Ordinance No —

An ordinance giving and granting to the Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors and assigns, privileges and rights to erect, maintain, use and remove poles, wires, cables, ducts, appliances, and apparatus for conducting and using electricity in, under, upon and over certain streets, alleys, roads, ways, public parks and public grounds of the city of Oregon City, in the county of Clackamas, state of Oregon, within the limits and boundaries of said city, as said city now is and hereafter may be bounded and constituted and have its limits.

Oregon City does ordain as follows:

Section 1. That Portland Railway Light and Power Company (a corporation incorporated, organized and existing under the laws of the state of Oregon, and having its principal office at the city of Portland, Oregon), its successors and assigns, be and they are hereby given and granted the franchises and right to erect, maintain, use and remove electric light, electric power (and for any and all purposes for which electricity may now or hereafter be used) poles, wires, cables, ducts, appliances and apparatus, and other poles, wires, cables, ducts, appliances and apparatus for conducting and using electricity in, under, upon and over any and all of the following streets and public grounds of or in said city of Oregon City, to-wit: On all of Water street; on Twelfth street from Water street to east side of Main street; on Main street from a point 20 feet south of south line of Twelfth street to the northern limits of said city, as said city now is, and hereafter may be, bounded, constituted and have its limits, to enable or assist the said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors and assigns, to carry on and conduct its and their business elsewhere than in said city, now and hereafter bounded, constituted and having its limits (or as a part of the business or system of said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors and assigns) for supplying other towns, cities and their inhabitants, and the public, with electricity.

Section 2. That said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors and assigns, shall erect, maintain and use such poles, wires, cables, ducts, appliances and apparatus so as not to interfere with the free and unobstructed use of said streets or roads, for travel, and all such poles shall be placed and maintained in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of Ordinance No. 205 of Oregon City, entitled: "An ordinance to provide for the erection, care or removal of telephone, teleragph and electric wires and poles. Passed November 17th, 1897. Approved November 19th, 1897," as now amended or as the same may be hereafter amended.

Section 3. That all poles, wires, cables, appliances and apparatus, heretofore and now erected and in use by said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, on that part of Main street north of Twelfth street, of said city, and used for the transmission of electricity to points without the corporate limits of said Oregon City, and the erection thereof are hereby approved, ratified and arffimed, and, in all respects, shall be, and be deemed to be covered and within the franchise and rights herein granted, as though erected or used under such franchise and rights herein given or granted or any such franchise or rights herein contained.

Section 4. Whenever it shall become necessary in the erection, maintenance, use or removal of such poles, wires, cables, ducts, appliances and apparatus for the said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors or assigns, to dig into or in any manner interfere with any street, alley, way, public park or public ground of said city, said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors and assigns, shall, without delay, put such street, alley, way, public park or public ground in as good condition as it was before it was broken up, dug up, or destroyed, and shall remove all surplus sand, earth, rubbish or other material caused by such erection, maintenance or removal by said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors or assigns. The surface of no street shall be dug into or in any manner opened without the permission of the council of Oregon City, or a duly authorized committee thereof, first in writing obtained.

Section 5. Said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors and assigns, in consideration of the franchise, rights and privileges granted by this ordinance, and as compensation therefor, shall within thirty days from the date of the passage of this ordinance, enter into a written agreement with Oregon City, granting to Oregon City an extension of term (with all its terms and conditions) of a certain indenture of lease made and entered into on the 6th day of April, 1891, by and between the Willamette Transportation and Locks Company, a corporation, party of the first part thereto, and said Oregon City, party of the second part thereto, and which is recorded in the Records of Clackamas County, Oregon in Book of Deeds No. 47 at page 99 et seq thereof and which agreement shall provide that said lease dated April 6, 1891, shall be extended to and shall terminate at the expiration of the term of the trancise granted by this ordinance to said Portand Railway Light and Power Company. Provided that such agreement may provide for the relinquishment by Oregon City of the lands now occupied by said Oregon City under said indenture of lease dated April 6, 1891, and may also provide for the use of the water for power purposes leased by said indenture of lease at other places and upon other land than htat occupied by said Oregon City under said lease dated April 6, 1891. And the failure of said Portland Railway Light and Power Company to execute an agreement extending the term of said indenture of lease, as aforesaid, within thirty days from the date of the passage of this ordinance shall render this ordinance null and void and all the rights herein granted shall remain in and revert to said Oregon City.

The consideration provided for in this section shall be in full compensation to the said Oregon City, during the life of this ordinance, and no license, tax or charge on the franchise or rights or privileges granted under this ordinance shall during the existence of the rights granted by this ordinance be imposed upon, or exacted from said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors or assigns; this provision shall not exempt poperty of said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its sucessors or assigns, from lawful taxation.

Section. 6 The failure of the said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors or assigns, to at all times conform to each and all the provisions of this ordinance and the provisions of said indenture of lease herein mentioned, or as said indenture of lease may be extended or modified, or to comply with all reasonable rules and regualtions of Oregon City as hereinbefore provided, shall operate as a forfeiture of all the rights, franchises and privileges granted by this ordinance.

Section 7. All rights, powers and privileges hereby granted shall terminate at the expiration of twenty-five years from the date of acceptance of this franchise and all of the provisions of this ordinance shall inure to, apply to and bind the sucessors and assigns of said Portland Railway Light and Power Company.

Section 8. The Portland Railway Light and Power Company shall, within thirty days from and after the passage of this ordinance, file with the recorder of Oregon City, its written acceptance thereof.

Section 9. This ordinance shall become effective and be in full force from and after its acceptance by said Portland Railway Light and Power Company, its successors or assigns. Provided, however, that failure of said Portland Railway Light and Power Company to file its written acceptance as aforesaid and also to execute the said agreement extending the term of indenture of lease mentioned in Section Five of this ordinance, shall render this ordinance void and the same shall not be in force or effect.

Read first time and ordered published at a special meeting of the council of Oregon City, held Wednesday, July 8th, 1908.

By order of the council of Oregon City.

W. A. DIMICK, Recorder.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR A Liquor License. Notice is hereby given that I will, at the next regular meeting of the city council, apply for a license to sell liquor at my place of business, Main and Fourth streets, formerly Stewart Place, for a period of three months.

Sues for Balance.

George W. Hadden has filed a suit in the circuit court against W. E. Purdy to recover the balance due on the agreed purchase price of a grocery store at View, Wash., which was sold October 30, 1907, for $903. The plaintiff says only $338 of this amount has been paid and the balance of $565 was secured by a note given to Hadden by T. J. Teeters, due in five months from the date of the sale. It is charged that Teeters is now insolvent.
