HARRY STEVENS ENDS HIS LIFE

FOUND HANGING BY STRAP TO HINGE ON DOOR OF HIS ROOM IN HOTEL.

HAD DOMESTIC TROUBLE

Drank Chloroform Liniment to Deadend His Sensibilities—Bought Property Only Last Week—Was Prominent Lodge Man.

Harry Stevens committed suicide Sunday night in a room in the Brunswick Hotel, on Seventh and Main streets, by hanging himself to the upper hinge in the door of his room. He was not found until after noon Monday, and had been dead probably 12 hours. Coroner Holman took charge of the remains, which were removed to the morgue, and an inquest held, the jury rendering a verdict that Stevens had taken his life while under a stress of temporary mental aberration.

Stevens was 53 years of age, and came to Oregon City about 10 years ago, and until last week he lived with his wife on the hill. Last Saturday he engaged a room at the Brunswick Hotel, paying a week's board in advance, and on the same evening he visited several places of business in the city, paying small accounts that he owed. He spent most of Sunday in his room and his bed was not made by the hotel employees, because he was almost a constant occupant.

On Sunday he procured a bottle of chloroform liniment, which he took to his room and drank about one-third of the preparation, dulling his sensibilities. He then calmly made a double half-hitch about the upper hinge of the door with a stout strap and fastened the other end around his neck and sank down on the floor and was slowly strangled.

W. H. Wilcox, proprietor of the hotel, became alarmed Monday because Stevens did not appear, and at noon he went to the room and tried to gain admittance, but the door was locked and there was no response to his repeated knocking, so he mounted to the skylight and saw the body of Stevens lying in a corner of the room. He called in Sheriff Bestie, who accompanied by Dr. Carl, made an examination and telephoned to Coroner Holman.

Stevens is said to have worried considerably over domestic trouble in his home. Last Friday he purchased the Buckles place at Willamette from Mrs. Ellen Buckles, agreeing to pay $750. He paid $500 cash, and also took a bill of sale for the furniture of the house.

The unfortunate man was employed in the carpenter shop of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, and was highly respected by his employers and associates. He was a prominent member of Willamette Falls Camp, No. 148, Woodmen of the World, and only this month retired from the position of counsel of the camp. He carried $1,000 insurance in that order. Stevens is survived by a wife and four children by a former marriage: Edmund Stevens, of Enderly, Or.; Mrs. Miriam Turner, of The Dalles; Mrs. Robert Adams and Miss Nellie M. Stevens, of Sellwood.

DEMOCRATS ARE ALL FOR BRYAN

toral college. The endorsement of these selections by the state convention will not transgress the will of the voters in any way while it will remove any doubt as to the possible objections to the regularity of the nominations.

The state convention will be held in Portland June 16 and will be composed of some 215 delegates. The basis of representation was fixed by the committee at one regular delegate from each county and one delegate at large for every 250 votes cast for Chamberlain at the last election.

The manner of electing delegates to the state convention was left to the different county party organizations. The ratio of representation will give the different counties throughout the state representation in the convention approximately as follows:

Baker county 16 delegates, Benton 5, Clackamas 9, Clatsop 6, Columbia 4, Coos 5, Crook 4, Curry 2, Douglas 9, Gilliam 3, Grant 4, Harney 3, Jackson 7, Josephine 4, Klamath 3, Lake 3, Lane 4, Lincoln 3, Linn 10, Malheur 4, Marion 13, Morrow 3, Multnomah 28, Polk 6, Sherman 3, Tillamook 3, Umatilla 8, Union 7, Wallowa 4, Wasco 7, Washington 7, Wheeler 3, Yamhill 7.

Unqualified endorsement of the direct primary law was also given by the committee upon the motion of Senator Miller. The committee went on record as favoring rigid observance of the letter and spirit of the law because of its adoption by the people of the state and because of the principles involved.

Steps for a non-partisan judiciary were taken by the committee in the appointment of a committee consisting of W. M. Holmes, of Salem, J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, and N. A. Peery, of Portland, to enter into negotiations with the Republican organization for the selecting of a non-partisan bench.

It was argued that Governor Chamberlain had advanced the policy and had maintained it in his appointments while in office. Because of the manifest wisdom of the theory it was decided by the committee to see what could be done with the Republican leaders in fostering the idea and preserving a political division on the bench of the state as far as may be possible.

NOTABLE MEDICAL DISCOVERY.
Of Special Value to Many Here in Oregon City.

One of the most notable discoveries and one that undoubtedly appeals more than anything else to many people here in Oregon City is the combination of stomach remedies in the Mi-ona treatment. This prescription has worked wonders, and there is now no excuse for anyone suffering with indigestion or weak stomach.

It acts specifically upon the muscles of the stomach and bowels, strengthening and stimulating them so that they readily take care of the food that is eaten. It also increases the flow of gastric juices, thus getting from the food the nourishment that is necessary for health and energy.

The symptoms of indigestion are numerous, such as distress after eating, flatulence, heart-burn, sick headaches, dizziness and irritability. These are all dispelled by a few doses of Mi-ona when the trouble is recent, but just as surely in long standing and chronic cases if the treatment is followed for a reasonable length of time.

So positive are the good effects following the use of Mi-ona that the remedy is sold by Howell & Jones under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it should fail to cure.

New Era.
Thomas Kelland and Joseph Sevcik visit Mr. and Mrs. George Kelland, of Mill Creek, Saturday night and Sunday.

Joseph Hoffman had a narrow escape for his life last week. He was riding on a low sled drawn by a team of horses when one of the cross bars caught on a stump and uprooted it, throwing the sled high in the air with Mr. Hoffman on it, causing him to light on his right shoulder and bruising him up quite badly.

David Penman, of Eastern Washington, is visiting his mother on the farm this week.

Mrs. Kate Schauer and Miss Anna Cahill, of Oregon City, came up Sunday to visit their respective parents.

Mrs. Jos. Reif, Mrs. M. Hurlas and Miss Louise Bowman visited their sister, Mrs. John Bond, of Clackamas, Sunday.

Frank McArthur is contemplating the erection of a modern equipped poultry house 12x32 feet, on his farm.

Fred Burgyn, of Silverton, is spending a few days with his parents.

Mrs. D. McArthur left the forepart of the week for Shellville, Cal., to spend the remainder of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Isabelle Newman.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at Mr. Wort's party Saturday night, by all present.

Miss Anna Feaster was married last Wednesday to a gentleman from the East. The boys did not serenade them, as they had not fully recovered from their last serenading.

Harry Eastman has disposed of his moustache.

On Sunday last Frank McArthur and his thoroughbred rat dog were performing a stunt in the way of chasing rats when one was cornered under the well platform. Frank raised a board and the dog did the rest—by making the "high dive" in the well. Prompt action saved the dog from drowning.

Mrs. Dr. Samuel Brown, of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George H. Brown.

Stafford.
Yesterday rain seemed to be in order, and today a heavy fog after a frosty night.

The sick are getting better, except Mrs. Keckel. We hear she took a relapse Saturday and the doctor is in daily attendance.

And still the wedding bells are ringing. This time it is John Kraxberger and Miss Julia Waningor, of this place, who were married the 21st. The boys gave them a serenade in the evening.

O pleasant is the welcome kiss,
When day's dull round is o'er;
And sweet the music of the step,
That meets us at the door.

Mr. Sturt is sawing wood with his gasoline saw into the upper end of our berg.

The appointment of J. W. Smith as road supervisor of this place, is met with general satisfaction. Mr. Smith was at the wheel before, and Mr. Scheer, of this place, who is known as a hard working man, said he could not do as much work on the road in a day as Mr. Smith did, so we hope we have got the right man in the right place this time.

Just a word in conclusion to our friend from Marks Prairie. We thought we had fully explained matters, but since you want to know what kind of principle we stand for we feel it our duty to reply that we do not stand for principles. We stand for principles backed by the motto, "Truth to God and Justice to All Humankind." You say we are trying to down business men. That's a mistake. We are only exposing the faults of men, who have forced one man to bankruptcy in Aurora and put four men out of business in Canby.

Clackamas.
Clackamas Grange held its regular meeting Saturday evening, January 18. The attendance was good for such a stormy evening. One candidate was instructed in the third and fourth degrees. At a special meeting held the previous Monday, eight candidates were initiated. On Saturday, January 25th, the brothers are to meet at 9 o'clock to cut the winter's wood. The sisters will prepare dinner.

The friends of Rev. Meyer and wife gave them a farewell reception last week at the home of Mrs. A. O. Hayward. There were sixty-two present, and the evening was very pleasantly spent in playing games and visiting. The Ladies' Aid Society served refreshments. Mr. Meyer has accepted a call to the Laurelwood church, and has gone there to live.

Two new families have moved into Clackamas. Mr. Cummings has rented the Richman place. Mr. Ritter has bought the John Robinson place.

A. O. Wold has just completed a fine new chicken house.

Tom Mooney is improving his place with a new barn and fence.

The I. O. O. F. and the Rebekas held a joint installation last Wednesday evening. A good crowd was present to enjoy the event, especially the fine program.

That is what the rich man wants, what the poor have, the miser spends and the spender saves.

We do not want anyone to be a miser, for every man owes himself the necessary comforts of life, but you don't want to be known as a "spender" by your associates. It may sound flattering but the man who has a bank account and saves at least a small part of his wages stands head and shoulders above the spend-thrift in any community.
