CHILDREN'S MORALS
PREACHER AND TEACHER SPEAK TO LARGE AUDIENCE AT M. E. CHURCH.

TEACHING IN THE HOMES
There would not so many children go wrong if proper watchfulness and care was given by parents.

Sunday evening, at the Methodist church, a large congregation assembled to listen to the talk by the pastor, Rev. R. C. Blackwell, and County Superintendent T. J. Gary. It is becoming quite noticeable that there is quite a considerable number of school children, with, perhaps, a preponderance of young girls who have from time to time received marks at their schools that were not along the line of advancement, and which was thought to have been due to a growing habit of inattention to their studies, and the insatiable desire to have a good time when out of school, regardless of whether their lessons were perfect or not. Due to the thought, largely, the severe Sunday evening was brought about.

The pastor spoke along the line of the value of good teachers and spoke highly of the ones that have the children before them a large part of the year in this city, that good teachers could not be adequately paid. To the parents of the extreme care and watchfulness that should be diligently exercised that children should not go wrong, as many young ones are led astray against their will and entirely unaware to themselves. The necessity of enforcing discipline, and not relying on what might be heard from the younger ones, but to take an interest in the matter and talk more freely with the teachers and superintendents. Superintendent Gary talked along the line that the teaching should begin at home, the chief cause of disobedience coming from the lack of proper watchfulness and training at the home. Boys called bad, are not always bad, and are more often misunderstood, trouble often arising from the fact of some physical defect or social condition, which, if studied by the parent or teacher, could be overcome and the child be made to understand his own condition and straighten the matter out to the satisfaction of himself and to the gratification of those with whom he has to deal with in the years of usefulness. He cited instances in his own experience of boys who had the natural qualities that go to make up strong men were often misjudged and their reputation taken from them because they were misunderstood. He stated that in rare instances he believed that corporal punishment was the proper course better than to send the boy out into the streets, with the result we see so much around us, believing in the administration of such only in extreme cases and as a last resort. Teachers are inadequately paid, or improperly. He called to mind one teacher who had resolved on leaving the salary she deserved, and that teachers should be paid according to their worth.

NEW YORK NEWSPAPER
DIRECTIONS TO PREPARE SIMPLE HOME MIXTURE.

GIVES DOSE TO TAKE
Tells You How to Overcome Rheumatism With Simple Recipe, Which is Easily Mixed.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:
Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.
Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.
He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.
This harmless mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.
Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

Woodburn's progressive citizens have subscribed $11,000 for a cannery. Work on Eugene's new depot will commence within the next fortnight. The improvements, including the new depot, will cost about $40,000.
Henry Wilber's store at Eagle Creek was destroyed by fire Tuesday night of last week. The big stock of general merchandise was a total loss. The postoffice was kept by Mr. Wilber in the store, and everything belonging to it was burned. The insurance amounted to about $1000 and the loss will be more than twice that.

While Clinton Kurtz was absent from his home at Salem last week, thieves gained entrance to the house and appropriated several hundred dollars' worth of household effects, including about 30 pairs of fruit, two oak rockers, 13 sofa pillows, eight silver napkin rings, two feather beds, comforters, quilts, etc. The police are working industriously on the case, but have no theory to offer as to the probable identity of the culprits.

New Real Estate Office.
C. D. Robeson, who several months ago was connected with the real estate firm of Robeson & Corbett, has opened up a new real estate office in the law office of Dimick & Dimick, and is prepared to sell farm and city property. Mr. Robeson, while in the real estate business in this city, has proved to be a courteous and enterprising man, and we would bespeak for him a share of public patronage.

Six Knots to Tie.
The week has brought six jobs for Cupid, as licensees to wed have been issued to the following: Samuel Bell and Mrs. Iona Simms, Wm. Meyers and Miss Margaret Pigott, O. B. Brookman and Miss Louise Cain, Roy C. Woodard and Miss Adella White, F. N. Wolfer and Miss Ella C. Carl, P. J. Schneider and Miss Maudie Bunne-meyer.

That there is less graft and business dishonesty in America today than there was in Washington's time is the opinion of Dr. R. H. McArthur, of New York. We are a little shy of data on graft at that time, but have in mind one incident only—when George tried to do some grafting on a certain cherry tree, and by a mis-cut fell the tree.

Democratic Banquet.
Thursday evening the Democrats were assembled in banquet at Willamette hall. The Courier goes to press the same evening and is, therefore, not able to have an account in this issue—but wait, we may have a report of the doings next week.

O. W. P. CONTENDS COMMISSION HAS NO AUTHORITY.
Traffic on Oak Grove and Milwaukie Lines Does Not Compare With Lens.

Judge William Galloway, of the Circuit Court Monday granted the Oregon Water Power—Railway Company a temporary writ of injunction restraining the Railroad Commission from putting into immediate effect its recent order fixing the rate of fare over the company's Oregon City line between Milwaukie and Portland at 5 cents, and between Oak Grove and Portland at 10 cents, with transfer privileges to intercity lines, the same as in effect on the Lents line. The data for hearing testimony upon the case was set for March 12.

The company, which was represented by Attorney Franklin T. Griffith, of Oregon City, contends that the commission has no authority to correct discrimination in rates between localities; that the amount of traffic on the Oak Grove and Milwaukie lines does not compare with that upon the Lents line in volume, and the company cannot afford to maintain the same schedule of rates. Many authorities were cited by both sides, and when the case comes on for trial it is expected that a lively legal battle will take place.
