Ordinance No. —

An ordinance permitting the Hawley Pulp and Paper Company to construct and maintain a bridge across Main Street, Oregon City, Oregon.

Oregon City does ordain as follows: Section 1. That the Hawley Pulp and Paper Company is hereby granted the right and privilege to construct and maintain for the term of twenty years from the date of the passage of this ordinance an over-head bridge across Main Street on the Mill Reserve from its warehouse on the easterly side of Main Street over to its mill on the westerly side of said street.

Section 2. That said structure shall be not less than 21 feet in the clear above the grade of said street and no supports shall be made within the space of the present roadway and shall be constructed in a workmanlike manner and be kept painted and clean, and said Hawley Pulp and Paper Company shall save the City and any of its officers harmless on account of any injury to any person or property growing out of the construction or maintenance of said bridge.

Section 3. If the said Company, its successors and assigns shall fail to keep and perform any or all of the terms, provisions, restrictions or conditions of this ordinance, the City Council of Oregon City may declare all the rights and privileges granted by this ordinance forfeited and may repeal this ordinance.

Section 4. That the said Hawley Pulp
