Mrs. C. B. Dart has been very sick with tonsillitis, but is reported some better.
Mrs. Frank McLearn, of Wilhoit, passed through here last Monday en route for Oregon City.
Rev. Quinn preached to an interested audience last Sunday at Molalla at 11 o'clock, his subject being "Paul's Conversion."
Mr. and Mrs. Quinn took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moore, of Molalla Sunday.
People are again flocking to Wilhoit as the weather is getting settled again.
Grandma Dart has been quite poorly lately and does not seem to improve with the summer weather.
Shubel.
Born, to the wife of Wm. Moehnk, a daughter.
The rock crusher will be moved on Mr. Hollman's place this week.
Miss Elvora Ginthor, who has been teaching school at Marquam, came home Saturday.
Achie, the 12-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cummins, was kicked by a horse last Monday evening cracking his skull and breaking the bridge of his nose. Dr. Mount was called and did what he could. The boy is in a critical condition.
Mr. Cummins took his wife to Oregon City again, as the trouble with her eyes took a turn for the worse.
In spite of the stormy weather Saturday evening, the school house was crowded. All of the children carried out their parts well. W. W. H. Samson, sold the baskets. The net proceeds for the evening amounted to a neat sum.
The Shubel baseball team gave a dance at the Beaver Creek hall last Friday evening. They sold 42 numbers, netting $22, which very nearly puts them out of debt. The team will be re-organized this week.
The question of the day: "Where are you going to spend your Fourth?" The answer usually is, at Clarkes, of course.
The heavy rain of the past week is causing grain and grass to lodge, which means that the crop is quite good.

Miss Zilla Kirbyson was bitten in the arm by E. W. Hornshuh's dog last evening. Sunday morning Mr. Kirbyson took her to Oregon City to have a physician examine the wound.
The Best Pills Ever Sold.
"After doctoring 15 years for chronic indigestion, and spending over two hundred dollars, nothing has done me as much good as Dr. King's New Life Pills. I consider them the best pills ever sold," writes B. F. Ayasue, of Ingleside, N. C. Sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones drug store. 25c.
Carus.
Well, we are going to have a new president by and by.
The crops never looked better than just now at this time of year.
Ed. Brown is building a fine drier for his fairly good prune crop.
Mr. Driscoll is putting in crop on new ground, and is slashing lots of brush.
John Molzan is building a fine barn.
Mr. Irish is cultivating a fine crop of potatoes.
Lorenzo Wilson, of Oregon City, came quietly into our midst last Sunday and carried away one of our pretty girls before many were aware of what had taken place. Miss Millie Cox, the bride, has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, where a few favored friends gathered to witness the ceremony performed by Rev. J. P. Rinehart, which we hope will make them happy ever after. After a feast of good things, the bridal pair journeyed to Oregon City, where they will reside. Still there is more to follow.
The meeting of the Boundary Board to decide as to the forming of a new school district in Redland was well attended by those interested in the question. The matter is still under advisement of the board.
A good hay crop seems to be sure; some pieces are lodging badly.
The Gravel Bros. have taken possession of the place recently bought of Jacob Strohecker, who is moving to a place near Woodburn.
William Anderson received a serious fracture of the arm Monday, caused by a kick by a horse. The break is near the elbow and it is feared may leave a stiff arm.

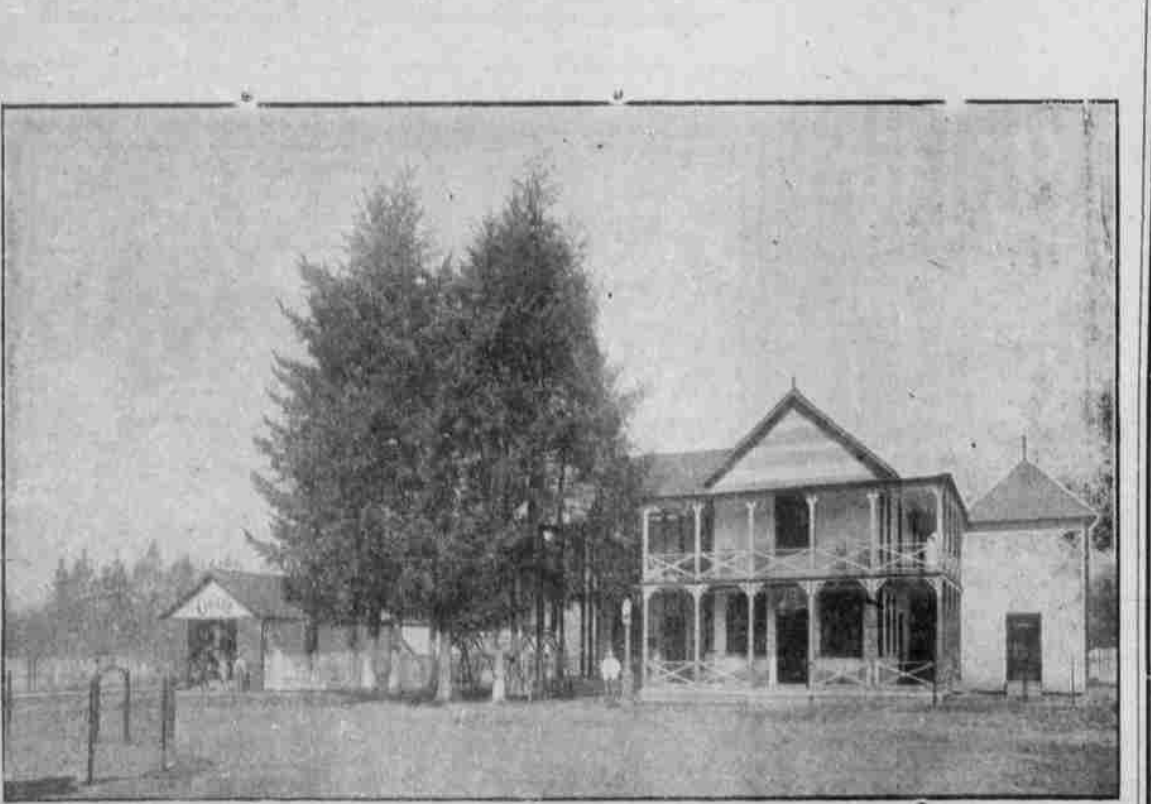

opening for some emigrant to get a good start.
Clear Creek.
Fred Wilcox, Geo. Higinbotham and Julius Spees, who have been in attendance at the State Agricultural college, are home through vacation. We wish more of our country boys and girls could be induced to take courses in such schools. It might help to solve the problem of making children content to stay with the farm instead of seeking their fortune in the city. A little more technical knowledge would improve most of us. We have got to a place where a successful farmer must be something more than a clodhopper.
A large number of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. Fred Gerber to celebrate the wedding of their daughter, Miss Nieta Gerber to Thomas A. Anderson, June 18th at high noon. The festivities were continued in the evening by a gathering of the younger people. The bride and groom are very prominent among the young people of their community, and have the hearty congratulations of all.

F. E. Taylor is finishing a barn on his mother's place.
Miss Florence Yoder, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Ritchie, near Woodburn, is at home again.
REDLAND.
Sunday at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes was the occasion of a quite a wedding, the participants being Miss Millie Cox and J. T. Wilson, of Oregon City. Rev. Reinhardt officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will make their future home in Oregon City, where Mr. Wilson is in business.
Geo. Higinbotham, F. Wilcox and Julius Spees have returned from the O. A. C. to spend their vacation. All speak highly of the O. A. C.
Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mosher, of Salem, were visiting with the latter's parents last week.
The hay crop will be about an average one. Some fields are poor, while others are good. Recent rains have caused some clover to lodge.
N. H. Smith will no doubt carry off the premium for a heavy crop, to-wit: oats, vetch and clover, which will probably go about four tons to the acre.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Gruel arrived from Montana last Thursday and are apparently glad to get back to Oregon.

which ought to bring it right up to date.
Mr. Beiersdorfer has sold his place on Cedar Creek to a party from Colorado, consideration $12,500.
F. Gruel is looking for a team that will tip the scales at about 32 to 34 hundredweight.
The foreman of the logging crew at the O. C. L. Co. camp, while taking the cylinderhead on their donkey, consequently they have shut down for repairs and possibly a new donkey of larger capacity, which is needed badly, will be purchased.
A Grand Family Medicine.
"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan, of No. 436 Houston St., New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Howell & Jones' drug store. 50 cents.
Club Meeting at Milwaukee.
The Mothers' and Teachers' Club, of Milwaukee, held its annual meeting at "The Firs," the beautiful suburban home of Miss Estella Niles, at Milwaukee Heights, on June 12th, at which time the election of officers took place, and were as follows: President, Mrs. M. L. Roberts; vice-president, Mrs. M. D. Reid; secretary, Mrs. P. S. Wissinger; treasurer, Miss Estella Niles. A grand picnic was arranged to take place at the Chautauque grounds July 14th, to which all members are invited to be present, as well as their families and their friends and all are requested to bring their lunch baskets laden with good things to eat, and enjoy a pleasant outing together, the place of gathering will be the Federation tent at 11 o'clock A. M., on the above date.
The club colors are scarlet and silver, and each member is expected to be decorated with emblems of their membership. The following committees on pennants were appointed: Mrs. Wm. Edwards, Mrs. Hesley, Mrs. Colby and Miss Estella Niles. This committee met at the residence of Mrs. Edwards, at Milwaukee Heights, Wednesday, June 16 to perfect plans.
He has the windows of the Price Bros.' gent's furnishing establishment decorated this week in real military style, representing a military officer observing approaching troops with a military reporter taking notes, the tent arms, and all that go to make up the field of battle. Mr. Price last year had a similar decoration and entered the contest in the Merchant's Record publication in the window decorations and won fourth prize against thousands of decorations.
ing school, has been elected principal of that institution. F. F. Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sullivan, has been elected instructor of the school of trades. Mr. Sullivan is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and the position he is elected to is a strong indication of his ability as an instructor. Mrs. N. C.
