William Anderson
 The funeral services of William Anderson were held at the First Methodist Church at Oregon City Friday, July 3, conducted by Rev. J. P. Reinhart of Viola. Mr. Anderson was born in Ohio in 1853, and has lived in this community for the last seven years. He leaves a wife, one son and one stepson, two brothers and three sisters. The brothers and sisters, none of whom could be present, are Geo. W. Anderson, of New Mexico; Chas. Anderson, of Iowa; Mrs. Sarah Storks, Oakville, Iowa; Mrs. Maggie Luit and Mrs. Eliza Hayden, of Wapello, Iowa. On June 22nd, Mr. Anderson received a kick from a horse causing a very bad fracture and wound on the right arm. The case was put in the hands of Dr. Strickland, who after a consultation decided to remove the patient to the North Pacific Sanatorium in Portland, but blood poisoning developed so rapidly that it was not thought advisable to remove the arm and the best of skill and care was unable to check the disease. After an illness of about ten days he passed away July 1st. His family were with him at the last. Undertaker J. Myers brought the remains to Oregon City, where the funeral was held and was largely attended by friends and the Woodman Lodge, of which deceased was a member. Interment was made in the Mountain View cemetery. The service was very affecting and the floral decorations very beautiful.

Mr. Anderson was a hard working man, and his sober, conscientious and upright life won the esteem of all who knew him. We lose with him a good citizen, a thoughtful husband and father, and a true friend. To the grief-stricken family this has been a terrible blow, and they have our sincere sympathy. These things only show our helplessness in the hands of Providence.

Alva Allen and wife and Miss Anna Kredt of Portland are visiting friends in Redland this week.

There being no celebration in the immediate vicinity many went to Highland and Estacada to celebrate. Others went in family parties to the shady nooks along Clear Creek.

A mill hand at the Clear Creek Lumber Company had a narrow escape last week. His clothing caught on a planer shaft and after whirling him around a few times tore loose. He was slightly hurt internally, but no bones broken. He was taken to a Portland hospital but will soon recover.

Mr. Hubert has about finished the road work, and we have a mile of good macadamized road.

W. H. Mattson went to Oregon City Monday to take his position as a member of the county court.

Mrs. J. P. Fullam, of Portland, spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fullam.

The District Boundary Board has granted the petition to form a new school district in Redland and notices have been posted calling for a meeting of the voters to organize the new district on the 20th inst. at the home of E. N. Brock. The people of the proposed district have cause to feel jubilant over the success of the proposition.

Peter Wilson is on the sick list.

Meadowbrook.
 The Glorious Fourth was celebrated by our folks with a true spirit of patriotism. The fire crackers crackled, the soda bottles popped and the eagle screamed.

And now the hum of the mower is heard in the land, while the new mown hay and the sweet scented clover blossoms is everywhere prevalent.

Liberal may be a dry town, but some of our folks say it did not look that way the Fourth of July.

New Era
 The ice cream and strawberry social given by the W. C. T. U. on Wednesday night was a splendid affair. All went well until a small boy threw a lighted firecracker into the window and exploded setting Helen Spulak's dress on fire. As quick as a flash Mr. Dunn went out through the window and led the lady in by the coat collar.

Attorney Frank Seem, of Portland, was a guest at the Bradt farm over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dustin drove up to Donald Sunday. Donald's where a sub-station is located on the Salem and Portland electric line.

Mrs. Anna Pennman Wright is visiting her mother on the farm this week.

New Era was a quiet burg on the Fourth, only a few gallons of booze drifted into Doernbecher's Camp and put blood in some of their eyes and as the result one man set a clock down on his friends head in such a manner as to put him out of commission for a while—a modern style of setting a clock.

Jack Slaughter, accompanied by his mother-in-law, Grandma May, came down from Molalla Friday where Mr. Slaughter has been employed on the county road.

Chas. Slyter, formerly of this place, passed through town Friday evening as mail clerk on the Cottage Grove local. Lester Leland, another former resident of this place, also passed through Sunday morning doing mail clerk duties.

Wm. Brown, of Pife, Oregon, is visiting his brothers, Robert and Geo. H. this week.

Ivan Lance left his team standing in the road Monday and went over to the flouring mill for a few minutes and an automobile came whirling along and the team went home on the double quick. Very little damage was done.

Messrs. Dustin, Burgoyne and Dustin are building an addition on the rear end of the tabernacle on the camp ground.

The Spiritualist Camp-meeting begins next Saturday and lasts until the 5th of August. Good speakers and good mediums will be present during the whole session. Come and enjoy a good shade and be highly entertained.

All pattern Hats reduced. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Barton
 About a carload of people went to Eagle Creek last Sunday to see the best ball nine in Clackamas county get "beat" by the coons of Portland, the "Golden West" team, and they saw it, 7 to 0 "agin" the Crickets. It is rumored that the Crickets will take revenge on the coons in the same place in two weeks.

The people of this vicinity seem to have spent a very enjoyable Fourth—no one killed and but few married.

There isn't much to say to the person who rolled away the little keg, but be sure to return the same to the brewery.

Logan
 There was rather a short attendance at the meeting of Harding Grange on July 2nd, but those that were there made good use of the time. The fair was discussed, but as some of the committee was absent the arrangements were not completed. Every member would make himself or herself a committee of one to hustle a little, and it will be a grand success. Noisy patriotism on the 4th of July was discussed and several were of the opinion that fire crackers and small boys make a rather dangerous combination. There was quite a talk about washing machines and the general opinion that do the work all right and are far ahead of the old hand. Several grangers hauled the lumber for the horse barn soon to be built, from Tellefson's mill.

G. D. Nicolai has sold his farm and will return to Montana. It seems hard to get a permanent resident on that place, as it is the third transfer in a few years. Rumors of other sales are thick in the air.

Several Logan people went to Estacada on the 4th, and C.N. Tracy had a runaway after returning, but fortunately no damage was done.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray were out from Portland on the 4th, and the latter, known to old residents as Olive Chase, was renewing girlhood acquaintances and visited the place of her birth on Henry Babler's farm.

We are glad to note that our old friend Willard W. Austen was elected school superintendent of Grant County.

It is reported of what appears to be good authority, that Pat O'Connor is in the Washington penitentiary for 20 years for assaulting a man who became insane as the result.

The Parkplace boys defeated the Logan team last Sunday, the score being 8 to 6.

A. Swales is going to retire from active farming and has rented his farm to Henry Swales. He will build a house on a portion of the place and prepare to take it easier from now on. Mr. Swales has worked hard in improving his fine farm and deserves the success he has achieved.

Peter Wilson is sick and is living with his son, F. O. Wilson, for a while.

Molalla
 Splendid Summer weather for haying. Why don't city folks who are looking for a mountain climb rush for the hay fields and help the farmer out and not throw away their energy for naught?

Many of our people celebrated at Wright's Springs and there was a "Liberal" representation too, to assist in making the American Eagle scream.

C. I. Gipson has returned to Molalla from Portland, and will build a barn for G. W. Myers.

Frank Adams and John Trullinger are building a barn for Mr. Malatt.

J. L. Tubbs is having a tank tower built.

Both of the Woodcock saw mills have closed down for the summer.

Thos. Husband, of Hood River, is visiting relatives and friends of Molalla, and thinks the old Willamette Valley looks good to him.

Russellville.
 Most of the people in this burg are patriotic. Most all celebrated at Wright's Springs and seemed to have a fine time. The topics of the day were as usual and with all the program there was a single tax speaking.

Haying will commence in this country soon. The grass is very good and the grain crop is fair, and some of it is near at hand.

The coyotes are still having a good time, as the weather is warm and the dogs cannot run.

This season has been unfavorable for corn, although it is doing fairly well in this country.

Our neighbor, Pettar, has his new barn about completed. New house and new barn all at once, will run well together.

Ike Gipson, of Portland, is now in our country en route to the mountains with Archie Boyles, for recreation.

The strawberry crop here is very good, and will be a good thing for the growers.

Mr. Wingfield's best cow brought forth a fine calf a few days ago, which was a present to the folks and was well received.

Road work is suspended for a while. Much good work has been done in the way of grading, but no graveling nor plank as yet.

Valley looks good to him.
 Charles Thomas, wife and Hattie, started for Wabburg, Wash., Monday morning, where they expect to spend two months in the wheat fields. A bumper crop of strawberries has just been harvested on the Oak Point Farm.

George Daugherty has built a shed on the east side of his farm.

 Went to the cupboard
 She wanted some Flour to bake;
 But so many kinds
 She there did find
 'Twas hard to tell which to take.

 Calmly reposing upon a shelf
 She spied a sack of

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM ANDERSON.
 Well-Known Clackamas County Resident Dies in Portland.

The funeral of William Anderson, a highly respected farmer who resided near Redland, was held from the M. E. church, of this city on Friday afternoon, and Rev. H. Reinhart had charge of the services. Many friends of the deceased residing in and near Redland, besides many of this city, attended the funeral. The floral offerings were beautiful and the casket was banded with them.

Mr. Anderson's death was caused by a kick from a fractious horse at his home Monday, and the arm was broken. He was taken to Portland, where an operation was to be performed, but blood poisoning set in and death resulted in a few days afterwards. The deceased leaves a wife and two sons, residing at Redland.

Mr. Anderson was a member of the Woodmen lodge and many members of that organization attended the funeral. The interment took place at Mountain View cemetery.

Best the World Affords.
 "It gives me unbounded pleasure" to recommend Beckler's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied. 35c at the Jones Drug Co. drug store."
