Mrs. Steinmeier was formerly Miss Lizzie Stover, of this city, and they are at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stover, of Twelfth and Madison Streets.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running or a perfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

DEATHS

Death of Miss Isobel Nourse. Miss Isobel Nourse, daughter of Mrs. Isobel Nourse of this city, who was taken ill at her home last week, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Landsborough, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The cause of her death was bacterial meningitis.

Stomach Trouble Cured. If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. P. For sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City and Molalla.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it. Prevalence of Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physician, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the week ending January 31, 1907.

The Farmers Mutual F. R. A. OF PORTLAND OREGON (INCORPORATED 1904) Membership 1700. Sum Insured $1,250,000.00. This association was organized for the mutual protection of its members against loss or damage by fire or lightning on farm buildings, churches, and school houses in the country, and the contents of such buildings. Membership fee is $1.00. The premium is 1/4 per cent in Class I and 1/2 per cent in Class II, and is good for five years with assessments as necessitated by losses, which never amounted to more than 10 cents on $100 in Class I in any one year. If desired, we also give paid-up, unassessable policies for 75 cents on $100 in Class I and twice that sum in Class II for three years.

Restoring the Stomach. Do not pamper the children with hot-house methods; there is a common-sense method. If the children or the man or woman show a tendency to be "off their feed," if they begin to lose flesh, their stomach should be toned up with a harmless tonic which will increase the secretions of the digestive tract, which will invigorate the stomach into greater activity and increase the secretion of the phosphates from the food—a remedy which will do this in one which has stood the test of public approval for nearly forty years, and contains no alcohol or narcotics. We refer to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It can be given to the smallest child with perfect freedom. If the blood impure, if pimples, boils, headaches occur, if the stomach is weak—first eradicate the poisons from the blood.

A JUBILEE JOKE.

Churchill's Bustle That Played "God Save the Queen." Everything that year (Queen Victoria's jubilee year) was dubbed "jubilee," from knights and babies to hats and coats. "God Save the Queen" was heard at a museum on every conceivable occasion until the time became an obsession. This led to a practical joke at the castle which caused much amusement. One morning, speaking of the jubilee craze, I pretended that I had received as an advertisement a "jubilee bustle," which would play "God Save the Queen" when the wearer sat down. This, of course, created much curiosity and laughter. Having promised to put it on, I took my hosts into my confidence. An ad-de-camp was pressed into the service and armed with a small musical box was made to hide under a particular armchair. While the company was at luncheon I retired to do the so-called "jubilee waltz," and when they were all assembled I marched in solemnly and slowly sat down on the armchair where the poor ad-de-camp was hiding his cramped limbs. To the delight and astonishment of every one the national anthem was heard gently tinkling forth. Every time I rose it stopped; every time I sat down it began again. I will laugh when I think of it and of the astonished faces about me. "Reminiscences of Lady Randolph Churchill" in Century.

A GREAT STATESMAN.

Humorous Incident of Gladstone's Rivalry With Disraeli. An anecdote of Gladstone at the time of his greatest rivalry with Disraeli is often retold. At a dinner party the subject of Judaism cropped up. "Admitted," said Gladstone, "that the Hebrews have given the world a philosopher in Spinoza, musicians in Mendelssohn and Meyerbeer, a poet in Heine, the fact remains that they have not produced a single statesman." There was silence for a moment. Every one knew of course that this was a direct allusion to Disraeli. Then one of the company stepped into the breach. "Mr. Gladstone," he said, "as a matter of fact the Hebrews have produced a statesman and one of the greatest the world has seen." The fighting instinct of Mr. Gladstone surged up at once. "May I ask, sir," he said pointedly, "who was this Hebrew statesman?" Every one, anticipating a more than lively scene, waited in tense expectation for the answer. It came in the quietest tones, "Moses, sir." Every one smiled, and Mr. Gladstone joined in the laugh.—Vienna Welt.

A Jewel Beyond Price.

Many years ago a Norwegian was taken to a big London hospital suffering from an illness which prevented him from earning his living. Sir Frederick Treves operated upon him and completely cured him of his trouble. Some weeks afterward the man called upon Sir Frederick at his private house, and, much to his surprise, presented him with a coin. At first Sir Frederick refused to take it, but the man would not be put off. "It is now three years since I left my native land," he said, "and before I came away my wife gave me this coin and told me never to part with it unless I was starving. It is not worth anything, but the value to me I cannot express. When I was in the hospital I made up my mind that you should have it. Since you cured me I have been starving, but I would not part with the coin because I wanted you to have it as a small return for saving my life." "What magnificent piece of jewelry," said Sir Frederick when he told the story, "could equal the value of that coin!"—London M. A. P.

The Attraction of Chess Problems.

The mere player who has never experienced the magnetic attraction of problems cannot fully realize the feeling of joy and satisfaction from solving some masterpiece, the work of a famous composer. There can be no doubt that solving problems, especially from diagrams, is an intellectual amusement and that the study of problems tends to accuracy of analysis, quickens the perception and strengthens the chess faculties generally and may occasionally impart some of those sparkling ideas which are so sadly neglected in ordinary play.—Strand Magazine.

Riot of Joy Proffered.

A tramp applied for help at a house in the country. The kind-hearted mistress made it a rule never to turn any away empty handed. "Here's a dime for you, my man," she said. "I'm not giving it to you for charity's sake, but merely because it pleases me." "Thankee," said the man, "but couldn't you make it a quarter and enjoy yourself thoroughly, mum?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Gloomy Hamlet.

"I went to the theater last night." "What did you see?" "A play called 'Hamlet.'" "How was it?" "Fair, only fair. A good, lively set-text would do it a world of good."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

An Easy Trick.

"My wife can tell what time it is in the middle of the night when it is pitch dark." "How does she do it?" "She makes me get up and look at the clock."—London-Fun.

Lame Shoulder Cured.

Lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and quickly yields to a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Mrs. F. M. McElwee, of Boistown, New Brunswick, writes: "Having been troubled for some time with a pain in my left shoulder, I decided to give Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial with the result that I got prompt relief." Accident at Cazadera Stops Operations of Hatchery.

W. W. Smith, superintendent of the State hatchery at Cazadera, has been forced to discontinue operations, and last Saturday turned out all of the salmon fry at the station, numbering about 500,000. These fish had been fed about six weeks and measured from one-half to two inches in length. One of the gates of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company was broken and this necessitated the water being shut out of the flume. During the season Mr. Smith took 2,500,000 Chinook salmon eggs and shipped 1,355,000 to the Salmon River Station, and the remainder were hatched at Cazadera.
