

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

BUENA VISTA

Mrs. Sturcheol and Miss Lulu Miller returned to Portland on Monday last.

We had the pleasure of listening to some very fine talking machine music on Tuesday evening last at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. January.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell were callers here last Sunday.

The separation of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bonner came as a great surprise to their many friends here as both were highly respected and well thought of by every one they were acquainted with.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell were callers here last Sunday.

The separation of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bonner came as a great surprise to their many friends here as both were highly respected and well thought of by every one they were acquainted with.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell were callers here last Sunday.

The separation of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bonner came as a great surprise to their many friends here as both were highly respected and well thought of by every one they were acquainted with.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell were callers here last Sunday.

CARUS

It does one good to run about the country occasionally and see how things are moving.

We are sorry to hear Jake Donelson is down with the measles.

Mrs. Judith Yoder and Emma made a trip to Aurora Monday.

Needy and Marquam played a game at Marquam Sunday with a score of 6 to 7 in favor of Needy.

Hubbard will cross bats on the Needy diamond on the 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ritter, Mrs. Reams, Dotson and Marth Reams were visitors at Jake Ritter's Easter.

Mrs. Emil Montandon is quite ill with the mumps.

Quite a large audience greeted the Parkland Club when they presented the drama "The Old Dairy Homestead."

The annual stockholders meeting of the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company will be held on Monday, May 4.

Francis J. M. Griffith and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown were married on April 12.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

Grass is growing, fruit trees are blooming and the promising time of the season is right here.

Jacob Minder has purchased part of the Traxite place which joins his farm.

Much interest is being taken in the initiative measures especially the tax law.

Clackamas Grange 298 met as usual at Grange Hall last Saturday evening.

Bro. David Croyle was obligated in the third and fourth degrees, Communications from Legislative Committee of the State Grange relating to certain bills before Congress.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

A home program as outlined by the April number of the Grange Bulletin was given.

The children and some of the young people were having a fine time in the kitchen coloring Easter eggs and preparing them for the feast which followed the program.

After the recess all sang "The Old Folks at Home," Grange then adjourned in due form.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnston on April 13, a baby girl.

The boys of Clackamas school will give an entertainment next Friday evening, April 24 at the Grange Hall.

Admission 10 cents.

Miss Isabella Mather, who has been seriously ill for two weeks, is slowly improving.

E. B. Kelly recently sold his property East of town to parties from Portland.

J. R. Landis is building a house for Mr. Goumans, a little North of the Clackamas cemetery.

Charlie Roadarmel made a brief visit home last week.

C. O. Hayward and family of Portland were visiting their relatives here, last week.

and music were the amusements of the evening, lunch was served at a late hour and everyone returned home wishing Mr. Wolfer many more happy surprises.

SHERWOOD

Sherwood White Sox walked over the Portland Greys yesterday in fine shape 1 to 4.

The Greys were trembling with fear of the pitcher from the start.

O. Told their last years pitcher is not to be sneered at and it did not take the Greys long to learn the art of dodging instead of striking.

One run was made by an error, but the White Sox did not want to do them up too bad as they wish games in the future.

The showers only delayed the game a few moments.

Mrs. Ed Higgins, of Portland, is visiting old friends here this week.

Mr. Wifris was kicked in the back Saturday afternoon by a horse.

Dr. Strickland was summoned and made the patient feel as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

Mrs. Laura Tompson, of Dallas, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Dustin, this week.

The Duncan Bros., of Molalla, but recently of the State University at Eugene, were guests at the Burgoyne home last Friday night.

Jack Slaughter was laid up several days the past week with a badly swollen forearm.

Oliver Ferguson visited relatives at Barlow over Sunday.

Messrs. Fred Dose of Woodburn, and Harry Blair, of Canby, two noted "spud" dealers, "liked it" to Canby Saturday evening on account of No. 17 being several hours late.

George H. Brown, another "spud" raiser and dealer counted the ties from Oregon City to New Era on the same occasion, reaching the depot about three minutes after the train had passed.

A bad day on spud men.

Burt McArthur and children drove to Milwaukee Sunday and spent the day with his sister, Mrs. Jas. Pitts and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradt spent Sunday with relatives at Mt. Angel.

Aug. Bremer, of Twilight Hill, carried a string of 42 fine catfish home Saturday.

Mrs. Dustin is having her building on Mill street and R. R. avenue torn down this week and probably will replace it with a 5-story steel structure of modern equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marts visited with Mr. Marts' father and mother last Saturday and Sunday.

The dance at Louis Daugherty's last Saturday night was quite a success.

There will be a concert given in Thompson's Hall Saturday evening, April 25.

We are sorry to hear Jake Donelson is down with the measles.

Mrs. Judith Yoder and Emma made a trip to Aurora Monday.

Needy and Marquam played a game at Marquam Sunday with a score of 6 to 7 in favor of Needy.

Hubbard will cross bats on the Needy diamond on the 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ritter, Mrs. Reams, Dotson and Marth Reams were visitors at Jake Ritter's Easter.

Mrs. Emil Montandon is quite ill with the mumps.

Quite a large audience greeted the Parkland Club when they presented the drama "The Old Dairy Homestead."

The annual stockholders meeting of the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company will be held on Monday, May 4.

Francis J. M. Griffith and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown were married on April 12.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

Grass is growing, fruit trees are blooming and the promising time of the season is right here.

Jacob Minder has purchased part of the Traxite place which joins his farm.

Much interest is being taken in the initiative measures especially the tax law.

Clackamas Grange 298 met as usual at Grange Hall last Saturday evening.

Bro. David Croyle was obligated in the third and fourth degrees, Communications from Legislative Committee of the State Grange relating to certain bills before Congress.

man was called Monday and reports Mr. Haugham's fever at a temperature of 102.

Mrs. H. P. Wink and son Arthur attended church in Oregon City Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Higgins, of Portland, is visiting old friends here this week.

Mr. Wifris was kicked in the back Saturday afternoon by a horse.

Dr. Strickland was summoned and made the patient feel as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

Mrs. Laura Tompson, of Dallas, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Dustin, this week.

The Duncan Bros., of Molalla, but recently of the State University at Eugene, were guests at the Burgoyne home last Friday night.

Jack Slaughter was laid up several days the past week with a badly swollen forearm.

Oliver Ferguson visited relatives at Barlow over Sunday.

Messrs. Fred Dose of Woodburn, and Harry Blair, of Canby, two noted "spud" dealers, "liked it" to Canby Saturday evening on account of No. 17 being several hours late.

George H. Brown, another "spud" raiser and dealer counted the ties from Oregon City to New Era on the same occasion, reaching the depot about three minutes after the train had passed.

A bad day on spud men.

Burt McArthur and children drove to Milwaukee Sunday and spent the day with his sister, Mrs. Jas. Pitts and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradt spent Sunday with relatives at Mt. Angel.

Aug. Bremer, of Twilight Hill, carried a string of 42 fine catfish home Saturday.

Mrs. Dustin is having her building on Mill street and R. R. avenue torn down this week and probably will replace it with a 5-story steel structure of modern equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marts visited with Mr. Marts' father and mother last Saturday and Sunday.

The dance at Louis Daugherty's last Saturday night was quite a success.

There will be a concert given in Thompson's Hall Saturday evening, April 25.

We are sorry to hear Jake Donelson is down with the measles.

Mrs. Judith Yoder and Emma made a trip to Aurora Monday.

Needy and Marquam played a game at Marquam Sunday with a score of 6 to 7 in favor of Needy.

Hubbard will cross bats on the Needy diamond on the 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ritter, Mrs. Reams, Dotson and Marth Reams were visitors at Jake Ritter's Easter.

Mrs. Emil Montandon is quite ill with the mumps.

Quite a large audience greeted the Parkland Club when they presented the drama "The Old Dairy Homestead."

The annual stockholders meeting of the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company will be held on Monday, May 4.

Francis J. M. Griffith and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown were married on April 12.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

Grass is growing, fruit trees are blooming and the promising time of the season is right here.

Jacob Minder has purchased part of the Traxite place which joins his farm.

Much interest is being taken in the initiative measures especially the tax law.

Clackamas Grange 298 met as usual at Grange Hall last Saturday evening.

Bro. David Croyle was obligated in the third and fourth degrees, Communications from Legislative Committee of the State Grange relating to certain bills before Congress.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

Grass is growing, fruit trees are blooming and the promising time of the season is right here.

Jacob Minder has purchased part of the Traxite place which joins his farm.

Much interest is being taken in the initiative measures especially the tax law.

Clackamas Grange 298 met as usual at Grange Hall last Saturday evening.

Bro. David Croyle was obligated in the third and fourth degrees, Communications from Legislative Committee of the State Grange relating to certain bills before Congress.

of the neighborhood.

H. Roger has been confined to the house for several days with the mumps, but is recovering.

John L. Gard was in Oregon City Saturday on business.

Everhart & Co., intend to install a shingle mill soon at their saw mill, known as the Superior Lumber Co.

M. Beck was an Oregon City visitor last Friday.

Most of the saw mills in this neighborhood have temporarily shut down on account of no orders.

A very pleasant day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Boyles last Sunday in honor of their son Archie, it being his 19th birthday.

A bountiful dinner was served and the day was spent with music and games.

Quite a number of his friends and young folks were present and were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. C. Ramsay, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Boyles, Miss Clara Raney, Miss Rachel Boyles, Miss Orla and Myrtle Boyles, Messrs. James Berry, John Mulvihill and Orval Mulvihill, Archie, Orval, Chester, and Marvin Boyles.

The guests departed in the evening, wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wingfield visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, of Liberal, last Sunday.

Miss Madge Buckner is teaching school at Beaver Lake. She came home to spend Easter with her people.

Easter was well remembered here with lots of eggs, but there were no services held at the school house.

Miss Grace Boyles returned home last Friday after a three months stay with her sister, Mrs. Charley Shepherd, of Noble. We are glad to see her home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marts visited with Mr. Marts' father and mother last Saturday and Sunday.

The dance at Louis Daugherty's last Saturday night was quite a success.

There will be a concert given in Thompson's Hall Saturday evening, April 25.

We are sorry to hear Jake Donelson is down with the measles.

Mrs. Judith Yoder and Emma made a trip to Aurora Monday.

Needy and Marquam played a game at Marquam Sunday with a score of 6 to 7 in favor of Needy.

Hubbard will cross bats on the Needy diamond on the 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ritter, Mrs. Reams, Dotson and Marth Reams were visitors at Jake Ritter's Easter.

Mrs. Emil Montandon is quite ill with the mumps.

Quite a large audience greeted the Parkland Club when they presented the drama "The Old Dairy Homestead."

The annual stockholders meeting of the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company will be held on Monday, May 4.

Francis J. M. Griffith and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown were married on April 12.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

Grass is growing, fruit trees are blooming and the promising time of the season is right here.

Jacob Minder has purchased part of the Traxite place which joins his farm.

Much interest is being taken in the initiative measures especially the tax law.

Clackamas Grange 298 met as usual at Grange Hall last Saturday evening.

Bro. David Croyle was obligated in the third and fourth degrees, Communications from Legislative Committee of the State Grange relating to certain bills before Congress.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

Grass is growing, fruit trees are blooming and the promising time of the season is right here.

Jacob Minder has purchased part of the Traxite place which joins his farm.

Much interest is being taken in the initiative measures especially the tax law.

Clackamas Grange 298 met as usual at Grange Hall last Saturday evening.

Bro. David Croyle was obligated in the third and fourth degrees, Communications from Legislative Committee of the State Grange relating to certain bills before Congress.

Grange voted to endorse the bills and asked that a committee be appointed to circulate the petitions as devised by State Grange.

Grass is growing, fruit trees are blooming and the promising time of the season is right here.

noyance. It was caused probably by the storm last week.

John Mulvihill has gone to Bridal Veil after his household goods.

Lots of birthdays in Rusleville in this month, which makes young people feel like "old maids and bachelors," but do not appear as such.

John Marts and sister Hattie made a business trip to Marquam one day last week.

The old superstition has been repeated several times—to wit: It rained Easter Sunday and we will have rain for seven Sundays in succession, but if we have sunshine between showers the grass and grain and gardens will grow.

Easter services were held at the Tazel Creek church last Sunday.

Elmer Albright and wife spent Saturday and Sunday in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Melton spent Sunday evening at the parsonage.

Cary Herman and family made a flyin trip to Portland and Lentz last Saturday.

Wm. Dart, of Scio, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

He is accompanied by his cousin Homer Cole.

The Ladies Aid will meet at Mrs. R. Thomas' next Thursday and will pick wool for Mrs. Thomas having met there last Thursday and was unable to finish.

Mulino is a busy town for the past week the hum of the shingle mill could be heard. They are sawing at the rate of 40,000 a day.

All enjoyed a happy Easter in our burg—especially Mr. Woodside, who on arriving home in the evening, found a fine calf in his pasture, and Mr. Deltzer thinks his Easter calf the finest in the land.

Mrs. Daniels and Katie and Miss

There is rumors of a railroad again but this is election time and you can get anything you want.

Shubel.

The Shubel base ball team went to Highland Sunday and played a game with the Elwood team which they won score 18 to 13.

Next Sunday they will play the Maple Lane team at Maple Lane.

Fred Bohlander is not handling powder for the Supervisor and is working with H. Steiner, who is going to build a barn for Fred Kamrath.

Herman Klingler the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Klingler died last Saturday and was buried Tuesday.

Our new minister has moved in the Lutheran Parsonage.

The Mochinko Bros. are busy clearing land on their place.

The following named children were confirmed at the Congregational Church last Sunday: Emma Grossmuller, Hannah Stegeman, Sophia Bohlander, Max Hollman, and Charles Eggman.

The members of the Evangelical Church will build a shed to shelter the horses for those who go to church.

There was no debate last Saturday evening, as most of the folks went to the masquerade ball at Will Clark's.

Miss Rae Kirbyson and Rob Linn received the prizes.

Road work is being crowded during the nice weather, and if the present road policy is continued for another year or two Clackamas County will have another road to which its officials can point to with pride.

Elwood

Mr. Gus Gottberg, of Oregon City, was in Elwood last Tuesday. He brought Mrs. Della Gottberg home, who has been staying with his mother for a few weeks.

Carl Stromgreen is having some improvements made on his house. A. S. Henderson is doing the work.

Rev. B. F. Fleenor preached in the Mt. Home Church Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening.

The Meadowbrook correspondence has mentioned the fact that "fifteen years ago it was known as Mountain Home." Yes, "Going Backward" is twenty years in the past.

By this name, and so far as records show, it has the same name at the present time. All that has been changed is the name of the Post Office.

Protracted meetings have begun in this place, Elder Landy is expected to arrive soon.

Miss Josie Cadoma, who is attending school in Estacada, was visiting with relatives Sunday.

Word has been received from Louis Wallen, who is visiting in Golden State that he is enjoying his trip.

Use Dix was visiting at Mr. Freeman's Sunday.

John Phillips Sr. has returned from Eastern Oregon and reports a pleasant trip.

Redland

Mr. Hubert, our road boss has started a full crew laying rock on the Oregon City and Viola road. We hope this will last a little longer than plank.

The C. L. L. are installing a large boiler and engine so they can run all their machinery full blast. They have a small dynamo to generate electricity for lighting the mill.

There has made her appearance at Mrs. Hopkins the 13th inst, a 13 pound dish washer.

Seeding and planting is about all done. The usual acreage of potatoes were put in although the market is dull they make good hog feed cooked and mixed with chop.

Carus

Farmers are rejoicing over the rain. Their was a large attendance at Sunday School Easter Sunday.

Mr. Beeby's son is visiting him.

Norman Howard and wife and Miss Bertha spent Sunday night at home.

L. O. Baker was visiting friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Stewart was visiting friends in Ely Sunday.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea never fails to tone the stomach, purify the blood, regulate the kidneys, liver and bowels. The greatest spring tonic, makes and keeps you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Huntley Bros. Co.

A good orchard fertilizer: Four hundred pounds of ground bone and 200 pounds of muriate of potash to the acre.

Stomach and Liver Trouble Cured. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures stomach and liver trouble as it aids digestion, and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills and ordinary cathartics. It cures indigestion and sick headache and chronic constipation. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or scribe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Howell & Jones.

MAKING CREAM SEPARATOR HISTORY

The year 1908 will mark an important period in centrifugal Cream Separators. Probably never again will such a large number of valuable Separator improvements be brought forth as are now shown in the new improved 1908 De Laval machines.

Mr. W. P. Kirchem, the agent for Oregon City, has arranged with FRANK BUSCH to have one of the machines in his store where the merits can be fully examined and catalogues be obtained.

FRANK BUSCH'S STORE DE LAVAL SEPARATOR

IS REPEATED BY REQUEST

Druggists Hear Much Praise for This Mixture

RECIPE IS VERY SIMPLE

Lots of Men and Women Here Had the Simple Home-Made Mixture Prepared, Says Druggist.

Someremarkable stories are being told about town and among the country people coming in of this simple home-made mixture curing Rheumatism and kidney trouble.

The members of the Evangelical Church will build a shed to shelter the horses for those who go to church.

There was no debate last Saturday evening, as most of the folks went to the masquerade ball at Will Clark's.

Miss Rae Kirbyson and Rob Linn received the prizes.