Portland Business College

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal

☛ We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.

☛ Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."

☛ Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free. References: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

An idyll, that may be made an actual experience by many a town family longing for a summer's outing, and dreading the labor and expense of a journey far from home, is suggested in the charming story, "The Forest of Ardun," contributed to a current issue of The Youth's Companion by Mary E. Mitchell, one of the paper's most valued staff writers.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

T. G. LENNON

The Courier Only $1.50 Year

The OREGON GIRL

MISS IDA MAY GARMIRE, the most remarkable and only lady rapid artist on the Coast, and the second in the United States, will paint beautiful oil pictures in the front window of the Courier office, in the Weinhard building, corner Main and Eighth Streets, opposite Court House. We are astonished at the life likeness of her paintings. No description can adequately convey to your imagination what has been accomplished by this lady. "Where rolls the Oregon," The mighty mountain peaks of Hood, Rainier and Adams; the pictures of wood and lake; clouds and birds, with nature's reflection from the bosom of the still waters of the deep and the foaming breakers of the Pacific as they dash against the rocks, will astonish, and please, and fascinate, and delight all who will take the time to stop in front of the Courier window.

We look forward with pleasure to this new sensation—this fresh movement—this advantage exceeding all other advantages in premiums. Not a man, woman, or child within the reading circle of the Courier should fail to see her at work in the front window of the Courier office from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. beginning Monday, July 6. Miss Garmire, the girl artist, is a wonder, with brush and no mistake—it is nature's gift.

The Courier's Great Gift to Secure Subscribers

We will give a $5.00 painting of mountain dale and glen; of lake, wood and forest; of home field and path in the woods, and beside the still waters of the lake, reflecting mountain forest and cloud; the rippling stream; the majesty of nature; a memory of golden opportunities of the past. For $2.00 we now offer a year's subscription to the Courier and one of these beautiful oil paintings as a premium. Make this your business week in the city. Ask your neighbor, "Do you take the Courier?" Tell them of this opportunity over the telephone. Come and see more than we can possibly tell you.
