RECENT RAINS HELP FARMERS

FALL PLOWING AND SOWING IN FULL SWING IN COUNTRY.

FROSTS NOT INJURIOUS

Wheat Has Been Moving Slowly But
Secretary Cortelyou Promises Aid to the West to Move the Immense Crop.

The recent rains have been a big benefit to the farmers and has moistened the soil to enable them to do their fall plowing and already many are sowing their fall grain. The light frosts of the last week did very little damage to the fruit, but it will tend to shorten the strawberry crop, which gave promise of a good yield for several weeks yet, strawberries were in the market Saturday and retailed at two boxes for 35 cents.

The Portland flouring mills is this week quoting no prices owing to the present dull times, but the merchants of this city are quoting wheat at 95 cents, bran $20.50, shorts $22.50 and chop $19, a slight increase in prices during the past week, but flour and hay remain the same as that of last week.

Owing to the present money stringency wheat is moving slowly, but Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou is helping the Middle West and the Far West to move their immense grain yield. Large shipments are going to the foreign countries and very little being stored in New York compared to that of former years. Some of the hop raisers of the country will give up the raising of hops, and devote their time to the raising of grain, as there is a larger demand for grain than for hops. The price of hops, though, at present are holding their own, and owing to the present banking facilities very few hops are being bought, but the growers are calmly waiting for the banks to be again in operation as heretofore. In the general view of the trade from 6 to 8 cents for prime to choice will be the bottom this year, but some of the growers are looking forward to an advance in price.

There has been some decline in the price of butter, but the creamery men are confident there will not be a further decline. A large shipment of Eastern butter was recently shipped into the Portland markets. Good ranch butter can be had now at 60 cents per roll.

Eggs are still bringing a price of 35 cents and are pronounced by some of the merchants as a scarce article.

Applies of good variety are daily arriving in the market, but there is also an inferior grade being brought into the markets but these do not find a very ready sale. In Howell & Jones' window are several varieties of apples, raised by Albert Engle on his farm at Molalla. These apples are of some of the finest apples ever raised in Clackamas County and would compare favorably with any of those raised at Hood River. Another fine sample of apples that were raised in Clackamas County are those on exhibit in the window of the real estate office in the Postoffice building. These fine specimens were raised by A. C. Newell, on his farm near Clackamas Station. Mr. Newell has one of the best fruit farms in this section and gives his trees the required attention, and this year he has a large crop as a reward.

J. L. Mumpower, of Stone, is also among the farmers of the county who is taking an interest in raising good apples and he has succeeded in raising three excellent qualities which he has raised by grafting, one of which he has called the "Clackamas Red". The apple is very large and of fine flavor.

An apple that was raised in this city was brought into this office a few days ago and it was of the Red Cheek Pippin variety, measuring over 14 inches in circumference. It was certainly a "pippin".

All kinds of vegetables are in the markets and never before were the markets so well supplied. Young onions and radishes are now again in the markets and hot house lettuce. Late spinach is also in.

Pineapples are among the fruits that were shipped to the merchants during the week and oranges are commencing to arrive from California.

Poultry seems to be a drug in the market at present, with a slight decrease in price. The regular Thanksgiving demand for turkeys and chickens will not set in for about two weeks, but the turkey raisers say that there will be plenty of turkeys and will be enough to supply the demand for consumption in Oregon.

MAY ADD ELEVENTH GRADE.

Graduates from High School Desire to Advance at Home.

A movement has been placed on foot here to secure the establishment of an eleventh grade in the Barclay high school and petitions are out for presentation to the Board of Directors at the regular meeting next Monday night. These petitions are being signed by the students who graduated from the tenth grade in the high school last June and it is said that about 15 of them are desirous of continuing their work in the city schools. In the tenth grade at the present time there are about 15 pupils, so their is ample space in the room now being used by that grade for a higher grade. It is also intended by the students to procure signatures of property owners and taxpayers asking for the establishment of the eleventh grade. This is a movement that has been agitated here many times, with indifferent success. The absence of an eleventh grade is generally regretted, for students after leaving the tenth grade, are obliged to leave the city to pursue their studies. It is not probable, however, that the Board of Directors will add another grade, unless the endorsement of a majority of the taxpayers of the city is obtained for the project, as additional expense will be entailed for another teacher.

CLACKAMAS TAVERN OPEN.

Skating Rink Will Be Built, and Nothing But Soft Drinks Will Be Sold.

Clackamas Tavern, the popular road house on the Clackamas River, has been thrown open to the public, and is commencing to enjoy a popularity that is increasing. Only a few miles from Oregon City, the Tavern is located in a beautiful spot, and is a delightful place for people to spend their Sundays and leisure hours. Mr. Erickson has abandoned his original idea to erect a dancing pavilion, and will build a commodious skating rink, where no liquors will be sold, but soft drinks may be obtained. The rink will be operated by a man of experience. The management invites the public to come early and often to the Tavern, where there may be assured of a warm welcome and a pleasurable

The Secret of a Beautiful Face lies in keeping the skin protected as well as cleansed. Just washing is not enough—that only leaves the delicate surface more exposed to the irritation of dust and germs; to mercurial attacks of sun and weather. After washing, apply Robertine and experience its delightful refreshment. You will admire the lineless softness it imparts to face, neck and arms. It not only stimulates a radiant glow, but protects the skin from becoming coarse. Prevents burning, tan and freckles.

J. A. McGlashan, manager of the Rockdale Co-operative Store, and R. A. Junken, who is employed in the same establishment, will leave about November 20 for Medford, where they will embark in business, and their line will embrace wholesale teas, coffee, spices and crockery. They will be accompanied by their families.

M. Junken is a well known resident of Willamette, and Mr. McGlashan has been in the grocery business here for many years. He was at one time manager of the Fellows Grocery, and afterwards in business with F. A. Miles. Last Winter he organized the Rockdale Co-operative Company. He will be succeeded as manager by W. Myers.

RALLIES FOR INFORMATION REGARDING THE EXCISE LAW

What it is; What it will Mean for Oregon City; How it works

The following have been engaged by the Citizens' Committee of Oregon City to give information regarding the Excise Law which is a vital issue at the December election.

On Monday evening, November 11, 1907, at 7:30 P. M. Doctor Ervin S. Chapman, the peerless leader and superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of California will speak. He is a master organizer, an eloquent speaker and has tremendous power. He is specially strong in pointing out the facts regarding the increased value of real estate and the general good which has come to the commercial life of the city where the saloon power has been broken.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, of the White Temple will speak Monday, November 18, 1907, at 7:30 P. M. Dr. Brougher needs no introduction to this community. His address will be vital, forceful, and eloquent. Mr. L. C. Otto, ex-chief of police of Lincoln, Nebraska, will speak on Friday, November 29, 1907, at 7:30 P. M. He will tell of the value of the Excise Law to Lincoln, Nebraska, and how it is regarded by the saloonkeepers who are doing business under the law.

For the meetings of November 11 and 18, 1907, the auditorium of the Baptist Church has been engaged because it is centrally located and has the largest seating capacity within easy reach of all.

For the rally of November 29, when Mr. Otto speaks the hall will be announced later. It will be probably Shively's Hall.

For further information regarding the meetings watch the daily papers. These rallies are for the voters and adult population of Oregon City. The children will not be admitted.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The Tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally. These tablets are for sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City and Molalla.
