SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. F. L. Cochran Presented With Cut Glass.
A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Mrs. Fannie L. Cochran at her home on Twelfth and Washington Street on Monday evening, by the members of St. Paul's Guild and the King's Daughters of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mrs. Cochran has been an active member of St. Paul's Guild since 1874, and resigned as secretary at the last church election recently held, after holding this office for the past 20 years.

The guests upon their arrival took possession of the Cochran home. During the evening games and a guessing contest were enjoyed, the first prize being awarded to Miss M. L. Holmes and the consolation prize to Rev. T. F. Bowen. In the "observation" game Mrs. Robert J. Goodfellow secured the first prize, and Mrs. Mary McCarver the consolation. Refreshments were served during the evening, and was followed by the presentation of a handsome cut glass creamer and sugar bowl as a token of their appreciation of her faithful work in the church. In well chosen and appropriate remarks Rev. T. F. Bowen presented the gift in behalf of the Guild, and was followed by Mrs. Cochran, who spoke feelingly of the occasion, and of her appreciation of their kindness. Following this all joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne."

Present were Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Bowen, Mrs. Mary McCarver, Mrs. Mary Barlow, Mrs. H. L. Kelly, Mrs. Robert J. Goodfellow, Mrs. Thomas Warner, Mrs. Dan O'Neil, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuchs, Mrs. W. B. ### Aid Society of the Congregational Church Hold Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. William Gardner at Meldrum last Friday afternoon. The day of the meeting is on Wednesday, but owing to a number of the members not being able to attend that day, it was decided to hold the meeting on Friday. Several invited guests were also present.

The early part of the afternoon was taken up in business, and was followed by a luncheon and a social time. During the afternoon Pearce Walker favored the guests with several lectures, and was heartily enjoyed. The next meeting of the society will be at the home of Mrs. J. M. Mark, of the West Side, Wednesday afternoon, May 20.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to buy it if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Mrs. William Gordon, Mrs. M. M. Charman, Mrs. H. C. Stevens, Mrs. Follensbee, assisted Mrs. Gardner in the entertainment of her guests.

Following were present: Mrs. Sophia Charman, Mrs. J. W. Norris, Mrs. Lena Charman, Mrs. M. M. Charman, Mrs. Eugene Avison, Mrs. Leonard Charman, Mrs. J. W. Cole, Mrs. Bert Roake, Mrs. James Wilkinson, Mrs. Ada Pearl, of Portland, Mrs. C. O. Albright, Mrs. O. E. A. Feystag, Mrs. John H. Walker, Mrs. Kale Blum and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. H. C. Stevens, Mrs. Wilmot, Mrs. William Gordon, Mrs. Follensbee, Mrs. F. W. Greenman, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, Mrs. Phone, Mrs. Pace, Mrs. R. D. Wilson, Mrs. J. M. Marks, Marie and Pearce Walker.

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN.

Clear Creek Telephone Company Holds Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Clear Creek Telephone Company was held at the Logan grange hall Monday, and there was a good attendance, the stockholders of the company being well represented. The early part of the afternoon was taken up in business of importance. The company is on a good paying business basis, and the patrons are well satisfied with the service given them. The new directors who were chosen are Louis Funk, of Redland; Charles Falsom, William Mumpower, of Stone; Thomas Jubb, of Viola; and E. N. Brock, of Redland. Louis Funk was re-elected president for the third year, and O. D. Robbins, was also re-elected for the third term for secretary-treasurer, and Charles Falsom, is the newly elected vice-president. E. N. Brock, who has been manager of the company for the past two years, was re-elected to that office, to serve for the ensuing year, and who has proved to be an efficient manager for the Clear Creek Telephone Company.

Indian War Weapons on Exhibition.

The collection of arrowheads, spears and knives that are on exhibition in the Harding drug store window, is attracting a great deal of attention. The historical collection is the property of H. C. Stevens, of this city, who has a large collection of Indian curios of all descriptions. Mr. Stevens began the collection of Indian relics in 1881 and through his untiring efforts has succeeded in securing many rare specimens. The spears, arrowheads and knives that are on exhibition were the weapons of the Willamette and Columbia tribes, although he has many that were used by the Indians of the Klamath country. Mr. Stevens, since he began the collection of these relics, has handled over 130,000 spears and arrowheads, and in his collection at his home on Seventh Street, are 5,000 of these war weapons. Among the collection are many war clubs that were used by the natives in the early days, which are considered very valuable, as there are very few in existence at the present time.

Telephone Officials Visit on Inspection Trip.

E. B. Smith, General agent to General Superintendent Bradley of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company of San Francisco, arrived in Oregon City on Friday morning and was accompanied by W. D. Moore, vice chief of the Oregon Division, and Mr. Little, division chief of operations of the Oregon division, both of Portland, who met Mr. Smith at Eureka, Cal., and inspected all of the offices of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company on their route from Eureka to Portland. The telephone officials were very much pleased with the condition of their business in general along the line. The officials came by automobile and after remaining in this city for several hours, proceeded to Portland, and were accompanied by J. Hall, who is city manager with his residence in this city.

Death of Daniel Fisher.

Daniel Fisher, of this city, died at the family home on Monroe street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, on Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock. Mr. Fisher has been ailing for several months with a complication of stomach trouble, but has been able to be about until a few days before his death.

Mr. Fisher was born in Germany, and came to America when quite young, making his home in this city before coming to Oregon. He with his family have resided in Oregon for the past 19 years, coming to Oregon City about 15 years ago. Besides a widow, he leaves six children, Mrs. J. M. Johnson, of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Etta McCoy, of Forest Grove; Miss Anna Fisher, J. D. C. D., and August Fisher of this city.

The funeral was held from the family residence Thursday afternoon, Rev. William R. Kraxberger, rector of the German Lutheran church, officiating. Interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. John Spangler Dies at Corvallis.

Mrs. John Spangler, of Corvallis, mother of Mrs. Leslie L. Porter, of this city, died suddenly at her home in Corvallis on Tuesday. Mrs. Spangler, although had been in poor health for several months, her death was a terrible shock to her family and friends. Mrs. Spangler was well known in Oregon City, where she has visited with her daughter, and made many friends while here. She leaves a husband, two daughters, Mrs. Leslie L. Porter, of this city; Miss Lulu Spangler, of Corvallis, and one son, Mark Spangler, of Oakland California.

Mrs. Porter left Tuesday evening for Corvallis, accompanied by her son, and Mrs. Linwood Jones and Miss Libker. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent from this city by the friends of the family.

The funeral will be held upon the arrival of her son from California.

Valued Same as Gold.

MT. Pleasant Civic Improvement Club Holds Enthusiastic Meeting.
The Mount Pleasant Civic Improvement Club met at the Mount Pleasant school house Tuesday evening and this was one of the most enthusiastic meetings that has been held by this organization. County Judge G. B. Dimick was present and gave a very interesting talk on "Good Roads," and gave an outline of the work that is being done on the county roads in Clackamas county. Judge Dimick's talk was much appreciated by the members of the club. Following Judge Dimick, C. Schuebel, of this city, talked on "The County High School," and whose remarks were well received. Mr. Schuebel is in favor of the County High School, and has visited several school districts in the county, where he has talked in the interest of the county high school.
At the meeting of the Club there were several new members taken in. It was decided to raise the dues from 10 cents to 25 cents for membership, all members who are delinquent to pay up. A cleaning up day was also taken up for discussion, all was in favor of this motion, and a cleaning up day will be set by the society, when it is expected that all of the residents of Mount Pleasant will turn out en masse on that day. The property, which was deeded by the late Arthur Warner on his death to the public school of Mount Pleasant, to be used as a park, and the matter was brought up for discussion, and the park will be cleared and seats built, which will be used for picnics the coming summer.
