The college has had the most prosperous year it has known, having a large faculty, to which two more full time professors have been added for next year. Twenty diplomas were granted on the 17th inst, seven of these conferring the degree of B. S., four from the literary-commemorial, three from the Normal course and six from the conservatory of music.
Orel Welch has been chosen president of the Conquest Bible Class, and organized class of 125 members, composed mostly of college students, and taught by one of the faculty. Ross Eaton is treasurer of the same class.

Mountain Road School Closes.

Miss Mary A. Scott closed a very successful year's work at the Mountain Road school last Saturday evening, with an appropriate program, followed by a lawn social. The receipts of the evening were $50.00. The sale of shadows alone brought $33. Ice cream, cake, home-made candy and popcorn were served on the lawn, where attractive booths were arranged, hung with Chinese lanterns. A large number of Miss Scott's friends from Oregon City attended by pre-arrangement and took the 6 o'clock car to Willamette, where they were met by the patrons of the Mountain Road school with conveyances to carry them out, and bring them back to the car, after the evening's entertainment. Willamette, Wilsonville, and Stoddard were also well represented. The decorations deserve special mention, as they were a manifestation of an appreciation and love of nature, which should be taught in every school.
The following program was carried out well, and was appreciated by all: Address of welcome, Hilda Kaiser, dialogue, "The Three Applicants" Alice Easley, Louise Zimmerman, Anna Hodge, Conrad Zimmerman and Durward Hodge; song, girls of school; solo, Sylvia and Ernest Hodge; tableau, "The Flower Girl," Marguerite Kaiser; exercise, "The Farmer," Frank Kaiser, Ernest Hodge, Rudolph Zimmerman, Herman Holberg; recitation, Marguerite Kaiser; flag drill and tableau, by ten girls; closing recitation, Hilda Kaiser.

The Other Side of the Question.
Showing the kind of timber Park place is made of. As a great deal has been seen in the papers about "High School," and about the "Friends of Higher Education," and the position "Park place took in the Union High school proposition," etc., etc., until the Park place people concluded they too had an equal right to be heard. At the annual meeting Monday night the patrons and voters showed their loyalty to the district and to the High school by coming forward with a subscription list ample to match the High school to and including the twelfth grade for the coming year. Also in order to meet outstanding obligations—unpaid warrants—they levied a twenty mill tax. The people were unanimous in their vote to put up the means to maintain the high standing of the Park place school. The annual meeting was well attended and there was no dissenting vote in the assembly on any question or motion.
The meeting was called to order by the chairman, W. H. Smith, the regular routine business was soon transacted. Mr. W. H. Pickorn was elected to succeed himself, to serve three years as director.
W. A. Holmes was elected to succeed himself as clerk, to serve one year.
The reports were read; commented on and turned over to the directors for them to audit and approve.
Mr. J. T. Apperson made a speech, giving the general financial position of the district and explaining the amount of taxable valuation left to this district after the division of the district by the boundary board and showing how much special tax levy was needed, also touching on other. Then the vote was taken levying a twenty mill tax.
The High-school matter was voted on and the board was authorized to accept the subscription and maintain the High school to and including the twelfth grade.
Mr. O. L. Clyde had made a rousing speech and was loudly cheered. Everyone shook hands with everyone else and went home singing "Rah! Rah! Rah! for P. H. S."

SECOND ANNUAL ROSE MEETING

Clackamas County Beauties Brought in by Thousands

LADIES' GREATEST EFFORT

Willamette Hall Scene of Greatest Flower Display Ever Shown in Clackamas County.

With apologies to Portland's Rose sloop—Roses fragrant, Roses Rare, we can beat the world for roses with only half the care, whether one gets a prize or not. Clackamas county can not be outdone in the growing of roses of wondrous beauty, great size, wax-like appearance, sweetest scented and altogether loveliness, in myriad numbers, everywhere countless and beyond the power of man to portray.
The Second Annual Rose Show of the Clackamas County Rose and Carnation Society opened Saturday in the Willamette building and thousands of the beautiful blooms from the gardens of this city were arranged on long tables that reached the entire length of the hall. Decorations were profuse and one corner was devoted to the strawberry exhibits. Hundreds attended the rose show and it was pronounced far ahead of the last year exhibits.
Charles F. Street, of Clackamas, donated several clusters of handsome carnations, and the strawberries were no small feature of the show. There were ten crates exhibited, and the sweepstakes prize was taken by C. P. Andrews, who had a crate of Clark Seedlings, the famous commercial berry. The second prize for a commercial berry was taken by County Fruit Inspector A. J. Lewis, of Maple Lane, who exhibited a crate of the New Oregon berries. The Canby growers, whose exhibits were directed by R. S. Coe, came to the front with eight crates of Clarks, and the first prize was taken by A. R. Cummings. Second, H. Douglas. Other exhibitors were R. S. Coe, S. M. Reese, Fred Hampton, Charles Roth and Adam Killmer. The Canby growers also provided the berries for the tables, and many people were served with the luscious fruit, with cream and cake, in the rooms of the Christian Science Church, across the corridor from Willamette Hall. The Judges of the berries were Frank T. Barlow and J. W. McNulty.
C. W. Swallow exhibited several baskets of his new seedling berry—The "Shirley Bell," also the Oregon, which received special attention by A. R. Stauffer, of the faculty of the West Side High School of Portland, Saturday talked to school children, who had assembled in the hall on "Wild Flowers." Derthick Club Holds Final Party.

On Friday evening of last week the lady members of the Derthick club entertained at the home of Mrs. L. L. Pickens members of the club and escorts. They were assisted in the entertainment of their guests by Mrs. L. L. Pickens and Mrs. John F. Clark. The young ladies who entertained were Miss Vera Caulfield, Miss Edna Daulton, Miss Marjorie Stevens, Miss Lulu Draper, Miss Martha Frances Draper, Miss Marjorie Caulfield.
The Pickens home was beautifully decorated with Caroline Testout and Madam Alfred Carrier roses, pink and white being the predominating colors, and each guest was obliged to wear corresponding colors. As the guests arrived they were presented at the door with pink and white roses. There were about 60 people present who had a most enjoyable time. The first part of the evening was taken up in a guessing contest in which Miss Ethel Rigdon, of Salem, and Mortimer Latourette were awarded the prizes. Miss Lulu Draper and Miss Martha Frances delighted their hearers with Brahms Dances, "The Rain Song," "The Wanderer's Night Song," were beautifully rendered by the Derthick chorus, and was forced to respond to a hearty encore and gave "Bumble Bee Song." The Derthick chorus selections showed that the chorus has had careful training, and great credit is due the leader, Mrs. Anna Hayes, in the successful manner in which the musical program was carried out. Mrs. Hayes is a talented musician, and since she has taken charge of the chorus work of this club a marked improvement has been shown.
Another feature of the evening was a "Backward Drill," by seven young ladies, and was accompanied by the "Seattle Celluloid Quartet," composed of Mrs. Eugene Avison, Mrs. Carl Joehnkne, Mrs. Lewelyn Adams, Mrs. Theodore Osmund. This is the first time that this quartet has appeared before an audience.
A vocal duet was well rendered by Mrs. John Leuder and Mrs. Walter Dimick, which was followed by a pantomime by Mr. and Mrs. Lewelyn Adams, "The Conveniences and Inconveniences of Married Life." Mrs. R. C. Ganong sang "I Have Something Sweet to Tell You," and was forced to respond to a hearty encore. Mrs. Ganong's sweet soprano voice was well suited for her numbers. "The Gnat Sings," rendered by 18 ladies brought the evening's entertainment to a close.

Popular Needy People Wed in Oregon City.

Miss Zoa Fish and Mr. Albert Elliott, of Needy, were quietly married in the court house on Wednesday morning, Judge G. B. Dimick performing the ceremony. Miss Fish and Mr. Elliott are very popular young people of Needy, where they have a host of friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish, and is a highly esteemed young woman, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott. After a short honeymoon the happy couple will return to Needy, where they will spend the summer. Mr. Elliott having charge of the Elliott farm at that place.

Runaway on Suspension Bridge.

On Thursday evening while Main street was filled with people gathered to witness a fire extinguisher apparatus, two runaway horses came dashing across the suspension bridge and ran up Seventh street, but were caught near the depot before any damage was done. There were no pedestrians on the bridge at the time of the runaway and no one injured. The horses took flight at a passing automobile, and were soon calmed by the owner.
