NEWS OF THE COUNTY

The city is to present another touch of the theatrical this evening by presenting a favorite feature in a scene of the Third Annual Benefit for the Oregon City Presbyterian Church. The benefit was adopted by the church some weeks ago, and the proceeds will go to the church and its community. The event will be held at the city, and the tickets will be sold at the door. The cost is $2.50.

The city is to present another touch of the theatrical this evening by presenting a favorite feature in a scene of the Third Annual Benefit for the Oregon City Presbyterian Church. The benefit was adopted by the church some weeks ago, and the proceeds will go to the church and its community. The event will be held at the city, and the tickets will be sold at the door. The cost is $2.50.

The city is to present another touch of the theatrical this evening by presenting a favorite feature in a scene of the Third Annual Benefit for the Oregon City Presbyterian Church. The benefit was adopted by the church some weeks ago, and the proceeds will go to the church and its community. The event will be held at the city, and the tickets will be sold at the door. The cost is $2.50.

The city is to present another touch of the theatrical this evening by presenting a favorite feature in a scene of the Third Annual Benefit for the Oregon City Presbyterian Church. The benefit was adopted by the church some weeks ago, and the proceeds will go to the church and its community. The event will be held at the city, and the tickets will be sold at the door. The cost is $2.50.

The city is to present another touch of the theatrical this evening by presenting a favorite feature in a scene of the Third Annual Benefit for the Oregon City Presbyterian Church. The benefit was adopted by the church some weeks ago, and the proceeds will go to the church and its community. The event will be held at the city, and the tickets will be sold at the door. The cost is $2.50.