DAIRY INDUSTRY BOOMING.

Great Interest Taken in Recent Convention at Portland.

Upon several occasions there were between 600 and 700 people in attendance upon the Dairy Convention and exhibit at one time, and from the moment that President Judd called the meeting to order at 10 o'clock Thursday morning until it closed at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, the interest never flagged.

Hon. B. D. White, the dairy expert with the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., who has participated in dairy conventions in all of the older states, said that he had never attended a better convention. The program was full of interest—it was a school of information and instruction, and facts were presented and views exchanged and actual results shown, which will be of tremendous value to all those engaged in the industry or contemplating a participation in it.

The substantial character of the gathering was shown when the Chair requested those actually milking cows commercially to stand—75 per cent of the audience arose, and when a vote was asked to show what proportion of these were testing milk with the idea of keeping their herds up to the highest standard, at least four-fifths of the milkers rose a second time, a striking evidence of modern dairy methods.

The exhibits were magnificent, equalling those of the international show. The whole state was represented. The convention was interesting in dairying have determined that the products of this great industry will add at least $20,000,000 to the wealth of Oregon in 1908; 204 people personally paid their dues while in attendance, the greatest previous record being $4, and before the next session of the association is convened the rolls will contain to exceed 300 members.

Mrs. Meyers on Patriotism.

Gives His Startling Views on Recent Financial Situation.

Editor of the Courier:—Your article on the Goldfield trouble, I think, is rather harsh on the miners. As a reader of both sides of the controversy I think that the miners are justified. First, the miners dig out of Mother Earth the gold and silver which being in close proximity with the San Francisco mint, could be converted into American dollars in 30 days. Then, sir, why should a corporation ask its employees to take scrip that is not a legal tender in any sense and their hard earnings taken and deposited in defunct banks and trust companies to bolster up a wild cat speculation? Yes, it is all well enough to talk about being patriotic just at this time when the speculator's ox has been yoked, but how was it when the banks and the trusts had their feet on the necks of produce; when they were demanding the government issue of currency based on one-third the value of non-perishable products at a rate of 3 per cent per annum, to be the first lien on the product? What did the same people say then about patriotism?

They charge us with being lunatics and all other kinds of "ticks." If the producers had treated them with the same dose they gave, they would have refused to take their wild cat currency and what would have happened? It is not hard to guess. So much for patriotism.

If the press of the country would give the people the facts instead of holding back facts I think the results would be better in the end.

This matter puts me in the mind of the old story told on the Irishman that held the limb back until his friend got in reach then let go, making the remark, "Begory, if I had not held it, it would have knocked you down."

Moral—Those who have told the truth will be respected; those who have not will be neglected. The consequences we know not—we guess.

Yours for the facts, W. W. MYERS.

Mrs. Gipson Sues for Divorce.

Ellen Gipson, who was married to Charles I. Gipson in Clatsop County May 15, 1892, alleges that he deserted her while they were living in Portland at 68 East Twelfth street, April 1, 1907. She states that shortly after their marriage he commenced to exhibit an irritable and disagreeable temper, which disturbed her peace of mind. George C. Brownell appears for Mrs. Gipson.

Makes the Liver Lively.

Orlino Laxative Fruit Syrup gives permanent relief in cases of habitual constipation as it stimulates the liver and restores the natural action of the bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. Does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Remember the name Orlino and refuse substitutes. Howell & Jones.

Muscular Pains Cured. "During the summer of 1903 I was troubled with muscular pains in the instep of my foot," says Mr. S. Pedlar, of Toronto, Ont. "At times it was so painful I could hardly walk. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was recommended to me, so I tried it and was completely cured by one small bottle. I have since recommended it to several of my friends, all of whom speak highly of it." For sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City, and Molalla.

A LAST WORD!

We have been asking you to believe that this is a good place to come for your Christmas remembrances. We have told you that for reasons of newness, for reasons of variety, for reasons of what you get for what you pay, it is useless to go elsewhere in this City or Portland. If you look for still further proof, you will find it right here in the store. Plenty of it. Enough to convince the hard to convince. Enough to put the stamp of truth on all we have told you about what is here. . . . .
