

Portland Business College

—"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"—

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon. A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal

☐ We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.

☐ Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." ☐ Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."

☐ Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free.

Mrs. W. A. Showman, Jr., and son, Alon, with Mrs. J. H. Robertson of Portland were enjoying a river trip to The Dalles Wednesday on the steamer Bailey Gatzert.

Seaside is getting its share of Oregon City resort enthusiasts and among the new arrivals at Necanicum Inn are Mrs. Lena Charman and daughter Miss June, where they will spend two weeks.

Mothers—Have you tried Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea? It's a great blessing to the little ones, keeps away summer troubles. Makes them sleep and grow. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Huntley Bros. Co.

J. M. Parker, a Portland man, dropped out of sight suddenly at Tacoma last week Thursday. He was enroute to the Eagles convention at Seattle and was with his sister, who has been making diligent search since.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lewthwaite, Miss Alice Stone and Miss Alice Lewthwaite are enjoying a few weeks' stay on the Lewthwaite homestead, near Captain Young's place. The homestead is of recent completion and is very cozy and nicely fitted.

A hunting party consisting of the following persons started for Southern Oregon Sunday morning, where they will camp and hunt for three weeks and possibly a month: Messrs. H. S. Moody, Wallace Cole, Hank Stratton, and William Lopez.

An automobile party enroute for Mt. Hood for an outing, left Friday morning, and will be gone until September. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cheney and son, Oren, and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Thompson, of Marietta, Cal.

Miss Josephine Chase, formerly of this city, and who resided with her aunt, Mrs. R. D. Wilson, is engaged in the millinery business at Thornton. Miss Chase, who was in poor health while in this city, is enjoying the best of health since her removal to Thornton.

Hon. C. J. Blanchard, of the United States Reclamation Service, is in Oregon and will spend thirty days inspecting the various government irrigation projects. He reports such a mass of inquiry at his home office that the clerks are scarcely able to answer intending colonists.

Four hundred thousand feet of lumber were bought by Swift & Co. this past week for use on their town site near the plant now being built. Twenty-five dwellings will be started immediately, some quite pretentious. Hundreds of smaller homes will go up as rapidly as practicable.

Miss Jennie Wilkinson and Mr. R. A. Boyd were united in marriage at Albany, N. Y., at the home of Mr. Boyd, Wednesday, Aug. 13th. Miss Wilkinson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkinson of this city and has been visiting friends in New York state for the past year, meeting Mr. Boyd there some time ago.

Professor Gilbert, of the Leland Stanford University, and his son were in Oregon City the first of last week on business. He also visited Cazadero and Clackamas Station, accompanying the members of the United States Bureau of Fisheries and is making some scientific observations pertaining to the salmon and trout fishing on the Pacific coast.

Numerous meetings of the committee in charge of entertaining the Oregon athletes soon to return from London bearing their world records from the Olympic games, have resulted in a decision to send the sporting editors of the three Portland dailies east to meet the athletes and escort them to the coast. Many exciting features will be introduced in the parade and reception given here—date will be early in September.

Mrs. Grant B. Dimick left Monday morning for Newport.

Mrs. Addie McClure has returned to her home, after visiting friends at Brownsville.

Mr. Halvax is to do the work under Ernest Miller, the contractor of Portland. There are 55 rooms to be grained in oak, and there will be extensive interior and exterior decorations, painting, etc. The work will cover over a period of four months. Mr. Halvax will take his fine bird dog with him and will return to this city occasionally just to let the people know that he is still bagging the Chinns.

Death of R. V. Walker.

R. V. Walker of this city died Friday evening at the Northern Pacific Sanitarium, Portland, Oregon, after a long illness. He was a prominent Mason and a member of the G. A. R. of this city, and died at the age of 84 years. His funeral was held Sunday at 10:30 a. m. from the Masonic hall, and the services were in charge of Multnomah Lodge. He came here from Michigan about 32 years ago. He had three children: R. Walker, whose home is in Minnesota; Mrs. G. B. Cheney, of San Francisco, and Mrs. E. F. Harrington, of St. John, Co. He was a Knight Templar, a member of the Shrine and of the Eastern Star. His wife died about 15 years ago. He has been making his home at the Electric Hotel in this city.

Denies Charges Made by Wife.

W. A. Lynd, of Willamette, filed a cross complaint against his wife charging her with cruel and inhuman treatment, and also that she is unfit to bring up the children, and asking for the custody of them. She accuses him of non-support, cruel and inhuman treatment, and asks for divorce on these grounds.

New School Building.

Seven hundred and fifty dollars has been raised by the people of Clackamas, at a special meeting held in Clackamas school August 15, to build a new school building in East Clackamas. There is a school there at present but it is in poor condition. The people of that locality are very active and are doing everything to give the children every advantage possible. Several teachers have filed applications with the clerk of the school board, but none have as yet been considered.

Death of Mrs. W. W. Quinn.

Mrs. Mary Quinn, wife of W. W. Quinn, of Canemah, died at the family home at 6 o'clock Friday morning from stomach trouble, having been a sufferer from that malady for several months. Mrs. Quinn was born in Starkbury, Mass., in 1845, and came to Oregon about twenty years later, and was married to her husband the year following, at which time they moved to Canemah where they have since resided. Besides her husband five daughters and three sons survive her, Mrs. Clara Brock, of Spokane, Mrs. Adale Crisenger, of Portland, and Ella, Charlotte and Emma Quinn, of Canemah, William Quinn, of Idaho, and Ferdinand and Frank Quinn of Canemah. Mrs. Quinn was a good and kindly neighbor and friend and a good mother and had the respect of a wide circle of friends and neighbors. The funeral was held from the family home Sunday at three P. M. and interment was made in the Canemah cemetery.

Why James Lee Got Well.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, has believed he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the king of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee by Jones Drug Co. 50c and $1. YEARLY PROFIT

PROSPERITY depends more upon investment than any other source of profit. Good investments are as difficult to find as needles in a haystack.

REAL ESTATE is the basis of all wealth. It has made more big fortunes than all other investments combined. Provided it is wisely located, it is impossible to lose.

THE NORTHWEST is the center of greater real estate activity than any other part of the United States. Even Eastern capital knows it and invests.

OREGON has more wealth-making opportunities than any other State in the Union. Its resources are phenomenal. The development of the State means riches for the City.

PORTLAND real estate investments pay from 90 to 100 per cent annually. We have several that require a few dollars a month and will net the investor big money and earn an annual profit. For particulars mail the coupon
