There will not be over 40 per cent of a hop crop in Oregon this year.

We have visited a good part of the hop raising districts of this and Marion County and find the result very discouraging; over two-thirds of the old yards have been plowed out and the balance is very poor.

Hundreds of acres will not be cultivated this year. In this part of Clackamas County which raises more hops than all the rest of the county, not over 40 per cent of a hop crop will be raised.

Your correspondent is a hop raiser, and has as good a yard as is in this vicinity, and it is not good.

Our yard is only three years old and we have put in over 1800 new nursery stock plants. Nearly all the old yards are almost an entire failure.

Hop-picking will be a small affair this fall in Oregon. Some dealers say we will have a big hop crop.

Colton. Mr. Peterson and family have moved into their new house.

Logan. The dance given by the young folks of Harding Grange, for the benefit of the barn fund, was a social and fied by one of the finest streams of the state and inhabited by some of the best people of the nation.

We hear considerable complaint about the continuous rains, and it don't seem to be benefiting gardens and crops as much as a little sunshine would, but remember Nature is laying in a reservoir full. Better keep your hoes and cultivators ready and draw on them when the dry weather comes.

Farm For Sale. Our business is to show investors that Clackamas county farms are better investments than U. S. gold bonds. There are many real estate signs in town but the office over the Bank of Oregon City continues to do the real estate business of the county. Get Down to Business. If your farm drags on the market let's talk the matter over. Maybe you need the services of a live agency. The "con" talk of the amateur agent won't sell your land. For results see Eastham, Patison & Co. Over the Bank of Oregon City—Successors to C. N. Plowman & Co.

WHAT'S UNDER THE PAINT ON THE BUGGY YOU HAVE?

Are there cracks in the sides that have been puttied up in order to make you think you are getting your money's worth? Are there knots and defective blotches in every part under the paint? If your buggy is a Staver, you could scrape off every particle of paint and more than that, take every portion of the body and examine it thoroughly and you could not say that the buggy is not what it is represented to be--the best in the buggy line.
