"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal

☐ We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.

☐ Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."

☐ Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free. References: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

LOCAL NOTES

J. P. Hunt, a well known resident of Woodburn, made a business trip to this city Monday morning, returning the same day.

Miss Erma Draper, an employee of the Pacific Telephone Company of this city, is spending her vacation at Seaside.

Mr. T. J. Kirk, working a farm of 20 acres in the Highland vicinity, was in town yesterday transacting business.

Miss Pearl and Blanche Miller and Messrs. Henry and Herman Brand of this city spent a delightful Sunday at Willhoit.

Oregon City Courier for one year, and beautiful oil painting, all for $2.00. Send in your subscriptions at once. Over 200 paintings to select from.

Father Pryer, of Mount Angel, was in town Sunday and missed his evening train causing him some delay, and giving him time to pass a short time with friends in this city.

It's like a summer breeze; cools, refreshes and builds up your wasting energies. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the most effective summer tonic. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Huntley Bros. Company.

Those whose work afield requires their early rising, enjoy the most beautiful part of the day. The picture of daybreak illuminating the eastern sky, and the sun breaking through the mists of dawn, is one never to be forgotten, and it is one illusive that painters have tried in vain adequately to put it on canvas.

Mr. Matth. Perlot, residing three miles above Willamette, was in this city on business Saturday. Mr. Perlot is making a strenuous effort to put his farm of 65 acres in A 1 condition and from the present appearance he is bound to succeed. He followed the example of many others and secured the Courier for the year to come.

Miss Pearl Johnson, of Eugene, who has been the guest of the Misses Minnie and Effie Grace the past week, camping on the famous Cheautauqua grounds, returned to her home Saturday. The young ladies had a most delightful two weeks' outing enjoying the lectures and various numbers on the program, and the while battling with the festive songsters of famous mandible propensities.

A tub or barrel often drops down for want of a hoop. If everybody knew how easy it is to make a hoop from a wire—perhaps a piece of waste telegraph wire often seen by the roadside—the work would not wait. Simply bend the wire around the tub to measure it, remove it and twist it fast. Then drive it on like a hoop; drive it fast. It will not break, and being galvanized it will last indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kestin, Mrs. James Laidlow, wife of the British consulate, and Mrs. Chas. Chenery, all of Portland, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Francis Freeman at Willamette Friday. The evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music, Mrs. Freeman serving dainty refreshments to her guests. The whole party had a delightful day on the picturesque banks of the Willamette and enjoying the beautiful scenery about this region, and were quite unwilling to board the evening car for their respective homes in Portland, when the hour for their departure had arrived.

Great reduction in millinery. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Elmer Ross of Salem was a Sunday visitor in Oregon City.

Joseph Wolfer of LaCamas, Wash., is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Marjorie Canfield is attending the convention of the Degree of Honor in Portland this week.

Rayne Sargent left Sunday afternoon for Seattle, Wash., where he will conduct a printing office.

Willard Hawley, who for the past four weeks has been dangerously ill with typhoid fever, is reported much improved.

Oregon City Courier for one year, an beautiful oil painting, all for $2.00. Send in your subscriptions at once. Over 200 paintings to select from.

August Rakel returned Monday night from Chehalis, Wash., where he has been working for the last three months for Price Bros. of this city.

Mrs. M. Henry of this city has been removed to St. Vincent's hospital at Portland to undergo an operation for the removal of a tumor. Mrs. Henry is in charge of Dr. Sommer.

It soothes, refreshes, strengthens and purifies the stomach, bowels and kidneys. A tonic that prevents summer troubles. Such is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Huntley Bros. Company.

Ray Barbur and Ralph Green of the Western Union Telegraph office of this city, left Thursday morning for a week's outing at Willhoit Springs. During their absence the telegraph business will be conducted by Elmer Bacon and Bert Mayo.

Judge George T. Baldwin, vice president of the Oregon Development League, and Mr. W. O. Smith, editor of the Klamath Falls Evening Herald, were in Portland Saturday as a special committee from the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce to invite the Y. M. C. A. excursion party which goes to Crater Lake August 27th, to arrange their itinerary so as to include a visit to Klamath Falls.

The colonist rates from all points in the east to all points in Oregon commence Sept. 1st and continue until Oct. 31st. Every commercial organization and every citizen of Oregon should begin to make these rates the subject of every letter that goes out of the state. The fare is $80 from Missouri river points, St. Paul, Duluth and Winnipeg, $83 from St. Louis and $85 from Chicago, with proportionate rates from every point in the United States.

The Guard says that "Eugene is undoubtedly making greater strides cityward than any town in Oregon. It is growing at a pace that even a year ago would not have seemed possible, surpassing the most sanguine predictions of the advocates of the plan of street paving and other public improvements. All that is necessary for a continuation of this growth is to keep up the same policy of progressiveness—and the western trend of immigration will do the rest."

DEATH OF JOHN FLETCHER CAPLES.

Oregon Pioneer Crosses the Range—Leading Citizen, Lawyer and Politician.

John Fletcher Caples died at his home at 1701 East 11th street, Sellwood, at 5 o'clock Friday morning. Deceased was stricken with paralysis October 19, 1906, and never fully regained his health. He was overcome by the heat Friday of last week and sank into a comatose state from which he never roused.

Mr. Caples was born in Fosteria, Ohio, January 12, 1833. He located in Portland in 1864, engaging in the practice of law. He was elected a member of the legislature in 1873 and during the 80s was thrice elected district attorney, serving six years in that capacity.

He was thrice elected as a republican presidential elector and upon the election of McKinley was elected to the electoral vote of Oregon for that distinguished citizen. He was made U. S. consul by McKinley and spent four years at Valparaiso in the discharge of the duties of that honorable position. Returning to Portland with his firm, Caples & Allen, continuing in that profession until 1906.

Prominent in Methodist circles in Oregon, he was sent as a delegate to the quadrennial conference of the church at Cincinnati in 1896. He stood high in Masonry, having reached the thirty-second degree.

The funeral was held at Taylor street M. E. church, Portland, at 2 o'clock Monday. The Masonic lodge had charge of services at the grave. Interment at Riverview cemetery.

Portland Business College.

The persistence with which the Portland Business College insistently hammers away at quality is most admirable. If there is any one feature on which special attention should be placed in educational matters it is thorough work. This splendid school has an advertisement in our columns, to which attention is called. It is not often that the Courier prints an announcement so attractive and so well worded. Anyone interested in a practical education should write for a catalogue of the Portland Business College, and learn of the many advantages it offers.

How to Make Cold Meat Loaf.

Avoid warm hashes in summer and have in their place a cold meat loaf that can be served cold," writes Christine Terhune Herriek in Woman's Home Companion for August. "Chop your remnants of steak or roast fine, mix with them one-third as much cold boiled ham or tongue, season well, and add a couple of raw eggs beaten light. If rather dry moisten with gravy or stock, turn into a greased mold with plain sides, cover, set in a baking pan with hot water about it, and bake for an hour. This loaf may also be made with raw beef, but then it must cook for two hours. Let it get very cold before turning out, and slice. Yeast loaf may be prepared by this recipe, and even cold roast lamb may be treated in the same manner. The main point to be borne in mind is the seasoning. Be careful that this is well done and you will have a popular dish."

ECZEMA PATIENT LOST HOPE.

But Ordinary Oil of Wintergreen Quickly Cured This Woman.

After treating for eczema with six different doctors, Mrs. J. A. Wheeler, of Wellington, Ohio, was completely cured by pure vegetable oil of wintergreen. This oil alone could not cure, but she used this oil as compounded with glycerine, etc., in D. D. D. Prescription.

"I feel it my duty to say what a wonderful cure D. D. D. has been for me," writes Mrs. Wheeler. "I was cured a year ago in fall, but did not dare write because I was not sure the cure would be permanent. I had doctored with six doctors and they all said it was seldom, if ever, a case like mine was cured. I think I used only four bottles of D. D. D. and I am permanently cured. If I ever needed D. D. D. again, I would be willing to pay $5.00 a bottle."

This remedy and also D. D. D. Soap are sold by and recommended because we know their merits. We certainly would not recommend them to our neighbors and patrons if we did not positively know of the wonderful results that D. D. D. brings in all kinds of skin diseases. Jones Drug Co.
