Miss May Pool, a teacher in the Portland schools, returned to her home Sunday evening after a visit in this city with her sister, Mrs. John B. Leuthwaite.

H. A. Wolfner, one of Aurora's well known citizens, was in Oregon City on business Monday and while in this city also visited his sister, Mrs. Grant Dimick.

Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't cure them. Doan's Ointment cures itching, bleeding or protruding piles after years of suffering. At any drug store.

Walter Taylor, formerly employed in the Courier office, and who is now employed by the Southern Pacific in Portland, has recently been promoted, and is now a clerk in the general superintendent's office.

C. E. Gorbett, who is in the shingle timber business at Colton, was in Oregon City on business Monday. Mr. Gorbett reports that business is brisk in his line of business, and that there is at present a good demand for the timber he is dealing in.

Mrs. Wright, commonly known as "Grandma Wright," one of Clackamas County's well known pioneers, formerly of Wright's Springs, has returned to her home in Portland, after a brief visit with her grand-daughter, Mrs. Rea Norris.

If you haven't the time to exercise regularly, Doan's Regulents will prevent constipation. They induce a mild, easy, healthful action of the bowels without griping. Ask your druggist for them. 25c.

Albert Schilling, formerly of this city, but now of McMinnville, where he is in business, was among the passengers on the Forest Grove last week, and was also injured, but is reported to be recovering. Mr. Schilling also lost a sum of money in the wreck, but it was not recovered. Mr. Schilling is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Craissen, of the William Tell House.

WILLIE GETS A JOB

Well, I've hired out to run the 7th St. grocery. I start in as Office Boy. I have to help unpack the new goods, keep the shelves and boxes filled up, sweep out, clean the windows, run errands, deliver packages in the neighborhood and write ads. I guess I'll earn my five per all right, all right.

Honest, I think I'm going to like my job. I like the looks of the people around the store; the boss looks good to me and I've been out of a job so long I'm actually itching for a spell of work. The busy season is on us, and I see by the way the clerks are jumping around that I won't have any excuse for growing corn. Only forty minutes for lunch. But, say, they're calling me already.

J. E. Noble, of Amity, was in Oregon City Friday on a business trip.

E. L. Evanson, who resides near Redland, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. George W. Dixon, of Canby, was visiting friends in Oregon City a few days ago.

William Cox, of Barton, was among the well known farmers at the county seat Friday.

Miss Baker and Miss Ethison of this city were visiting friends at Pleasant Home Sunday.

Mrs. G. Rosenstein who has been very sick at her home on Eleventh and Main street, is improving.

Clark Williams of the Oregonian staff, Portland, was in Oregon City Friday, greeting his many friends.

Among the pensioners who have recently received an increase in pension, is Allen A. Stevens, of Oregon City, who now receives $12 per month.

Mrs. Charles Albright and daughters, Bess and Aline, have gone to Oak Grove where they are to remain for a few weeks before going to their home at Hood River.

Miss Winnie Roake and Miss Gibbons, who have been visiting friends in this city for a few days, have returned to Pleasant Home where Miss Roake is teaching school.

Miss Nieta Harding and Miss Edna Canfield, students of the University of Oregon, who have been visiting with their parents in this city for the past week, returned to Eugene Monday evening to resume their studies.

E. F. Burns, of Sandy, was in Oregon City Friday on business, and Saturday morning left on the steamer Rose City for California. Mr. Burns will go to Fresno, where he expects to visit with relatives for several months before returning to Sandy.

J. A. Hayden, who resides near Barlow, was in Oregon City Thursday on business and reports that the roads leading from this city to Barlow, are in a bad condition, and it is with much difficulty that farmers coming from the south end of the county are able to get to Oregon City.

John G. Wetle a married man with a wife and seven children, was shot and killed by policeman F. D. Heper at a lonely spot in Fulton Park in Portland, Wednesday night. Wetle and Heper were neighbors and the former attempted to play a practical joke on the Patrolman, holding him up with a pipe. The officer drew his revolver and fired, the bullet taking effect in Wetle's heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Richards, who arrived in Oregon City a few days ago from Adams, Eastern Oregon, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Wilson. Mr. Richardson is a nephew of Mr. Wilson, and he and his wife are on their way to Rosewood, Calif., where they will make their future home, and where Mr. Richardson will go into the drygoods business, having been in that business for the past five years in Eastern Oregon.

"Dick" Charms, who has been at Moscow, Idaho, with the University of Oregon Basketball team, returned to Oregon City Saturday and Sunday evening left with the team for Eugene to resume his studies at the University. The Oregon team played Moscow University in this city, Tuesday night, but lost in a very exciting game. Over 500 people were present to witness the game, which was one of the best played at that place this winter. They also played an exciting game at Portland Saturday night with the Multnomah Club. Next Saturday the Multnomah Club goes to Eugene to play the University boys.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ward, of Barton, were in Oregon City Friday on business. Mr. Ward is one of Clackamas County's enthusiastic nut raisers and has 50 acres in walnut trees, which are three years old. He has some choice varieties, and had many of the seeds, which some of the trees were raised from, brought from Europe. Mr. Ward has a larger acreage in trees but are young, only three years old, and when they are five years old he expects to harvest a good crop of the delicious fruit. There are many farmers in the county who are setting out walnut trees, as those who have trees that are bearing are having good success, and it goes to show that good nuts can be raised in this county as well as other counties in the state.

Please send me the carrot and sweet pea seeds. I would like to have them sent by mail.
I am in the Fifth grade and like my teacher very much. It is very kind of you to offer them and I am going to try to get the prize.
Your friend,
HAZEL BRIGGS.

Sellwood's postoffice robbery case has been about settled and the infants have been disposed of for the present by imposing a sentence on Claude Eggleston of five years at McNeil's Island, with a suspension so that he can take the Keeley cure previous to his sojourn there, and as to the others who were implicated in the case, Louis Gelbride, with Wayne and Anderson, who are now at McNeil's Island, "Toots" Bryant, "Big Johnny" and several others, were fined $150 by Judge Wolverton. This is the last of the Sellwood defendants whose cases have been awaiting the disposition of the court.

A sound body, a strong mind with high ideals is the motto now being followed by the boys of today, in our public schools, and they are reaching up to this high ideal by honest study and strict obedience.

THIRD SERMON

By Rev. T. F. Bowen, on "Repent and Be Baptized."

GIVEN SUNDAY EVENING AT ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

"Baptism for the Remission of Sins." "Arise and be baptized, and wash away thy sins."—Acts 22.

How does God convey to repentant souls the gift of pardon and grace? I need not take time to show our need of these blessings. Our own hearts tell us that. The burden of sin is upon us. People outside bible lands feel it, as well as those who have the light of revelation. This is the startling point of all religions—the consciousness of guilt and longing for deliverance. Neither need I show that we can be delivered from sin only by the grace of God. We all believe that "There is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved" but that of Jesus. The question is "How does God convey this grace to penitent souls? There are two answers, coming from Christians holding two different conceptions of Christianity—known as the sacramental and the non-sacramental. The former attaches a great deal of importance to the sacraments, giving them first place as means of grace. The other attaches little or no importance to them, and gives the first place to preaching and similar agencies. Ask a Christian worker representing any body of Christians holding the non-sacramental view of Christianity when a soul is brought into a state of salvation and he will reply, if I mistake not, it is, when under influence of a sermon or hymn or prayer or talk, it experiences conscious conversion. Ask a Churchman holding the sacramental view the same question, and he will answer without hesitation, "at its baptism." What spiritual warrant has he for so saying?

We notice first that in the new testament Baptism and Salvation are so connected as to represent them as two parts of one transaction. The one, Baptism, is the outward and visible sign; the other, Salvation, is the inward and spiritual grace. The soul then and there becomes a member of Christ—spiritual society, a citizen of His Kingdom, entitled to its benefits just as a foreigner becomes by naturalization an American citizen entitled to all the privileges of citizenship.

Let us study a few passages of scripture showing this. Here the preacher considered a number of scripture texts, among them the following: Acts 2:38. It was on the day of Pentecost. Peter was preaching the first Christian sermon. He charged his hearers with having with wicked hands crucified the Redeemer. "When they heard this they were pricked to the heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Acts 22:16. Saul of Tarsus while on his way to Damascus to persecute the Church was converted by a supernatural event. The risen Jesus called to him, saying, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?" Saul became a Christian believer from that moment. Three days later Ananias, one of the brethren, went to him to restore him to sight. After making known his mission he said to him, "And now why tarriest thou? Arise and be baptized and wash away thy sins." Here we see that though supernaturally converted it was still necessary for Saul to be baptized for the remission of sins.

In the New Testament it is taken for granted that those who have been baptized were at their baptism regenerated and brought into a shade of salvation.

Even when they fell into sin, as many of them did, they were regarded as Christians who had received the grace of God. They were warned and exhorted not to receive that grace in vain. To repent and to live worthy of their profession, but never to become Christians. In the fact that they regenerate the Apostle finds the most powerful motive to personal holiness. "What? Know ye not that ye are the temples of the Holy Ghost. Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit which are God's."

In no case do we find subbaptized persons addressed as regenerate, but whenever men enquire the way to pardon the answer is the same, "Repent and be baptized."

Neighborhood Favorite.
Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alterative tonic is sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones' drug store. 50c.

Young People to Give Entertainment.
The young people of the Zion Lutheran Church are planning to give an entertainment at Willamette hall on Thursday evening, February 27. The program will consist of dialogues, songs and instrumental music, which will be in the German language. This is the first entertainment of this character that has been given by this church and there is no doubt but that Willamette hall will be well filled on this occasion.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?
Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.
Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a booklet telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OREGON CITY

Minus Three.

Louis Nobel, a young man employed by the Home Telephone Company in this city, last Thursday learned something about the make-up of a dynamite cap. He was endeavoring to find out how the thing was made when it exploded, tearing away the first joints of the thumb and the two first fingers of the left hand. Dr. E. A. Sommer dressed the wound, and the young man is compelled, through his careless, inquisitive action, to go through life light-fingered.

The chief of police at Albany has received the following request from his counterpart in Eugene, who evidently is not a U. of O. graduate: "sir have you one in your employ of the name of O. R. DID you ever stop to compare the COURIER with other County papers? Consider a minute. There are 12 pages—each page containing 7 columns. This makes a column more on each page than you usually get in a county weekly or 12 columns, which is equal to two extra pages when comparing with a six column paper. Then the extra length gives half a page extra. So, summing up, the County Weekly as a rule gives you 8 pages each containing 6 columns. To get the comparative size of the COURIER you must add 6 1/2 pages—which is lacking only a page and a half of being just double the size of the ordinary 8-page weekly.

Only the loyal support that the COURIER has enjoyed throughout the County enables it to furnish such a large paper. If you are a reader of the paper call your neighbor's attention to the fact that Clackamas County has never before had so much in the way of a County Paper.

Remember the MAGAZINE SECTION—THE COMIC SUPPLEMENT. This alone is worth the price of the COURIER.

Send for sample copies of the COURIER—give us the name of your friend who should read the COURIER and we will send samples.
