REMOVAL NOTICE.

The Courier has removed to more commodious quarters. In our new home in the Weinhard building opposite the Court House we will welcome our friends and acquaintances...

The Courier wishes to grow. We wish to publish a paper that everybody in Clackamas County will take up with pride and say we are the kind of people that always have the best; we stand by our County paper and that is why it is the best County paper in the State.

You can depend on one thing: If there is the proper energy back of your local paper it will reflect the true spirit of the community in which it circulates.

If you don't find in the Courier all the news of your locality get after your correspondent. Not with a stick, but tell your correspondent the interesting things that are happening in the neighborhood.

The Courier appreciates the earnest efforts of its correspondents and the kindness of its friends. Our hope is that this newspaper will prove itself worthy of continuance of these efforts and kindnesses.

CHAUTAQUA'S GREATNESS.

Do people really appreciate the features of Chautauqua, undoubtedly the grandest spot for rest and learning on the Pacific coast, and do the people of Clackamas county realize the fact that it is located right here in our own county, within easy reach?

The Oregon Humane Society have installed nine ornamental drinking fountains at various points throughout the city of Portland. In addition to the regulation drinking cups, places are provided for dogs and horses.

Secretary C. H. Marsh, of the Pendleton Commercial Association is enthusiastic over the future of his city and Umattila County, and advises that his soliciting committee will not cease their efforts until they have secured $3000 to give publicity to the resources and advantages of the County.

While cyclones and floods are visiting the South, East and Middle West, and the rising waters are destroying millions of dollars worth of farm and city property, Oregon is enjoying beautiful weather, delicious fruit, and looking forward with confidence inspired by assured crops this fall.

The court in some of the recent criminal cases in Portland should either have its vision repaired or its hearing tinkered with, so that it may take the law in a common sense manner, as the people of the world do.

What could be the sense in blowing up the flume in the Hood river country? It has a notion so obtuse that there would be a desire to interfere with the strawberry shortcake.

It is reported that Mars is again flashing signals to our earth. Possibly the inhabitants are curious to know the meaning of the large number of dry spots that have appeared on the map of the United States.

The New York Tribune says that dynamite is a problem that must be grappled with. Most people who have grappled with the dynamite problem are of the opinion that it is one that would much better be left alone.

Portland lumbermen met Monday night at the Commercial Club to arrange for a big excursion to Coos Bay. Conventions will be held at Marshfield June 24 and Bandon on the 24th.

Texas thought she was doing a big thing when she donated that pair of trousers to Taft.

pleasure of success. "The one great need of the Assembly is the hearty co-operation of each and every citizen seeking and placing a loving person in the Willamette Valley. To those who are able, the Chautauqua offers shares of stock, the proceeds of which will go to install necessary sanitary features, to beautify the grounds and to add permanency to the institution. The great majority of the best friends do not doubt do not feel able to subscribe for stock, but each one can add his mite by his attendance and a hearty word of commendation.

Treasury officials are making preparations to carry into effect the new currency law. An Associated Press dispatch from Washington says: "Assistant Secretary Coolidge conferred with Director Dalph of the bureau of engraving and printing and W. W. Eldridge of the office of comptroller of the currency, and the statement was authorized that the actual work of printing the new notes would begin within the next ten days. The new notes will be identical with the national bank notes now in use, except that the legend at the top of the face of the note, 'Secured by bonds of the United States,' will be changed to 'Secured by bonds of the United States or other securities.'"

The Deutsche Verein of this city were the guests of the Arion Society of Portland Sunday at a big picnic held at Schnoor's Grove on the Tualatin, near Willamette. A large number in attendance and the Deutsche Verein attended in a body. A large number of German songs, by the society, under the leadership of Louis Damsch, were rendered to an appreciative audience. Several numbers were played by the Woodfin-Busch orchestra, and an able ovation in the German language was delivered by Professor Marz of Macksburg, on the achievements of the German people in the field of art, science, literature and Saxon flags and evergreens, with a portrait of the Kaiser on the right and of Bismarck on the left. Athletic sports of various kinds were on the programme and many enjoyed dancing. In the evening the grove was beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns and there was a display of fireworks. The oceanarium was one of unusual enjoyment to the society and its guests.

Gus Schnoor, the proprietor of the grove, fitted it up for the occasion in first-class style, free of charge, in appreciation of which President Preceder, on behalf of the Arion society, presented him with an elegant silver mounted beer stein. The festivities continued until late in the day.

Popular Young People Married. One of the prettiest weddings that have taken place in the St. John's Catholic church in this city, was the wedding of Elsie Jordan and Mr. Otto Pett, popular young people of this city. The marriage took place on Tuesday morning. At eight o'clock the bridal party entered the main entrance of the church, the bride attended by the bridesmaid, Miss Veta Kelly, and the groom by the best man, Will Jordan, and at the altar by Mr. Father A. Hillebrand, who performed the impressive ring ceremony which made the young couple man and wife. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk mulle, and the long veil was caught in place by a spray of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Miss Kelly, the bride's maid, was prettily gowned in white organdie and carried an arm bouquet of La France roses. After the marriage ceremony the bridal party and relatives drove to the home of the groom on the West Side, where a wedding breakfast was served. The parlors were beautifully decorated in white roses and ferns and the dining room was in pink roses and ferns. Many handsome wedding gifts were received by the bridal couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Pett, after a short wedding trip to Sheridan, will return to Oregon City to make their future home.

The Knock-out Blow. The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weaken a fighter, but if a Pacific man had told one of the old fighters the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach is utterly indigestible, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and you knock out your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures earache, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request to Dr. J. C. R. H. Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Advice will be sent free, paper-bound for 21 cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Sagner-Yohann Nuptials.

Fred Yohann, a prosperous farmer of Macksburg, was united in holy wedlock at 12:30 Tuesday noon to Miss Anna Sagner, daughter of Mr. Sagner, of Estacada. The bridal party formed at the bride's home and walked to the Odd Fellows Hall, a distance of one-half block. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by a fine graphophone as the couple marched up the aisle to the platform, which was beautifully decorated. Rev. G. Hagner, pastor of the German Reform Church, of Portland, united the couple under a snow white wedding bell with the usual ring service spoken in German. A double quartette sang two German wedding songs. The bridal party was led by two small boys and two little girls all dressed in white and carrying baskets of flowers. Three sisters of the bride, Misses Gertrude, Agnes and Meta, acted as bridesmaids. William Yohann, brother of the groom, and Adolph Sagner were the witnesses. The bride looked beautiful in her white silk gown trimmed with hand embroidery and dainty flowers. Her dark tresses were crowned by a veil and orange blossom, and she carried a large bouquet of roses. The groom wore a dark blue suit.

After the ceremony the family and friends enjoyed a dinner served in true German style. Mr. and Mrs. Yohann will make their home in Macksburg. The wedding people then took a short trip to Portland, returning Thursday evening, and on Friday Mr. and Mrs. Yohann gave a return party to a large number of their neighbors in and about Macksburg at which time a most delightful evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Yohann received many gifts from their friends, which shows the true feeling of friendship existing with Mr. Yohann and his bride.

Kenyon-Bartness.

The marriage of Miss Estelle Agnes Kenyon, of this county, and James William Bartness, of Portland, was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage on Monday afternoon, Rev. John M. Linden, performing the marriage ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Multnomah county.

Stone-Bartsch.

A beautiful home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stone, of Boring, on June 3rd, when their daughter, Miss Katie Stone, was united in marriage to Mr. Eamal Bartsch, of Orient. At high noon the wedding march was played by Miss Stella Stone, sister of the bride, then came forward Rev. Snagalls, followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. Kye Stone. The bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of the bridesmaid, Miss Agnes Bartsch, who was prettily dressed in white Swiss and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride wore a beautiful gown of silk crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of cream roses.

After congratulations were extended to the happy couple, a bountiful wedding dinner was enjoyed. The parlor was beautifully decorated in Oregon grape and snow balls. Many handsome presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch, a token of high esteem in which they are held by their many friends.

Only near relatives and friends were present. The bride and groom left mid showers of rice on the evening train for a brief wedding trip. After their return they will go to home keeping near Pleasant Home, where everything is in readiness.

A Former Oregon City Girl Marries in St. John.

A very pretty wedding took place on Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Smith, of St. John, the contracting parties being Miss Stella Armstrong and Mr. George Muhm, both of St. John. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Gates, pastor of the Evangelical church. To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Della Young, of University Park, the bridal party entered the parlors, where the impressive marriage ceremony of the Evangelical church was performed in the presence of many relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

The bride, Miss Stella Armstrong, sister of the bride, who acted as bridesmaid, was attired in pink organdie and carried pink carnations, while the bride looked beautiful in white silk organdie over white silk, and her tulle veil was held in place with orange blossoms. Tressa Stuart, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Stuart, of this city, acted as ring bearer, and was dressed in white Swiss. The groom was attended by his brother, Edward Muhm. After the marriage ceremony, Miss Grace Marshall, of this city, sang very impressively "Because." During the evening a wedding supper was enjoyed by a large number of friends and relatives. Many pieces of silverware, linen and many other beautiful and useful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Muhm.

The decorations of the Smith home were elaborate with roses, palms and smilax. Mr. and Mrs. Muhm left for Piedmont, where the groom has an elegantly furnished cottage.

The bride is well known in Oregon City, having been a resident of Canemah for a number of years before moving to St. John, and is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Freeman, of Canemah.

Those who attended the wedding from this city are Mr. and Mrs. W. Freeman, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Stuart, and daughter, Tressa, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Faust, Mrs. Isaac Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Farr, Mrs. Newton Farr, Mrs. Louis Farr, Mrs. Viola Ashbaugh, Miss Mary Ellen Long, Miss Beryl Long, Miss Grace Marshall, Miss Ada Frost, Fred Freeman.

QUEEN OF ACTRESSES PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE.

"I Am Glad To Write My Endorsement Of The Great Remedy Pe-ru-na. I Do So Most Heartily." Julia Marlowe.

ANY remedy that benefits digestion strengthens the nerves. The nerve centers require nutrition. If the digestion is impaired, the nerve centers become anemic, and indigestion is the result.

Peruna is not a nerve nor a stimulant. It benefits the nerves by benefiting digestion.

Peruna frees the stomach of catarrhal congestions and normal digestion is the result.

In other words, Peruna goes to the bottom of the whole difficulty, when the disagreeable symptoms disappear. Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant street, Watsonville, Cal., writes:

"I was troubled with my stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors. They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I was put on a liquid diet for three months.

"Improved under the treatment, but as soon as I stopped taking the medicine, I got bad again.

"I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured.

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine being cured by Peruna, so I thought I would give it a trial.

"I procured a bottle at once and commenced taking it. I have taken several bottles and am entirely cured.

"I have gained in strength and feel like a different person. I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."

Nervines, such as coal tar preparations, are doing a great deal of harm. Sleep medicines and headache powders are all alike,—heart depressants, and should not be used. The nerves would be all right, if the digestion were good. Peruna corrects the digestion.
