

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Sandy.

Sandy is booming and a large amount of improvements are going on. The Davis building is almost completed and a barber shop, furniture store and also an undertaking parlor will be open in the new building.

The Sandy Land Company has erected a building that will be open as a harness shop by V. Fosberg, a well known harness maker of Portland.

P. B. Gray, a newcomer from Minnesota, has bought several lots and a house from the Sandy Land Company, and will move his family in at once. Mr. Gray is a first-class brick mason, something badly needed here.

L. H. Chalker is building a residence on Proctor avenue.

W. A. Proctor is building a handsome bungalow on Main street.

The O. O. F. lodge is having material hauled for its new hall to be erected at once. It is a two-story, 50x60 feet.

P. Kelschke is building a handsome residence; H. P. Bruns, the carpenter, is doing the work.

Dan Herligh, who purchased a lot on Main street in Yonker's Addition, has material on the ground for a handsome residence.

The Mount Hood railroad is continually pegging away at what right of way they can get, clearing and grading it. It is reported they bought the Brown place, just north of town.

Joe Willig has sold his farm located on the Sandy Heights to a Catholic mission, which will erect a building and establish a large school and an academy.

Mr. Lorman has just completed a fine large new barn on his farm, and is making many other improvements on his place.

Potato digging is the order of the day. Four new potato-digging machines have been imported to this community.

There is some talk of the sawmills shutting down on account of the money complications stirred up by our banking system.

Sandy Debating Society was re-organized and the following new officers elected: James Bell, president; E. F. Bruns, secretary; P. E. McGuffin, vice-president; Miss D. Hedlin, treasurer; Newt Hardin, marshal. The question for discussion is "Resolved, That Foreign Immigration Should Be Prohibited."

Born, to the wife of Mr. C. Sharkey, twin girls. One died and will be buried in Elvick cemetery.

George Pickens, who died at the asylum at Salem, was brought home and buried at Clifton cemetery.

Many apples are hauled to town from this locality, which is slow but surely building up a reputation for one of the best fruit—especially apples—country in Oregon.

Dr. McElroy is building a handsome residence on lower Main street.

Mr. Lindsley, of the firm of Bornsted & Lindsley, merchants of Sandy, has moved to Portland to manage the John Dollar store in Portland.

H. H. Johnson, of Oregon City, was out on Sandy doing some surveying for the Sandy Land Company.

Albin Melning and his bride have returned from their wedding trip, and will make Sandy their future home.

Canby.

Mr. Porter, who lives at Canby, has just commenced to dig his spuds.

Warren Kindler's sister is visiting him and family at present.

Vivian Wheeler is clearing some land.

Bud Klinton is cutting stove wood for Mr. Clark.

The new butcher shop is nearing completion.

The school board at Canby has put up a nice wire fence around the school house.

Mr. Bates is having a nice residence built on his Canby property.

Arthur Knight is having some wood cut on his ranch this winter.

John Burns and wife were visiting relatives and friends at Union Hall lately.

Mr. Adam Knight, our road supervisor, is making some fine improvements on the public highways this fall.

Mr. Corbett has his new house under way. David Fancher, who lives near Oregon City, has been helping him.

Andrew Koehler, the hardware man, has the largest pumpkin in his store that we have seen this fall.

Stone.

The first noticeable frost occurred here on the second morning of November, but did not kill tomato vines, but the third morning a hard frost gave the tomato vines a black color.

Oh, yes! We ate first of November roasting ears that were very toothsome. Clackamas County can furnish a great variety of good eatables. There is one thing the banking aristocracy can't deprive the farmers of in Clackamas County, and that is good eatables.

We have not heard how much Uncle Sam's bonds depreciated. Uncle Editor, please let the farmers know how our old Uncle came out in this morning's crash.

Have you heard of the death of the prophet that prophesied of the great storms we were to have in October and November, here in Oregon? One can find how certain kinds of prophets in Jeremiah's time were treated in the 29th chapter and eighth and ninth verses.

Mr. Gerber is still working at the Clear Creek bridge defense, and is doing a solid job.

Beaver Creek.

Died, Sunday, November 3, Johnnie Shannon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shannon.

Mr. J. Steiner and Mrs. C. Hettman went to Portland Sunday to spend a week with friends.

A surprise party was tendered to Mrs. Tremaine last Thursday evening.

Mr. Prettyman, of Portland, put up the new rock crusher last week.

W. Phelps and family moved on the Ogden place.

Mr. Adkins has rented Henry Hughes' farm.

Mrs. W. E. Young spent Saturday and Sunday with her folks at New Ogden place.

Rev. Griffith preached at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday.

Miss Marie Herman, who is visiting with her parents, is in Oregon City, having her throat treated.

Colton.

After four weeks of dry weather, we had a few nice showers of rain, and after that came a hard frost.

Pete Lafferty and daughter, Katie, have gone to Montana to visit relatives.

C. E. Gorbett is hauling lumber from Blittner's mill in Elwood.

H. R. Snogness, who had bought some beef cattle from Jesse Cox, some time ago, had them taken to his home last Sunday.

Mr. Granstaff of Elwood, took another load of shingles to Needy last week.

Mrs. Peterson and sons were visiting at Stromgreen's last Sunday.

The Swedish family, who bought the Gordon place, moved out last week.

Arquette is hauling hay to the mountains from Wallace's in Highland.

Carl Stromgreen has been kept busy hauling furniture for the newcomers, the Swedish people.

Mr. Carr went to Clarks to put the finishing touches on Elmer Lee's house.

Puts brothers were visiting their friend, "Uncle Sam's Boy," at Springwater last Sunday.

Joe Carlson left Colton last Thursday, and is hauling lumber for Dix Bros.

J. Puts helped E. Borglund butcher some hogs and beef last Monday.

Little cats seem to be plentiful in Colton. When people get tired of too many they take them to their neighbors and turn them loose.

Miss Amy Bonney, who has been away, came home to spend the Sunday with her parents.

Mr. Schewe went to town with Mr. Bottmiller to look for a place, which he intends to buy.

Mrs. Burgee was visiting Mrs. Lingstrom.

George Schieve left for Portland last Saturday, where he intends to stay for a while.

P. E. Bonney, the Colton merchant, got a load of store supplies last Thursday.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City and Molalla.

Clarkes.

B. Sullivan has been working on the road near the store at Clarkes.

The few showers we have had makes it convenient to plow again.

John Marshall caught his arm in the cog wheels on his engine the other day and stopped the engine. He would have been in a hard position had it not been for his brother being close and shut off the engine.

Vernon Larkins is improving slowly with his leg. He walked on it a few days without his crutches but he saw it wouldn't work yet for a while.

Eugene Cummins has his new house nearly completed.

Raggers Bros. are going to put up a new barn.

Jack Ringo has just come across the mountains after another load. He had a wet time of it.

Division eight nearly all have their buttons for the phones.

Mulino.

We are certainly having famous weather for this time of the year.

Mrs. Ella Dunbar, of Portland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. S. Udell.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Spulak.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dunton, of Liberal, Sunday.

Mrs. J. Trullinger spent Saturday and Sunday with her son, R. A. Trullinger, of Woodlawn.

Miss Marguerita Manning, of Portland, spent Sunday with friends and relatives at Mulino.

Mrs. Churchill and son, Lewis, called on Mr. and Mrs. Mallatt, Sunday.

Mr. Holstein was in Canby Monday buying furniture for his new house.

Molalla.

When the representatives of the "ITT" telephone company came to Molalla with their "Free" show they had a fair crowd and at the conclusion were given to understand that this neighborhood was satisfied with its own mutual system, and did not care to talk with the "many millions" of the "ITT" concern just yet awhile.

Molalla Grange No. 310 has organized a literary contest for the winter and has also entered the state contest, which will be of great benefit to all members who can make it convenient to attend.

Farmers are jubilant over the rain, "enough to plow", and the prospects of fair weather to continue seeding.

Lark Porter and daughters, Ruth and Joy, were visiting at R. R. Thomas' last Sunday, returning to Silverton Monday.

Mrs. Capt. Lett, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. E. A. Parker, of Cottage Grove, are visiting their sister, Mrs. R. E. Thomas. Mrs. Lett left Pittsburg last Tuesday, reaching Portland Saturday.

She has been away from Oregon for twenty years and is much impressed with the improvement going on in old Clackamas.

W. P. Herman is moving to Lents to reside for a while with his sons-in-law. We wish him success in the new enterprise.

E. A. Shaver and Miss Nora Leabo were married last Wednesday at the residence of Martin Leabo. They will reside at the old "homestead" on Rock Creek.

Russellville.

We had quite a storm Friday, which moistened up the ground so that plowing can be done in good shape. Sewing wheat should be the order of the day as there is not enough wheat raised to supply the demand.

Mr. Geo. Adams raised twelve hundred bushels and it was about all engaged before it was threshed. In the vicinity of Needy and Marks Prairie all are, or the major part of them,

Mrs. C. A. Caseday has purchased a cream separator. No more skimming for her.

Dover.

Mrs. C. A. Keith and daughter, Helen, were visiting in Beaverton last week.

Mr. Bews made a trip to Farmington last week.

J. W. Exon has been hauling potatoes over to Sandy.

Mr. A. J. Kitzmiller killed a deer last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodie celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary on October 29. Some of her lady friends spent the day with them and partook of a bountiful dinner.

George Kitzmiller is home for a few days.

Needy.

Miss May Price and Mr. Spagle were out driving Sunday evening.

Mrs. Percy Ritter and Miss Grace Ritter spent Saturday and Sunday at Butteville.

Ray Fish was seen going towards the Kocher's Sunday about sundown.

Mrs. C. M. Olson on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Smith spent Sunday at J. D. Ritter's.

Mr. Orval Armstrong called at D. B. Yoder's Saturday last.

Milwaukie.

The new lumber yard seems to be just the thing needed and it will be well patronized, and now rumors of other industries fill the air. The shoe shop is also most welcome—"let all worthy industries come right on."

Last Thursday "squire" Kelso and Marshal Eklins arrested two members of the tramp fraternity at Milwaukie Heights' station, where they had spread their blankets for a quiet snooze. These "Weary Willes" were taken to Oregon City and helped to chinery and appliances used as such; orchards, crops and livestock; household furniture in use, and tools owned and in use by a mechanic shall be exempt from taxation." The decision was rendered by the lecturer, that this plan is too sweeping, too indefinite and would be liable to abuse, and that while some measure of this kind to protect and encourage the small farmer should be enacted, we cannot support this proposition.

December 13 and 14 has been selected as the dates for the Grange Bazaar and Food Exchange, something new in Grange enterprises.

The entire county is taking interest in the excise question of Oregon City, for "as goes the city, so goes the county," is an old maxim. We shall see.

Buena Vista.

T. H. Combs and wife are recent arrivals from Omaha, Nebraska. He has been in the music business there for several years and comes here highly recommended by the people of that city. He is the head salesman of the Ellers' Piano House, Portland, and will shortly open a branch house here, and will remain here permanently.

Mr. Taylor having resigned his position from the firm.

Mr. Cummings has sold his place for $800.

Mr. Baker was here last Sunday taking lessons on his mandolin and guitar.

Mr. Bonner has his place nearly cleared of all stumps. A soon as convenient he will finish up the outside of his house.

Lon Aldrich will soon be able to occupy his house, judging by the way the carpenters are working. It will be 14x34 feet long, with a kitchen on one side 18x12 and 14 feet high.

Maggie Maddocks was brought home a few days ago from the Good Samarrespondent has not learned which. The sick in this burg are on the mend and getting as saucy as ever.

Aug Funk has rented A. M. Kerchem's place, working same on shares. Potato digging is all finished, with a good crop.

Now for a little more rain to make sod plowing easy.

J. Hughes killed a beef, which he sold to Petzold.

Mrs. C. Senn is visiting a few days in Portland.

W. H. Bonney has purchased a traction engine of Shannon Bros, which he intends to use for logging purposes. It has been reported that he has shut down his mill for the winter.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Co., last Saturday, it was decided to install a metallic circuit from central to Oregon City, there being sufficient funds on hand without levying an assessment.

J. R. Ripley had a valuable horse die last week.

Our school seems to be getting along nicely with Miss Andrus as teacher, with a full house.

Owing to the large surplus of school children in the district the board had to get more seats to accommodate the crowd. Miss Nettie Gaskell is going back to Eastern Washington to cook for her brother near Hatton, Wash.

Frank C. Brown, deputy state master fish warden, has completed the work of cleaning out the fishway at Willamette Falls. All loose rock has been removed and the fishway is in perfect order.

A SURPRISE IN STORE

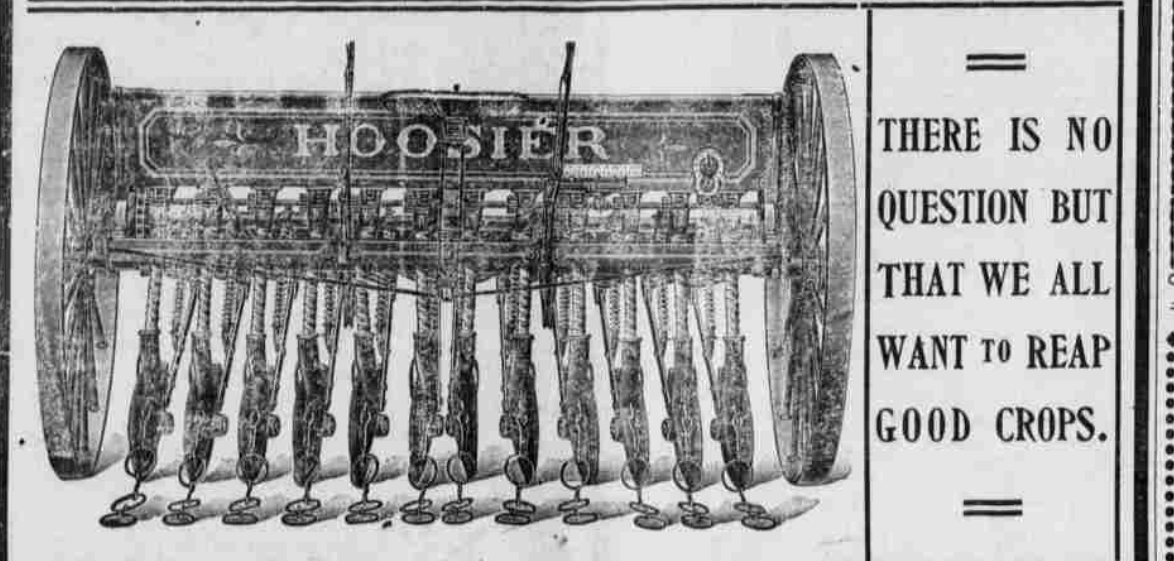

awaits you, its at this store and its chock full of good things in the way of a Selected Stock of Groceries, no shelf worn, musty food products ever leave this place. No, sir! What we dispose of is always high grade goods and that too at a "general cut under price," you're safe in placing standing orders for supplies with us. We guarantee and stand by what we sell and that's why you're absolutely safe.

The LARGEST and BEST Appointed Grocery in Clackamas County

J. E. SEELEY

Cor. 9th and Main Sts. OREGON CITY, OREGON

AS YE SOW SO SHALL YE REAP

THE FIRST MOVE TOWARD THIS END IS TO SOW RIGHT

IT CANNOT BE DONE BETTER THAN WITH A HOOSIER DRILL

It is built strong, is set to sow accurately and will remain so. The Hoosier is what many others are not--a "Positive Force Feed"--and because it is positive and accurate it sows in a uniform manner, whether up hill or down, on side hill or on the level there is no difference, always the same amount put in at the same depth.

IT IS ABSOLUTE PERFECTION IN A SEEDING MACHINE.

Catalog and Circulars telling all about it sent free on application.

HOOT MON!

"The Kilties" are Comin' CANADA'S GREATEST CONCERT BAND TWICE COMMANDED BY HIS MAJESTY

KING EDWARD VII

MUSICIANS MALE CHOIR SCOTCH PIPERS SOLOISTS

Two Grand Concerts Afternoon and Evening Thurs. Nov. 14

ARMORY HALL

AUSPICES CO. "G" 3rd REGT. O. N. G.

PRICES: Matinee 25c, 50c Night 75c, $1

Tickets on Sale in Advance. Reserve Early!

Kodol For Dyspepsia

Gives rest to the stomach. For indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, tired stomach, weak stomach, windy stomach, puffed stomach, nervous stomach and catarrh of the stomach. A prompt relief.

For Sale by GEORGE A. HARDING

Most people know that if they have been sick they need Scott's Emulsion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy, brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and well, young and old, rich and poor.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.

ALL DRUGGISTS, 50c. AND $1.00.

For old people who suffer from rheumatism, stiff joints, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica and paralysis

Sloan's Liniment

gives quick relief. It penetrates through the nerves and tissues, relieves the inflammation and congestion, quickens the blood and gives a pleasant tingling sensation of comfort and warmth. Needs very little rubbing.

At all dealers PRICE 25c 50c & $1.00 Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston Mass.

For old people who suffer from rheumatism, stiff joints, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica and paralysis

Sloan's Liniment

gives quick relief. It penetrates through the nerves and tissues, relieves the inflammation and congestion, quickens the blood and gives a pleasant tingling sensation of comfort and warmth. Needs very little rubbing.

At all dealers PRICE 25c 50c & $1.00 Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston Mass.