...pioneers, coming to this State in 1837. Mrs. McDaniel is the wife of Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel, who are now residing in Astoria, Ore. They were married in 1840. Their first child was born in 1841. They have four children, three sons and one daughter.

A part of the old Sulter place has been sold and the new owners will soon commence building. The new telephone line, which connects the Douglas settlement with the outside world, will soon be in operation. The wire and other fixtures have been purchased. About 12 miles of line will be constructed. Contrary to all reports, the new line will connect with the Estacada Telephone & Telegraph Company's lines at Estacada, instead of the Pacific States branch at Eagle Creek.

The new system of semaphore signaling on the O. W. P. line has been installed at this station, and the dispatcher's phone put in. The present system of train dispatching will be done away with the 15th. James McQuaid, Jr., left Sunday morning for Bremerton, Wash., where he has accepted a position in the Navy Yard at that place.

Miss Stella Warner, instructor of the young idea at the Eagle Creek school, District No. 17, reports the entering of three new pupils. This swells the attendance to 46. An entertainment will be given on the 14th by the members of the Presbyterian Church for the purpose of raising funds to pay the preacher.

Wilsonville. Dwight, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Seely, while skating on roller skates last night at the Wilsonville rink, fell and fractured one bone in the right fore-arm at the wrist. Dr. B. Giesy, of Aurora, was called and set the fracture. The boy is resting easy. Robt. Stahlmicker has just returned from a hospital in Portland, where he underwent a slight operation very successfully.

There is quite an epidemic of the gripe raging in this section. The Oregon Electric Railway Company is running cars regularly between Salem and Portland, with splendid success. Builds up waste tissue, promotes appetite, improves digestion, induces refreshing sleep, giving renewed strength and health. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35c. Tea or Tablets. Huntley Bros. Co.

Shubel. We may have two more sawmills here soon. William Moehne will put in a water-power mill, and the Shannon Bros. were looking at some timber the other day, and it is possible that they will move their mill here. D. F. Moehne is going to give up carrying the mill. He is going to put in a shingle mill, having bought Mr. Klinger's cedar, and with his own, he will have enough cedar to run a shingle mill quite a while.

One day last week the mail carrier could not make his round, as a number of trees had fallen across the road near Cummins' sawmill. Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Oss, of Sellwood, are here on a visit. While on the way here Mrs. D. F. Moehne and Mrs. Oss were thrown from the buggy, all because the lumber haulers will not turn to the right or left for any one. It seems to be the opinion of a good many farmers that it is about time to enforce the law and make everyone turn to the right.

E. F. Glinther is confined to the house with a sore ankle, which he sprained some time ago, and also has a swelling in his face. A light snow fell here Monday, but not enough to make coon hunting good, as was hoped for by some of the boys. Born, to the wife of Herman Moehne, on Friday, January 31, a daughter. Mrs. L. Moser nearly severed her finger with an axe one day last week.

Our telephone system seems to be all tied up, as it never was in worse shape than at present. What the trouble is no one seems to know, and no one to see that it is straightened out, but that that is "mutual," you know. For a while it seemed as though spring was here, as the robins and bluebirds have already returned, but how they were fooled last week. Rumor has it that there will be another wedding soon. How about it, August? Well, the horse is ready.

Eagle Creek. Our snowfall Monday was all to the good, while it lasted, but, of course, the rain had to come and spoil things when everybody was getting ready to have a sleigh ride. The decision in the case of Ballou vs. Van Duren was handed down by Justice A. E. Alspaugh in favor of the defendant, Van Duren. Ballou failed to make a good case by not being able to prove the ownership of the sheep in question. Mrs. J. Daniels had quite a bad fall

Many Small Acreage Tracts to Furnish Homes for Workingmen.

Surrounding Willamette is a large stretch of fertile soil. This section is especially convenient to Oregon City, an electric line connecting the two places, and this town being reached by an excellent county road with no grades of any consequence. Numerous employees of the Oregon City Mills will settle on small acreage tracts in this region, where the main items of living expense, such as butter, milk, eggs, vegetables, etc., need not be a drain on the workingman's wages.

The Oregon Iron and Steel Company has 3000 acres adjoining the Willamette townsite, which the company is planning to divide into two and a half acre tracts with the intention of placing them on the market. A force of surveyors and assistants are now on the ground laying out the tracts. As soon as these tracts come into the market they will be the means of bringing many settlers into this section.

Miss Capen's Section of Development League Achieves Marked Success. Miss Baker's Team Next.

Miss Bessie Capen's team of the Willamette Development League gave an entertainment last Friday night in the school house. Refreshments were served and the following program was rendered:

Song, Aldredge quartet; Whistling solo, Harold Swafford; song, school children; comic songs, Will Aldredge; recitation, "Old John W. Jones," Nellie Richardson. The school hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Mr. Buckner's family is still very sick. One of them has been sick for over 20 days. Some people in this country are in favor of a plank road. At the cost of a gravel road, it will be 50 years before we can have ten miles of good road.

O. S. Boyles is expecting to go South soon on a timber excursion. The present freeze is quite hard on winter oats. Some have a good volunteer stand of winter oats, though they are routful.

Colton. Mr. Leeson bought a horse from Lafferty's for $60, and one horse, wagon and a set of harness from Mr. Freeman for $145, which completed his team.

Mr. Anderson, one of the Swedish newcomers, has bought a horse for $100 from Mr. Cole, at Molalla. Mr. Berglund's horse that was hurt last June by the runaway, was improving slowly until lately; it broke its jaw and Mr. Berglund had to kill it.

Colton school started again February 2 after a month's vacation. The school has increased quite a lot in pupils during the last six months. If it keeps on like it has, they will have to enlarge the school house.

A. B. Countryman bought a lot of hay from Mr. Wilson in Elwood. Mr. Bonney, who had been in Oregon City, returned home last week.

Mr. Bergren was out looking for a cow at Springwater last Saturday. Lew Hubbard and Gustavus Gotteburg, who had been logging for Adkins, have given up their work and intend to go to Oregon City.

Will Dix was home to spend Sunday with his parents, and as he went back he stopped in at Freeman's to get his niece, Miss Sadie Freeman, who is to do the cooking for their sawmill at Shubel.

A dance was given at the Colton hall last Saturday. J. Putz was spending Sunday afternoon with Carl Stromgren.

Shubel. We may have two more sawmills here soon. William Moehne will put in a water-power mill, and the Shannon Bros. were looking at some timber the other day, and it is possible that they will move their mill here.

William Wright, until recently manager of the Oregon City Shoe Store, died at his home at Willamette Saturday morning of pneumonia. Mr. Wright was only sick a week, and his death came as a shock to his friends in this city. Mr. Wright has been in the shoe business in Oregon City for the past 12 years, and was a prominent member of St. Paul's Episcopal church, having sung in the choir of this church for many years.

Mr. Wright was born in England 63 years ago, and came to America in the year 1850, and lived with his parents in Kansas for a number of years. He came to Oregon after leaving Kansas and resided in Salem and Corvallis before coming here. Mr. Wright leaves a widow and two children, Ruth, aged 9 years, and Raymond, aged 4 years. The funeral was held from St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. F. T. Bowen. The pall bearers were T. J. Gary, R. D. Wilson, E. Capen, W. Harris, Ernest Mass, C. A. Nash.

Among the beautiful floral offerings were those sent by St. Paul's Guild of the Episcopal church and the Order of Pendo, of which organization the deceased was a member. The remains were interred in Mountain View Cemetery.

Meadowbrook. J. W. Thomas, of Molalla, was looking over some Meadowbrook real estate Saturday. Mr. Thomas thinks Meadowbrook is sure to be a business center as W. J. Bryan is to be president.

Mr. Mallat has moved to his home near Mullino, where he will engage in the real estate business. Mr. Walter Goelet, of Colton, made a business trip to the southern part of the town Saturday, and was detained till some time Sunday night. We are not informed as to the nature of his business.

Our real estate men are all taking a day off since the cold wave struck the country. Canby railroad is an assured fact, real estate in town is advancing very fast. C. L. Standing, of Broughtonburg, was in town Friday trying to purchase two corner lots on South Main Street. Not much farming being done in town this week.

which, of course, will be none too soon for the good of the service. Molalla has another school meeting today to adjust matters relative to a slip in some former proceedings that were enacted on the tax question where everybody is interested more or less.

Our community has had its visitation of the usual and uncommon winter's illness. C. I. Gipson went to Portland last week to be with his sister, Mary, during an operation for the relief of Catarrah. The operation seems to have been successful, and the patient was recovering at last account.

The caxily of the teal is being clipped by the several clippers, and the neatly pruned burr is being neatly packed for market in the Geo. H. Gregory teal factory these wintry days.

The Molalla condensed milk plant (that was to be) is not condensing, neither has the creamery materialized as yet. Are we only waiting for another instead to come our way.

Frank Everhart, of West Side, was over the first of the week, looking after some of the first men and women of creation.

Now is the coming time for we common people when we are to have our bi-annual recognition. We are soon to be known clear across a 60-foot street, and what a glorious thing it is to have the privilege of voting by guess anyway.

Needy. The cold weather still continues. Many are sick with bad colds. Avon Jesse, who has been attending school at Forest Grove, came home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Noe and daughter, Ethel, spent Sunday at J. D. Ritter's home. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ritter visited the latter's parents at Butteville Saturday. Edith Johnson spent Sunday with her parents here.

Miss Flora Spaglia is staying at Mr. Werner's. Miss Zoa Fish spent a few days of last week with friends at Molalla.

D. B. Yoder and R. W. Zimmerman transacted business in Portland Monday. Oglesby Brothers will give another big dance at the "Bowers" on February 14th. Everyone is cordially invited to come and have a good time.

Linna Wolf, of Marks Prairie, visited the Misses Ritter Saturday and Sunday. Miss May Price is spending a few days in Portland.

Sherwood. F. F. Froze, while attempting to board a street car in Portland a short time ago, wrenched his back and hip quite badly by the car starting just as he was in the act of boarding it.

Mr. Froze came home and has been laid up every since. He is also suffering with sciatic rheumatism in connection with the sprained back and hip.

Garfield News. The blustering weather we have been having the last three or four days looks like winter is here. Cold, freezing nights and bright, windy days.

Tim Linn and family have moved up to Linn's Mill from Oregon City. Mr. Linn expects to begin running the mill soon.

The Rawlins and Snyder families took advantage of the fine weather last Saturday and enjoyed an outing at Eagle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Epperson and family visited at the home of H. A. ntry and form a matrimonial "union." Success, Fred, no use living in single blessedness all your life, and your wife, Frank Oglesby is laid up with the gripe.

The Marks Prairie bachelors are not wearing crepe as yet, as their intended have not gone away yet. Say, Macksburg, since Canby has turned her 13-inch guns on you, we will wait and see what the result is, and see if the principles you stand for are all not shot to pieces. We will open up our batteries later and see if we can not put you out of business.

Some of the young ladies of Macksburg have given us several fine pointers which we shall use with good effect.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Stafford. In passing we will merely say that the weather is all that can be expected for February in Oregon.

A little wet snow fell Monday, but the native Oregonian fails to see the beautiful in it. Snow is all right on Mt. Hood, 89 miles away.

Mr. Kecke's people are getting better. Mr. Mays is about the same, altho' the swelling has gone out of his lower limbs and he has been able to lie down for the past few weeks; but the rheumatism in his left side and arm gives him almost constant pain.

The fall-sown grain looks well. Mr. Neeme is to have an auction next Saturday of personal property, farm machinery, etc. Anna, his little girl, is sick with sore throat and fever, the same as the other little girl was a week ago. A number of people about here have been having the same.

Mr. Waehle preached in English Sunday evening to a full house. For the past three years or more he has kindly preached once a month to those who do not Deutsch sprecken.

Mulino. Jat Mallatt and family have moved back into the neighborhood. Mrs. Sarah Skeen and Mrs. James, of Liberal; Mrs. Maple, Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Lee visited Mrs. J. Trullinger, Sunday.

I suppose the Liberal correspondent will say that the groundhog came out and saw his shadow, so we will now have some more winter.

Mr. Allen and family have moved into the neighborhood. Miss Spaulk and Miss Nada Lee called on Miss Vesta Churchill, Sunday.

Fred Churchill returned home Monday from an extended visit in Linn county. John Erickson has returned to Oregon City to work.

J. Trullinger is improving his farm by cutting brush and building fence. Tom Fish had the misfortune to have his hands badly cut while stretching barbed wire.

I think if the Macksburg correspondent gets very thirsty he will not need to go much further than to Canby to get a drink, as some men who come from there act as though they had the "blind staggers."

Mrs. Maple spent a few days in Portland last week, visiting her father, who is very poorly.

Liberal. We had about an inch of snow the first of the week. Olive Morey went to Portland to visit with her sister, Mrs. Osborn, during the school vacation.

B. Fredrich is hauling baled hay to Oregon City, and reports the roads in fair condition for hauling at this time of the year.

Kasper Zinger was seen with his girl on the road to Oregon City last Saturday.

Mrs. Fred H. Burns and Miss Florida Burns called on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morey last Saturday afternoon.

Arthur McKinster is working for William Morey. Miss Alice Moore went to Portland last Saturday.

The click of the gasoline engine is heard in this part of the country. Pete Schamel is sawing wood for Mr. Dunt.

Arthur McKinster took Clara Morey up to hand practice at Molalla last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Culvert and family, from Colorado, arrived in Canby last Friday and Mr. Lawless met them there, and brought them out to his place.

Mrs. Case has sold her carpet loom to Mrs. Hans Larson. Thad Stipp and family are all down with a gripe.

Clackamas. Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Wold gave a surprise party to their daughters, Miss Wold and Miss Cora Wold, last Thursday. About 22 guests were present.

The time was passed with music and games. Light refreshments were served and at a late hour the guests departed, having spent a very enjoyable evening. The guests were: Dina Dicklemann, Walter Foster, Frank Foster, Fred Eddie and Annie Rodarmel, Hardy and Opal Langenberg, Alta Rodarmel, Ora Amel, May Johnson, Jacob Young, Albert Moore, Roy La-tham, Mark and Carl Jones, Roy Amel, Mr. and Mrs. Hornberger and Mr. and Mrs. Strife.

The pond west of town was a merry scene Saturday and Sunday, as the same was frozen over sufficiently to afford good skating. A large crowd was there to witness and enjoy the sport.

Liberal. Farmers are taking a lay-off. Monday was a genuine snowy day. This cold snap made the farmer rustle in covering potatoes deeper; reports of a few being frozen. This cold rain is hard on stock.

S. Wright butchered hogs Monday. The boys were ready to coon hunt, but the snow went away Tuesday.

The Bob White quail come around to the barns and were very gentle during the cold weather. One band fed with the chickens.

The wood saws are busy in this section--one horse-power and two gasolines. What a rush seeding as soon as the
