

Tax Payers

....Of Clackamas County....

Do you know who gets the benefit of the Saloon license money?

This money is used exclusively in the cities and towns where the saloon is licensed.

Do you know where the bulk of the crime of Clackamas county is produced?

The court records show that it is produced in those places where the saloon exists.

Bear this in mind, namely, that the County does not get one cent of the Saloon Licence money.

Who then pays for the prosecution of the crime produced by the licensed liquor saloon?

The Clackamas County Tax-payer pays it. Not one cent of the saloon license money is used to prosecute the crime which the saloon business produces.

Since your tax money pays for the prosecution of crime, and the bulk of crime is caused by liquor, isn't it your privilege of saying whether saloons shall or shall not exist in Clackamas County no matter how far or near from saloon centers you may live.

Why not remove the crime producers in Clackamas county, namely the licensed liquor saloon and reduce our taxes or apply our good and hard earned tax money in legitimate channels.

Is the licensed saloon a benefit to Clackamas County tax payers? NO! NO! NO!!! Therefore let us vote it out

GOOD DRAMA AT SHIVELY'S

LOCAL TALENT UNDER DIRECTION OF A. PRICE PRODUCE DRAMA.

GOOD CAST OF CHARACTERS

Drama is Presented At Shively's Opera House By Local Talent.

The drama, "Finger of Scorn" presented at the Shively Opera House on Wednesday evening, under the management of A. A. Price of this city, was one of the most successful local talent entertainments given in this city for many years. Mr. Price presented this play at the Dalles several years ago, where it met with success, as it did in this city Wednesday night, and Mr. Price deserves great praise in the manner he and his company presented it before an Oregon City audience. Early part of the week seats sold readily, and it was an assured fact that the local people would have a full house to greet them on their first appearance. Long before the raise of the curtain every seat in the house was taken, and the proceeds, which amounted to a large sum, will assist materially in the purchasing of new uniforms for the Oregon City band, the play being given for the benefit of that organization. The band furnished music for the occasion, and under the leadership of Mr. Cyr, proved to be a great feature of the entertainment.

Each character was well sustained, the various young people taking their part in a most creditable manner, and deserve individual mention, pleasing the audience to a person. It may be summed up by reiterating that it was the best ever given in this city and we append the cast of characters showing the talented actors and actresses in their respective roles: Rev. Philip Dunchester, Rector of St. Marks; Phillip J. Sinnott, Norman Welr, his college friend, A Detective; Albert A. Price, Richard Heritage, commonly called Dr. Dick; Carl Moore, John Gordon, a Fugitive, Emil Gordon, Sheriff Blake, true to the law; Frank Busch, Jr. Irene Arnold, with a heart history; Gussie Humphrey, Bess, the minister's sister, a bit of a butterfly; Florence McFarland, Mrs. Pickens, a busy dressmaker; Kathryn Sinnott, Aunt Bina, a colored servant; E. E. Garlich, Shubel.

Quite a large crowd went to see the ball game Sunday on the new ball ground, which Mr. Stuedeman was kind enough to donate for the season. The boys were out in their new suits Sunday and if they play as good ball as they look, they will go some sure. The Oregon City high school team was scheduled to play, but not appearing, the Shubel second nine went in to do them up, the score resulting in the latter's favor. E. Steiner has just built a new barn for Fred Kamrath. He will also build one for John Bohlender. John Heft is building a barn for Mr. Mudget at Highland. Mr. and Mrs. A. Kleinschmidt, of Elyville, were visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuedeman, Sunday. George Kerbyson and son Harry, came home Sunday to stay a few days. A few more days and another piece of rock road will be finished and the crusher will be moved. The minister of the Lutheran congregation is making preparation for a children's day, in the near future, among the exercises will be a game of baseball. The congregation will put up a ball and bat. Due notice of the time will be given later. August and John Bluhm have bargained for a new threshing outfit. A clean job, good measure, and a square deal all around is promised. Croops never looked better at this time of year than they do at present. R. Glinther has been engaged to teach the school for the next year. Well, we are going to get the railroad now. Mr. Swift's right of way man has been working through here. With a few exceptions, the farmers are giving the right of way freely. Mr. Swift was here last Saturday looking over the ground, and was pleased with the looks of things. He also made arrangements for depot grounds while here. Schmidt Bros. are moving their live stock from their farm in Ina county to the home farm, their lease having expired on the former place.

Garfield. The great secret of a happy, beautiful life is to live one day at a time, and that to the very best of our ability. We welcome the beautiful sunshine after the several weeks of hard rain. H. B. Sarver was down from his place and made a business trip to town, and attended the Grange of which he is a member. Miss Eva D. Prunner, of Estacada, Miss Blundell, of Garfield, were the guests of Mrs. Nora Looney Saturday and Sunday. Walter Woodard is engineer at the Shimer saw mill. Mrs. Sadie Anders was the guest of Mrs. J. B. Bowman last Saturday. R. G. Palmator returned from Columbia Slough last week where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lee Hills. Mable Anders was a guest of Mable Tracy last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Chitwood, of Pleasant Home Grange, visited Garfield Grange Saturday.

New Era. Mr. Lee had a valuable cow killed by the train Sunday morning in the southeastern part of town. Mr. Burgoyne and daughter, Carrie, are viewing Rear Admiral Sperry's fighting fleet at Seattle this week. They will also visit the beautiful city of Victoria, B. C. Burt McArthur let his wood choppers have a leave of absence the first of the week. "Jack" Slaughter's $250 "bear dog" tackled a locomotive the other day, and the result was a burial of the brave dog. Mr. and Mrs. Dustin drove to Oregon City Tuesday afternoon. Roy Parmenter, of Barlow, spent Saturday in New Era.

MOTHERS' DAY

Rev. J. R. Landsborough Delivers Excellent Sermon Sunday Morning.

A large audience gathered at the Presbyterian Church Sabbath morning to observe Mothers Day. White flowers were in evidence everywhere. On entering the church each mother received a white carnation which was given to typify Mother Love, its color standing for purity; its flower, beauty; its fragrance, love. The pastor, Rev. J. R. Landsborough, took three passages of scripture as suitable for the occasion, "Forsake not the law of thy mother," "The law of kindness is on her tongue," "Her children rise up and call her blessed."

The pastor said in part: "We observe this day in this peculiar way having in mind three special objects; namely: To brighten the lives of our mothers and to make them more honored, loved and protected by their children. To remind busy, successful men and women of the unselfish devotion of their mothers. To ask men, women and children to make their mothers feel this May Day that in her children's hearts she is "Queen of the May." All of these objects must appeal to every true-hearted, loving man and woman. Sometimes mothers long for thoughtful expression of their children's love. That love may be there in large measure, but sometimes it remains unexpressed. Every man, woman and child, who feels that he has the best mother that ever lived should find pleasure in giving expression to that love. There are different ways of expressing affection and one way which would be greatly appreciated by mother would be to let her know that you have not forsaken her law, the law you learned from her lips when a child by the old fire side. For your own sake you cannot afford to forsake mother's law. Nor can you afford to forsake your mother's Bible, its beautiful stories she told you as you sat on her knee are worthy of a place in your memory still. What she knew about God she learned from the Bible. She was converted by the Bible and lived by it, and if she is gone, died by it. Never forsake mother's Bible. A mother's precept and example are of inestimable value. Let that be impressed upon mothers who are caring for small children. You are imprinting upon your children impressions which will remain through life. The habits of childhood are likely to be the habits of maturity. A mother's business is to write upon the minds and hearts of her children lessons they will never forget. How grand for a mother in her old age to see that the impressions she made on her children have been lasting, to see the maturing harvest of the seed sown in her children's hearts."

Mr. Landsborough closed by referring to the mother's charge in the Bonnie Brier Bush, "I cannot see ye no, John, but I know yr there, 'an I've just one other wish. If God calls ye to the ministry, ye'll no refuse, 'an the first day ye preach in yr ain kirn, speak a gude word for Jesus Christ, 'an John, I'll hear ye that day, though ye'll no see me, and I'll be satisfied." Always teach your children to be loyal to Jesus Christ, to speak a good word for him, then God will be satisfied with your work and pleased with your children.

Teazel Creek. Willie Quinn and the two Phelps boys killed eight skunks the other day and it was not a good day for skunks either. That is good work boys, do some more of it. Mrs. Joe Simmons is much better today. Miss Ellen Kaylor is nursing her, and she is an experienced nurse. We hope she will soon recover under her care. There seems to be considerable sickness in our neighborhood. Everyone is looking for better conditions of health when the weather settles. C. E. Dart's infant son has been very ill, but is slowly recovering. Mr. Dart's mother is with them helping to look after the little one. James Tabbs came in contact with the heels of a vicious horse one day last week which about laid him up for a few days. We would advise him to let the horse's heels alone in the future. Willie Quinn is suffering again from a slight attack of appendicitis brought on by chipping. Miss Clara Quinn, of Marquam, was a visitor at J. H. Quinn's of Teazel Creek. Rev. J. H. Quinn will preach at Russellville school house on next Sabbath, May the 31st. All are invited.

Mackaburg. Two deaths occurred in our midst on the 23d, that of James J. Gibson, and Charles Collins, both dying of pneumonia. Mr. Gobson was in the 50's and Mr. Collins in the 40's. Both were highly esteemed citizens and leave large families.

Give it a Trial and Be Convinced

Gladstone. A goodly number of Gladstone people attended the temperance address delivered by Mr. Henry of Portland, last Saturday night. Services at the Tabernacle were well attended Sunday night. The three bungalows in Gladstone are rapidly nearing completion, as are also the two new residences recently commenced by Mr. Schooley. Each of these is a thing of beauty. Mr. Moon, from Kelso, Wash., who recently purchased lots in Gladstone, was down again this week. He has about concluded a deal for some acreage joining those purchased by Rev. Mulkey. These are excellent people and will be a valuable acquisition to the Gladstone citizenship. Next Monday is election day and it is hoped Gladstone voters will do themselves proud in voting for all uplifting measures. Services at the Tabernacle next Sunday morning and evening. All cordially invited.

Maple Lane. The new electric road through Maple Lane seems to be an assured fact. Most all property owners have now donated "right of way" through their property. C. O. Perry and Henry Yost signed papers Monday, donating the required land through their property. Emma Derrick is suffering with that common ailment—the mumps. Mrs. Bledeman, who has been sick with heart trouble for some time, is recovering very slowly. J. H. Darling will soon move into the house he has rented in Elyville. Miss Darling is still confined to the house by heart trouble. Maple Lane school closes June 5th, and the scholars will hold their annual picnic on that day. June 6 will be "Children's Day" at the Grange. A fine program is being prepared, and will be rendered almost entirely by the children. The strawberry crop has been delayed by the recent cold, wet weather, but a few days of sunshine, will give them the necessary color. Marks Prairie. Saturday was a warm day here. Our farmers will plant some potato tubs this week if the rain stops. Several deaths in our vicinity the past week, pneumonia being the cause of death. Sam Gribble is very sick at his brother's. His recovery is not looked for, as he is well advanced in years. G. E. Oglesby and sons were callers at Ben Wolfers' Sunday. The board of County road viewers were out Saturday laying out the new road from Gribble Prairie to connect with the Needy road. This road will fill a long felt want, and will be just what has been needed for a long time. While attending a funeral last week, some unknown stunner broke into the residence of one of Wolfers' Prairie's citizens and stole a sack of sugar and a lot of other things. Who ever did it had better look a little out as there will be something doing should it occur again. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ritter were visitors at Chas. Wolfers' Sunday. The apple crop here will be up to the average. Cherries will be a good crop, pears a fair yield; and the prune crop is a total failure. Strawberries will be very late, but a big crop is expected. Ab Cole is making fences and fixing up his farm here. One week until election. Several will secure tickets for Salt River Junction.

Death of Mrs. Shaver. Mrs. Bertha A. Byington, the wife of George M. Shaver, was born in Carroll County, Ill., forty-three years ago. She was the daughter of Edward L. and Harriet L. Byington. She was converted at the age of 15 years, and united with the Baptist church. She was married to George M. Shaver on June 11, 1888. For seven years her home was Colorado, and recently her home has been at Jennings Lodge, Oregon. She was sick about a year, and died in the faith on Tuesday, May 19th. Both her own mother and her husband's mother were present in the home during the latter part of her illness. In her death Mrs. Shaver leaves behind her two children, Arline and Shelby. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. Clarence Oakley, of the Congregational Church, and the burial was at the Riverview cemetery, under the care of the Royal Neighbors, Mrs. Shaver being a member of Camp No. 1851 of the Royal Neighbors of America.

Bad Attack of Dysentery Cured. "An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist, of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City and Molalla.
