

Agents For Red Cross, Dorothy Dodd, Pla-Mate and Reed's Cushion Shoes

NEW LOCATION JOHN ADAMS MASONIC TEMPLE

Agents Royal Worcester Corsets McCall Patterns Ferris Waists

Shinabarger, the great landscape artist from the East, has been painting beautiful landscapes and marine scenes in oil in our front window and hundreds of people passing have stopped to watch the artist make a picture in 3 to 12 minutes, on canvas 12 x 24, and occasionally to hurry his work he will use both hands at the same time.

Each customer is given a ticket with each purchase and this ticket with 49 cents entitles the holder to one of the beautiful paintings on academy board, while the ones painted on canvas may be had for a ticket and 69c, making a most beautiful ornament and well worth $5.00.

SUITS FOR LITTLE MEN

The little fellows are receiving our attention to the fullest, and there's a classy selection to make your choice from--goods that hold up under the great wear and tear process. We have them for the boys at $2.75 to $9.

YOUR TAILOR BILL---DOES IT WORRY YOU?

YOU HAVE TO LOOK WELL---IT'S PART OF YOUR STOCK-IN-TRADE. WE CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO OUR STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES FOR SPRING AND SUMMER.

They are the foremost ready-to-wear clothes in America. They fit with a style that will make you look better than you do now. This power is the result of careful tailoring and patient workmanship, and a certain genius for solving clothes problems with intelligence.

JOHN ADAMS MASONIC TEMPLE MAIN STREET OREGON CITY

Look for Name in Strap THE ARGYLE

CHERAL PATENT COLT BUTTON BOOT The Shoe Makes the Foot To obtain the best appearance, the most up-to-date style and the most durable service, the shoe to wear is the Florsheim Shoe. Most Styles, $5 & $6 Shoes that look well and wear well THEY FIT

ENGLAND SAYS NO ALUM IN FOOD and strictly prohibits the sale of alum baking powder-- So does France So does Germany

The sale of alum foods has been made illegal in Washington and the District of Columbia, and alum baking powders are everywhere recognized as injurious. To protect yourself against alum, when ordering baking powder, Say plainly-- ROYAL BAKING POWDER and be very sure you get Royal. Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It adds to the digestibility and wholesomeness of the food.

Silk Petticoats, $5.85 at John Adams' store, Masonic building. All colors. Sale of our excellent line of Laces at John Adams' Masonic building, five cents per yard. Mrs. Linwood Jones has returned from Corvallis, where she accompanied Mrs. Leslie L. Porter. Alva M. Condit has filed a suit against W. H. Faubion to recover principal and interest on a promissory note for $475.63, executed at Parkplace, November 27, 1903, and payable one day from date. The plaintiff is represented by Dimick & Dimick. Sale of Royal Worcester Corsets at John Adams' Store, Masonic building, Green Trading Stamps. John B. Fairclough and Ed Grace left Sunday for the Ogle Creek mines where they expect to spend the coming summer, prospecting. The men, who have been at the mines all winter, are very much encouraged over the future outlook of Ogle Creek mine. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dickey, of Molalla, were in Oregon City Saturday, returning to their home Sunday evening. Mr. Dickey has been in the cattle raising business at Molalla for the past 30 years, and is one of Clackamas county best known cattlemen. Miss Ada Miller, who has been attending the Seventh Day Adventist College at Gaston for the past eight months, has returned to her home in this city, where she will spend her vacation, the school having closed last Friday. Miss Miller expects to return to that college in September. The Eagles met at their hall on Monday night, and it was decided to change the night of meeting to Friday night. The article will go to Seattle in August to attend the session of the Grand aerie, and new uniforms will be worn by the local organization. On Friday night a banquet will be enjoyed by the lodge at the lodge rooms. M. J. O'Brien, of Tacoma, who arrived in Oregon City on Saturday, returned to his home Sunday evening. Mr. O'Brien was accompanied by his wife, who left for Portland Tuesday evening, and after a brief visit in that city will return to Tacoma. While in this city Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien were the guests of Miss Nora Hanlin, the latter being a former schoolmate of Miss Hanlin. Miss Mollie Mitchell, the popular young lady clerk at D. C. Ely's dry goods store on Seventh Street, will leave for her home in Sandy Saturday afternoon, where she will remain until the first of June, and will then go to the Barlow Toll Gate, accompanying her brother, John, who will be the gatekeeper during the summer months. Miss Mitchell will return to Oregon City in October. V. Harris, who has been conducting a grocery store at the corner of Main and Eighth street for the past five years will move from the building he is now occupying to his own store building on the corner of Main and Fourteenth Street. Mr. Harris' business has grown so that it necessitates a change, as the present quarters are too small for the line of goods he is carrying. Mr. Harris expects to move the first of July.

Mrs. J. T. Welch, of Albany, has returned to her home after a visit in Oregon City. Robert McAlpin and family have moved to Gladstone, where they have rented one of Mr. LaSalle's cottages. Messrs. John Adams, Seeley and Levitt and other Oregon City merchants were looking up seasonable goods in Portland Monday--which was also circus day in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, who went to Salem Saturday where they were the guests of Mr. Wilson's brother George Wilson and wife, and Mrs. Brown, returned to their home Monday. A ambitious man or woman can afford to miss the opportunity given them by the International Correspondence School Friday and Saturday May 15 and 16 at Burmeister & Anderson's Jewelry store. A special discount of the price of all courses during the display. Mrs. I. S. Clark spent Sunday in Oregon City, the guest of Mrs. G. W. Grace, returning to her home in Portland in the evening. Miss Caroline Grace has also returned to her home after a few days' visit with Mrs. Grace. Miss Libker, who went to Corvallis last week, where she accompanied Mrs. Leslie Porter, who was called to that place on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. John Spangler, returned to Oregon City Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Sutherland, of San Diego, Cal., are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Sutherland is a sister of Mrs. George Secret and an aunt of Mrs. Edward L. Johnson, both of this city, with whom she is visiting. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland will remain in Oregon City for several weeks. Judge Thomas F. Ryan and family have moved to their suburban home near Gladstone. Mr. Ryan having purchased the Rinearsen place several years ago, has had many improvements made on the place, and the house, which is of colonial design, is one of the best farm houses in the county. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Willis left Saturday for their old home at Randolph, New York, where they will spend the summer and winter, with their parents. Mr. Willis has been employed at the Burley & Stafford mill near Beaver Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Willis are well pleased over the climatic conditions of Oregon, and say that they are going to "boost" Oregon in the Eastern states, and will induce their Eastern friends and relatives to come West. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Coe and Mrs. Mattie Griffin, of Canby, were in Oregon City Saturday, having come to attend the Norris & Rowe circus. Mr. Coe, who is one of Clackamas county's prominent berry growers says that the berry vines are in excellent condition, and that the strawberries will be ready for market about the latter part of May. Mr. Coe has four acres in strawberries, the varieties being the Clarkes Seedling, Masoon, Lovett and "Big Bob," and is among the berry growers who will exhibit the luscious fruit at the coming rose show, when the strawberry growers of the county have been invited by the Rose Society to exhibit their fruit on the two days of the show.

Mrs. Mary S. Howard, state secretary of the Grange, was in from Multnomah Wednesday. E. W. Miller and wife, of Portland, were guests of G. E. Hayes and daughter, Miss Harriet, Sunday. Mrs. D. L. Palne, of Sellwood, who has property interests in this city, was in Oregon city on business Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin White and Mr. Ormond Hammond, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shevman, Jr. over Sunday. Mrs. W. L. Midlam and Miss Grayce Marshall were at University Park visiting with their sister, Mrs. S. L. Young, on Sunday. Judge Thomas F. Ryan went to Eugene this week to attend the State Grange Convention, and will return Friday morning. Mr. Ryan was a delegate from Warner Grange, of New Era. Mrs. M. J. Davis, of this city, and one of the county's efficient teachers, who is at present teaching the Clarkes school, will return to Oregon City this week, having finished a very successful eight months' term of school. Mrs. A. B. Allen, of Portland, who has been visiting at Maple Lane for a few days, returned to her home Wednesday. Mrs. Cone was formerly a resident of Maple Lane, and where she still has property interests. To relieve constipation, clean out the bowels, tone and strengthen the digestive organs, put them in a natural condition with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the most reliable tonic for thirty years. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Huntley Bros. Co. "My Turn Next" is to be presented in the Parkplace school house on Saturday evening by Dr. Stuart and his amateur players from Portland. The proceeds are going towards the Parkplace church, "My Turn Next," was presented very creditably in Oregon City by the Saturday Club of the Congregational church about a year ago, and many are planning to go to Parkplace to see if the Portland amateurs can do as well as the Oregon City young people. Miss Mary Sandstrom, of this city, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nash, has won elocutionary honors at the Normal school at Cheney, Wash. Having won in the tryout at Cheney, Miss Sandstrom will go to Ellensburg to represent that school in a contest of the State Normals to be held at that place Friday of this week. Miss Sandstrom graduated from the Barclay High School in this city, in 1906, when she many times displayed exceptional talent, and which is quite evident from this recent honor that she is continuing to win the laurels, and in this connection her many friends here extend their congratulations. Mr. Heath, formerly of Oregon City, has returned to Oregon City and is at present working on the Hawley new paper mill. Mr. Heath is a millwright

W. H. MILLER'S You will find a choice line of staple groceries and just what you are looking for in the small hardware line and small farm tools and every one says the prices are right. Are you one of our satisfied customers. W. H. MILLER 10th and Main Sts. OREGON CITY

Local Happenings Dr. A. L. Beadle, dentist, Masonic Temple. Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spagle, on Thursday, May 7, a daughter. Men's and Boys' Suits, all the latest styles at John Adams' Masonic building. Seven per cent interest on money left with us to loan. DIMICK & DIMICK, attorneys and abstractors, Garde Bldg., Oregon City. Douglas Thorne, of Camas, Wash., was in Oregon City this week visiting with his mother, Mrs. Thorne, who resides near Maple Lane. Miss Goldsmith has the largest and best selection of millinery in the city. Call and see for yourself. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stevens and sons, Harley and Henry, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. Stevens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens. Miss Goldsmith is offering her beautiful line of millinery at reasonable prices. A. Shibley and W. H. Kandle, of Springfield, were in Oregon City Saturday attending the Clackamas County Central Committee held here.

Ladies fancy belts and collars at John Adams' Masonic building. J. C. Jaeger, aged 69 years, was committed to the asylum Monday afternoon. Mr. Jaeger is a native of Germany, and is a farmer of Wilsonville. His insanity is caused by an attack of paralysis, which enfeebled his mind. Pla-mate Shoes just arrived at John Adams' Masonic building. Call at Miss Goldsmith's if you want a stylish hat at a reasonable price. Mrs. Bruce C. Curry and son, York, will leave Friday morning for Seattle, Wash., where they will spend two weeks with Mrs. Curry's sisters, Mrs. Frank S. Smith and Mrs. Charles Steele and friends. Mrs. Curry will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. C. Seachrest, of Portland, who will also go to Seattle to see the fleet which arrives in that city on May 23. Lawns, 10 cents per yard. Call and examine them and see the bargains. John Adams, Masonic building. Mrs. John Lamont and daughter, Clara Belle, who have been visiting in Oregon City with Mrs. Lamont's mother, Mrs. Rosina Fouts, and grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuchs, returned to their home in Portland Sunday accompanied by Mr. Lamont, who spent the day in Oregon City.

George Generowski, one of Springfield's young farmers was in Oregon City on a business trip Wednesday. Mr. Generowski says that the weather has been very favorable to the farmers, and the crops are looking exceedingly well, although they have experienced a few cold days. At the Electric Theatre on Fourth and Main Street, Miss Catherine Reid, of the San Francisco Oper Company, has been engaged to sing for the illustrated songs, a graphophone heretofore being used. Miss Reid has a good and sympathetic soprano voice, and her singing is attracting large crowds. The managers of the Electric Theatre are putting up a good bill to please the people of Oregon City, and the securing of Miss Reid as a soloist is a new departure for the playhouse, and will form an extra good attraction. Best for Women and Children. On account of its action and pleasant taste Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is especially recommended for women and children. It does not nauseate or grip like pills and ordinary cathartics. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating them. Remember the name Orino and refuse substitutes.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

John W. Thomas DENTIST Molalla, Mondays

GADKE Carries a complete line of Spray Pumps and Spraying Solutions Give him a call and see how cheap you can spray your orchard. F. C. Gadke Plumbing and General Jobbing Oregon City, Oregon