MATTERS GET WARMER

Holder, of Estacada Makes Fourth for Assessor-One So Far for Treasurer.

John F. Clark, of West Oregon City, filed his announcement Tuesday as candidate for Justice of the Peace for District No. 4, on the Republican tick-et. Mr. Clark is president of the Clackamas Abstract and Trust Company, and a practicing attorney of notable worth and in his statement says if elected he will give the business of the office his prompt attention. Mr. Clark is worthy of any ofthe voters of the county might

The fourth Republican candidate to announce for County Assessor is W. H. Holder, a well-to-do and prominent farmer, who resides about three miles east of Estacada. Mr. Holder has been a resident of this county for several years and has lived in the state nearly twenty years. He is one of the leaders in the fruit industry of and is enjoying the best of health.

Mr. Holder believes that a public office is a public trust, and that honesty and impartiality must be followed to the letter in the conducting of the county affairs in

It is generally understood in the affairs of our County Treasurer that when they are conducted in a satisfactory manner as they have been by the present incumbent of that office, J. C. Paddock, that he should be given a second term, i appears that Mr. Paddock will have a walkaway in the game. Mr. Paddock has announced his candidacy on the Republican ticket and is receiving the congratulations of a very large number of vot. a tendency to bring the teachers and ate law. Clackamas County Pioneer Returns From Southern Oregon.

David Robeson, one of the old pio neers of the state, who has been spending the past four months with his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Garrett, at Buncam, near Jacksonville, returned to Oregon City Thursday, and after visiting with his son, C. D. Robeson, the real estate man, left Friday afternoon for his home at Milk Creek near Colton, where he has a married daughter living, and where he expects to spend the summer, returning to Southern Oregon in the fall.

Mr. Robeson's place at Colton is one of the best in that section, and consists of 80 acres, 40 acres being under the plow, and large portion of the remainder is in fruit. Mr. Robeson was for a number of years in the nurs-ery business, having been connected with the Lewelling nursery at Mil-waukie in the early days. His fruit trees are all well taken care of and produce excellent crops each year. He has owned the place for 25 years.

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING.

The Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Warner on Eighth and Madison streets Wednesday afternoon and much interest was shown by the nembers. It was Reciprocity Day, and the Humane Society was repu by the president, Miss Anita Hens ley McCarver; the Rose Sociey, by Mrs. J. W. Norris; the Mothers' Club, of Gladstone and Parkplace, by Mrs Chomas Gault

Miss McCarver told of the organization of the Humane Society in this city ten years ago, and of the good that is being acomplished by the so-clety in the prevention of the cruelty of animals, and it was through the untiring efforts of the organization that the two drinking fountains were erected in Oregon City, which were long needed. The dues of this or-ganization ar so small that all, who are interested in the protection of oor dumb beasts could belong, and nelp in the good work it is doing.

Many cases of cruelty to mals have been reported to the humane society of this city, and the of icers have done their duty in bringng the owners to justice. Miss Mc Carver has been president of the Humane Society since its organization in this city, and through her earnest work she has made a most efficient nember and president Mrs. Gault, of Gladstone, followed Miss McCarver with a talk on the work of the Mothers' Club, and what t has acomplished. The Mothers' Club is an organization of women of ladstone and Parkplace, and through its organization a great deal has been accomplished in these two suburbs of Oregon City. The members have work ed diligently for the past five years, and since its organization it has had

Mrs. W. S. U'Ren, president of the Womens' club, talked on the work of the club in an entertaining manner. Mrs. U'Ren spoke on the future plans of the society in having installed in Oregon City a public room for visitors and told of other plans that would be brought up later for discussion by the members of the organization. Mrs. U'Ren's remarks were well received.

The matter of calling the park at the head of Seventh street stairs Mc-Laughlin Park, was brought up discussion, and a petition was circulated which was signed by the members, and this will be presented to Mayor Carll and the councilmen at the next meeting of the city council

WATCH YOUR TONGUE.

If Furred and Coated, It Is a Warning of Trouble to Come.

When it is the morning after the light before, you do not have to look at your tongue to know that the stomach is upset, the head is aching with a dull rythm, and that all the world looks black and dreary.

It may have been lobster Newburgh, Velsh rarebit or some other tasty dish that looked much better at night than the morning after. There is no seed to look at the tongue thermome er then for symptoms of trouble. You naturally go to your box of Mi-o-na tomach tablets, and with one of the ittle relievers bring joy and gladness o the physical system.

The real time to watch the tongue all of the time, If it is coated with white fur, or possibly with dark rimmings, even though the stomach does not tell you by the acute pains of indigestion that it needs help, yet he coating shows that you are ng good headway in his campaign for ting into a bad way and that there is need of Mi-o-na. Mi-o-na is so positive, so sure, so reliable in its curative action upon the stomach that Howell & Jones, the lonever been allied wih any of the fac-tions. > That our American rorests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This informaimparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

> 000 Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them; and in sentingarian of this conviction, he points with pride the almost marvelous cures effected by his "folden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most officient storage to the liver invisoration, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspersia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

0 0 Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled curses it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as is amply attested by thousants of unbackled testimonials contributed by cateful patterns who have been cured by the featurnal patterns who have been cured by it of catarrhal nelvic drains, painful periods, irregularities, prolansus and other displacements, caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

000 Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on such bottle-wrapper. RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations. If you have charity, love and benevelence toward your fellow man, you possess all that is essential to eternal life.-Cardinal Gibbons, Roman Catholic, Baltimore. The Destiny of Man.

Life is a great and noble calling, not a mean shuffle, not a groveling pretense, but an elevated and lofty destiny.-Rev. S. P. Cadman, Congregationalist, Brooklyn.

Man's Understanding. God has given us understanding to distinguish between good and evil, and in this lies man's pre-eminence over the rest of animal creation.-Rev. Mad-Ison C. Peters, Baptist, New York,

Man's Motive. No man acts without motives. The higher, the nobler, our purpose the stronger our energy. The higher the prize the more we strive to get.-Cardinal Gibbons, Roman Catholic, Balti-

God's Word. When God says a thing, he will surely bring it to pass. He is never at a loss for instruments to fulfill his decrees. He maketh the wrath of men to praise him .- A. Lincoln Moore, D. D., Baptist, New York City.

Christian Character. The more Christlike a man becomes the more manly be becomes. A Christian is just a man at his best. The Christian character is only completed human character,-Dr. T. Calvin Mc-Clelland, Presbyterian, Brooklyn.

Religion and Reliability. Religion should not depend on tradition. It will not do to risk eternal things on hearsay. Our religion is a religion of a book. It does not rest on unintelligible impulses and casual utterances.-Rev. R. B. Hull, Baptist Brooklyn.

Lofty Ideals. Our constant aim in life must be a ceaseless struggle to realize within ourselves the ideal manhood. Without this life will end disastrously. Men and nations without lofty ideals fail of their destiny. - Rev. G. B. Vosburg,

Baptist, Denver. The World's Conquerors. All along life's ways quietly, unknown of us often, unheralded, in simple daily trueness of living, move the real conquerors of the world, for whose brows the angels are weaving garlands from the leaves of the tree of life.-Rev. John B. Clark, Presbyterian, Detroit. Temptation and Sin. Temptation is not sin. Temptation is outward solicitation striking hands with internal desire. The will, the judiciary of the heart, decides whether temptation shall become sin. If the will casts temptation out, victory is gained.-Rev. C. L. Laws, Congregationalist, Baltimore. Heaven. The new Jerusalem is heaven brought down to earth. Heaven is essentially a life, formed in obedience to certain great spiritual principles. But principles shine forth in the other world, so that we shall know each other there as we really are .- Rev. L. P. Mercer, Swe-denborgian, Cleveland, O. Tranquillity. Tranquillity, like any form of happiblessings and benefits with others-indeed, only thus ourselves secure them. None the less enjoyment lies within, is internal and individual, Tranquillity comes to no human life because sur roundings are propitious.-Rev. Henry Elliott Mott, D. D., Presbyterian, Elizabeth, N. J.

The Soul's Summer. The heart brings men together into loving fellowship. It is the summer of the soul. In its gentle radiance all sweet and beautiful things come to their lovely perfection. There the graces flourish in all their charm. Where the heart is there men love to dwell. The great hearted man is of necessity beloved .- Rev. G. K. Morris, Methodist, Cleveland, O. Power of Sympathy. The secret of the power of some souls on the life of the world lies in the fact pathy in overflowing measure. It is D. C. LATOURETTE, President not genius or intellect or power or even beauty of form or speech that draws mankind to the feet of these great souls. The world admires genlus, it respects intellect, it obeys power, it finds joy in beauty, but it loves only love and only the love that is expressembracing sympathy.-Rev. Percy Trafford Olton, Episcopalian, Greene, N. Y.

Children In the Church. An alarming evil today in many churches is the absence of children from the religious services. Some members go so far as to even boast of the fact that children are not among their worshipers. What must be the inevitable results from such conditions? With the present tendency of many to be satisfied with an occasional visit upon the public means of grace, what of the future church? Unless children are early brought into the covenant relation with God and unless they are, like the boy Jesus, early found in the temple of God praising and serving him, unless in childhood they form the habit of worshiping God in the sanctuary, they will not be apt to form the habit later on. Make room for the child in the pew if you want the child in the church when he has grown older. Bring the child into the church and let the church throw her arms of love and protection about the child by admitting him to covenant relations. A child may be too young to pray, but none is too young for Jesus to put his hands upon it and bless and pray for it.-Rev. L. M. Zimmerman, Lutheran, Baltimore.

Just Found It Out. Fish Warden Brown, of Astoria, has ust made the startling discovery at Mulino, that the Howard Flouring mill that has been using the water of the creek for over 50 years is a men-ace to the fishing industry, and that it interferes with the logging operations and Tuesday served warrants on the owners of the mill notifying them that they must not use the wa-ter from the creek for power. The mill is a small affair and it is not practical to run by wteam power, and this fake move on the part of the fish warden ostensibly for the protection of fish in the stream is causing Mr. Howard considerable trouble. Ask For Our Large Clubbing List
