

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Oswego. The funeral of Miss Susie Ouida Fox was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist Church...

Eldorado. Well, Christmas is over and the old year is about to close, so turn over a new leaf and get ready for the new year.

Redland. A. M. Kerchem was home from Eastern Washington to spend Christmas with his family.

Canby. Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees...

Mulino. Christmas and New Year's have come and gone, and the girls have all begun wearing smiles already in preparation for the leap year.

Clackamas Grange. Clackamas Grange, No. 298, met at their hall December 21. Ten applications were taken in and the following officers were elected...

Grange Election at Barlow. At the last meeting of the Twentieth Century Grange the following officers were elected: W. S. Tull, master; D. O. Freeman, overseer...

New Year Greeting. Hurrah for the happy New Year; Hurrah for 1908! Let's start it with love and cheer...

New Year Resolutions. Resolved, That I will follow my impressions every day. And do what my soul shall ask...

Secretary Wilson says, "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines..."

David Nelson has moved his family into their new home. A New Year's dance was given in the Grange Hall New Year's eve.

Fever Sores. Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition.

Garfield Grange. Garfield Grange, No. 317, elected officers Saturday, with the following results: Master, L. J. Palmater; overseer, Mrs. E. J. Yocum...

Russellville. The 23d finds us enjoying a fine day, after so much rain. The old saying was, "More rain, more rest, or more grass," but that all falls here.

Estacada. Garfield Grange, No. 317, elected officers Saturday, with the following results: Master, L. J. Palmater; overseer, Mrs. E. J. Yocum...

Don't Take the Risk. When you have a bad cough or cold do not let it drag along until it becomes chronic bronchitis or develops into an attack of pneumonia...

Stella Criswell is recovering, we are glad to say. George Brocart's children have the mumps.

Mrs. Nora Armstrong and daughter, Nellie, of Portland, are visiting friends here during the holidays.

Oglesby Bros. attended the dance at Blosser's Monday night.

Mr. J. J. Bargfield spent part of last week in Portland, visiting relatives. L. Gruell is disposing of his personal effects.

Earl Allen's fox has caused him to use crutches again. Owen Simpson and Myrtle Doremus, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doremus, were married this week.

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mrs. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. Albert Goucher left Monday for St. John, to work awhile. Mrs. Goucher and Mrs. Noblitt visited in Mulino Friday.

Al Jans has a fine pet goat, which he has whipped out the whole family. Dr. Goucher drove over to Liberal Monday.

Mr. Stortess and Julia Paine were transacting business in Mulino Monday.

This must be a good beginning, for our thriving little population, as we have never had an item to tell of our existence. Nevertheless, we have been trying our best to let the county know we have some thirty-five children...

Miss Linda Welsh is spending the holidays with her parents, of this place. She is a student of the State University.

Saturday, the 28th, a number of the neighbors gave George Morse a farewell surprise. All had an enjoyable time, and Mr. Morse was presented with a beautiful carved chair.

Mrs. Hugh Roberts entertained her aunt from Portland, Sunday evening. Mrs. Shaver, who has returned from the Good Samaritan Hospital, where she underwent a dangerous operation...

Miss Lila Lewis, of Portland, is spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. A. L. Stennett, and brother, O. W. Lewis.

Mrs. Beckner received two beautiful Christmas gifts from her son in Portland. One was a golden oak dining table and the other a kitchen cabinet.

Mr. Slocum will soon move into his new residence, lately purchased from George Morse.

Our new mail boxes have at last arrived, after a four-months' journey. Mr. Hart is very slowly, but very surely, getting his new residence completed.

Mr. Boardman and Mr. Russell have each moved into their new homes. Mr. Shaw has quite a number of woodcutters are at work and Mr. Cook has several cutting wood on his place.

L. H. Chambers was in our vicinity Monday. Mrs. Spooner's daughter is visiting with her parents this week.

We wish you all a Happy New Year. Our Christmas dance in the Odd Fellows' hall was a success in spite of the rain.

Ernest Hitchmen, of Monitor, died Saturday of consumption. He was a member of the W. O. W., the funeral services being conducted by that order. Interment was in Rock Creek cemetery.

Stella Criswell is recovering, we are glad to say. George Brocart's children have the mumps.

Mrs. Nora Armstrong and daughter, Nellie, of Portland, are visiting friends here during the holidays.

Dr. Dedman was in attendance on Levi Hostetler Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rue, of Willapa, Wash., are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ritter.

Miss Lucy Armstrong is convalescent. Oglesby Bros. attended the dance at Blosser's Monday night.

When you have a bad cough or cold do not let it drag along until it becomes chronic bronchitis or develops into an attack of pneumonia...

Earl Allen's fox has caused him to use crutches again. Owen Simpson and Myrtle Doremus, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doremus, were married this week.

Garfield Grange, No. 317, elected officers Saturday, with the following results: Master, L. J. Palmater; overseer, Mrs. E. J. Yocum...

The 23d finds us enjoying a fine day, after so much rain. The old saying was, "More rain, more rest, or more grass," but that all falls here.

Garfield Grange, No. 317, elected officers Saturday, with the following results: Master, L. J. Palmater; overseer, Mrs. E. J. Yocum...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mrs. Bittling visited at Troutdale over Sunday. The Grange "family party" of Saturday evening was a success...

field, of Garfield, December 26, a son. The Garfield Grange Dramatic Club is preparing to give a drama in the near future.

Miss Eva Pruner went to Riddle, Douglas County, to spend her vacation. She is the teacher in the intermediate department of the Estacada school.

Several residences are in course of construction in Estacada. A two-story frame store building is being constructed on a lot adjoining the Cary hardware store.

The telephone system is being maintained by the new company, Messrs. Yocum, Palmater and Wonecut. It is expected to have everything in working order in a month or two.

Mr. Diamond, manager of the Clackamas Lumber Company, is overhauling Mr. Bonney's mill and intends to have three donkeys in the timber by New Year's. There are now about 20 hands employed there...

Your correspondent has just heard of the pugilistic encounter at the Evergreen school between Edgar Brock, Jr., and Jackie Lewis, bantamweights. Round 1—Jackie made pass at Ed, but failed to land through the cracks of the woodshed.

Ed came out of the woodshed and landed with his right on Jackie's right eye, which put that part of his physiognomy out of business. Round 3—After a little more jawing and a breathing spell, Jackie lead and brought his opponent to his knees...

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land cleared on his place this winter. Irvin Wheeler was hauling in some hay today.

Halsey Phelps and wife called on Mrs. Wheeler and wife on Christmas Day.

Grandma Hilton is still very poorly. Mr. Corbet is still working on his new house.

Mr. Rider is still very feeble. Miss Ada Brock, decided to call it a draw. Participants were immediately put under arrest by the schoolmarm and fined staying in at recess for four terms.

Christmas has come and gone, and if the people could have as good right ear and a hole in left. Any one losing a nice gold pen in this country can find it by calling on Miss Myrtle Boyles. Parties are expected to describe the property before seeing it.

Our school is near its close. It is under the supervision of Miss Buckner, of this country, who is a promising young lady.

We understand that Louis Daugherty gives a New Year's dance. Now, Louis, whilst the girls are at your house have the rope ready and a knot tied.

Coyotes can be heard in this country almost every night. This is a place of safety for varmints.

O. S. Boyles and others have knocked the bottom out of our mill road hauling lumber while the rain was falling. In 1908 our roads will be graded with money, as money is plentiful.

Mr. Phegley, who has lived in Canby for several years, and who has been agent for all kinds of fruit trees, was last seen near Butteville several days ago. His friends have been trying to find him, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Warren Kindle and Mr. Hilton have just finished a new fence for Arthur Knight.

Mrs. Peebler is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burns.

Mr. Mainwood is having some land