Mrs. Walter Dimick, who has been spending several days in Portland with relatives, returned home Sunday morning.

The Oregon City Courier and American Farmer and Metropolitan Magazine—for one year—all for $1.75. Subscribe now.

Mrs. Harley Stevens and sons, Harley and Henry, of Portland, spent Sunday in Oregon City with Mrs. Stevens' mother, Mrs. Henry Meldrum.

Mrs. James Burdette and children, of Chemawa, arrived in Oregon City Sunday morning, and are visiting with Mrs. Burdette's mother, Mrs. Charles E. Myers, of Mount Pleasant.

Good Friday services in St. John's church are as follows: Good Friday services known as the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified at 9 o'clock and sermon on the "Passion and Death of Christ," by Father Hillbrand.

Mrs. Sadie White, of Portland, spent Sunday with Miss Vera Caulfield. Mrs. White expects to leave for Alaska the first of June, where she and her mother, Mrs. Ellen F. Martin, have property interests. Mrs. Martin will accompany her daughter to Alaska.

Mrs. Jack Marrs, of this city, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. B. W. Raney, at Gresham, has returned home.

W. W. Alldredge is gaining in health the last few days, and is now able to be taken in a wheel chair and enjoy the warm sun.

C. J. Raney and family have gone to Aurora, where they will make their home. Mr. Raney formerly resided near that place before coming to Oregon City.

A. H. Newman and W. A. Wood have together purchased a farm of about 160 acres near Wilhoit Springs, and have moved their families to their new home.

F. W. Layman, of Stafford, purchased two beautiful building lots at Gladstone last week from Judge T. F. Ryan, and has commenced the construction of an eight-room house.

John B. Fairclough, came in from the Ogie Mountain Mines Friday evening, and reports that the prospects are very bright. The tunnel is nearly completed, and as soon as Mr. Fairclough returns to the mines the new stamp mill will be started. Mr. Fairclough reports about one and one-half inches of snow in the Ogie Mountain district, but the weather has been so they could work in the mines during the winter.

Born, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds, near Maple Lane.

R. S. Coe passed through Oregon City Tuesday on his way to Estacada, where he went on political business. Mr. Coe will return to his home at Canby on Friday morning.

Tom Gerber, who has been manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company in this city, for some time, has gone to The Dalles, where he has taken a position in the Pacific States Telephone Company of that city.

L. H. Newman with his family arrived in Oregon City Tuesday and will take up his abode here. Mr. Newman comes from the South and has brought a car of household effects together with some cows and horses.

J. Levitt, the clothier, who has been in California for the past ten days, where he went on a business trip, returned home Saturday morning. While in California he spent some time in Sacramento and California, and says that he is glad to get back to old Oregon.

James Bruner, a young man employed at the paper mills on the West Side, met with an accident while working among the machinery, and had the thumb and three fingers of the right hand taken off. Dr. Carl dressed the injured hand, and the patient is getting along nicely.

S. Rosenstein has just received by express, sample Ladies' Suits which he is offering at one-third regular price. See them quick.

George Donaberg, of Vancouver, was one of the Oregon City visitors, who came to witness the baseball games Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. L. L. Hewitt, formerly of this place, but now of Amity, is in Oregon City, and will remain until Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Hoak and children, of Portland, spent Sunday in Oregon City, the guests of Mrs. E. J. Marshall.

Owen Parry, one of the prominent farmers of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City on a business trip Tuesday morning. Mr. Parry has been farming at Beaver Creek for the past 12 years, and his place consists of about 80 acres, a large portion of it being under cultivation. He has also been in the wood business for the last four years.

Mrs. John McDonnell and daughter, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Baker, of Sixth and Water street, returned to their home in Tacoma, Wash., Sunday evening. Mrs. McDonnell formerly lived in Oregon City, and resided on the West Side until about two years ago, when the family moved to Tacoma.

A few sample Ladies' Suits just received by express. Offering at one-third off. S. Rosenstein.

They are well pleased with their new home in Clackamas county.

One-third off on a few sample Ladies' Suits, just received at S. Rosenstein's.

F. W. Sprague, of Redland, was in Oregon City Saturday on a business trip. Mr. Sprague has rented his 337 acre farm and has gone into the lumber business, having purchased a sawmill at Redland. The mill is situated in the midst of a fine belt of timber, and there will be about fourmillion feet of timber in close proximity to Mr. Sprague's mill. The mill is situated on what is known as the Morgan place, and was purchased from Frank White, who has moved to Oregon City. Mr. Sprague says that the timber in the Redland country is excellent, and is chiefly fir. Mr. Sprague has been a farmer all of his life and and near Redland, and makes the change to have his children where they can attend school.

HARRY S. MOODY.

It is generally conceded that Mr. Moody will be the nominee of the Republican party for Assessor.

A vote for him means a total break-up of the old machine and political ring in Clackamas County.

The riddance of political hacks and hangers-on; The assessment of all property at its true cash value as required by law, the railroads will not be assessed in Multnomah County at $47,000 a mile and in Clackamas County at only $19,000 a mile;

That the Assessor's office shall not be a family snap; That the office will be run, and the assessments made on the best judgment of the assessor, and not at the instance of the corporation attorneys of Oregon City;

The carrying out of the rule adopted for many years by Clackamas County, that two terms is the safe limit to keep any man in a county office.

Verein's Meeting. The Deutch Verein society met Sunday at Knapp's Hall at which time a most interesting program was given by the members, and which was as follows: Overture, orchestra. Busch-Woodford and Schoenhals; recitation, Miss Anna Dambach; violin and piano duet, Masters Garfield Schwartz and George Klemmen; comic German dialogue, John Acker and Ed. Miller; recitation, John Villibus; music, orchestra; recitation, Miss Marie Rapp; song, Miss Clara Nobel and Master Gus Schnoor; closing address, President Schnoor. After next meeting, the second Sunday in May, the Verein will meet at Schnoor's grove, Willamette, until the fall, when the society expects to meet in its own hall to be completed by that time.

Easter Service by Sunday School. The Parishion Sunday School will hold Easter service in the assembly hall in the school building at that place next Sabbath at 3 p. m. The evening service will be held at the church at eight o'clock and will include a most interesting Easter sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Riggs.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF OREGON CITY DISTRICT OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY WILL

CONVENE IN OREGON CITY

April 22d—When Noted Field Workers and Enthusiastic Sunday School Workers Will be Present.

The District Sunday School convention for Oregon City District of Clackamas County is scheduled to be held at the Methodist Church in this city, Wednesday, April 22. State Field Worker, C. A. Phelps will be present and give a talk before the convention on the work throughout the state covering the State Association work and will give many side lights on ways and means of keeping and increasing Sunday School attendance and many advantageous steps for superintendents and teachers.

It is also anticipated that A. H. Cross, a noted Sunday school worker of Cleveland, Ohio, will be present. Mr. Cross attended the County Convention last November and gave a most practical and interesting lecture and the District Convention is making a strong endeavor to secure his presence for the April meeting. Special music is being prepared and considerable local talent will be present and assist in making the convention a grand success. Delegates from out of town are to be entertained by loyal Sunday school workers in Oregon City.

HOW IS YOUR STOMACH

Easy Way to Strengthen It and Get Well.

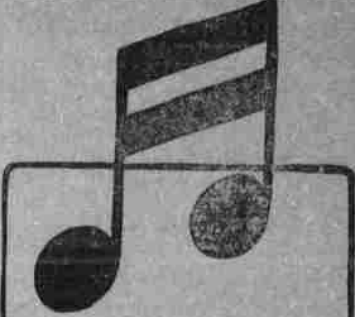

A good digestive system, one that acts so that you do not know that you have a stomach, is God's birthright to every man—to every woman.

If digestion is weak, if you are bloated, if digestion is weak, if food turns into gas, if you suffer after eating, if you are sleepless, nervous and out of sorts—then the stomach is diseased and prompt action should be taken.

W. A. Egan, a well-known builder in Syracuse, tells an easy way to strengthen the stomach and get well when he writes: "Ml-o-na Stomach Tablets have done more for me in one week than all the doctors the two years I was under their care. Thanks to Ml-o-na, I can work once more, the first time in over a year." It is an easy thing to strengthen the stomach and cure digestion by using Ml-o-na. Get a 50-cent box from Howell & Jones with their guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it.

Bancis and Talquin.

The Imported Percheron Stallions will make the season of 1908 at my farm, one and one-half miles East of Molalla, except Friday and Saturdays of each week, when they will be at Marquam. Terms—to insure $16.00. W. A. SHAVER, Owner.
