri, and was 61 years old. Coroner Holman took charge of the remains and they were taken to the Springwater cemetery, where the deceased was buried. The pastor of the M. E. church at Estacada had charge of the funeral.

Rev. Robertson, of Portland, preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

Ed Closser's family have the whooping cough.

Mattie Tucker is ill and it is feared she will have to have an operation performed.

Charles Hickman and Charles Kandle went to the mountains hunting and got lost, and it was 16 hours before they could locate themselves.

Henry Dubois has rented his farm to a couple of men from east of the mountains.

We are needing school teachers in this district.

Elwood.

Mr. Wyatt, Mrs. Alice Henderson's brother, and Mrs. Silver, a friend, have been visiting with them the last few days. Mr. Wyatt just came from Hood River and brought some of the best apples he could find, and compared them with the Elwood apples, and they were found to be inferior. The Elwood apples were larger and the flavor was as good, if not better.

Mrs. Alice Henderson and Mrs. Della Gottberg have bought each an organ. Bert Henderson was appointed to purchase an organ for the church, which he has already purchased. There are in Elwood six organs, four graphophones, horns and banjos, zithers and goodness knows how many French harps and possibly a Jewsharp or two.

We are getting the first rain we
