Portland Business College

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal

¶ We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.

¶ Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."

¶ Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free.

Brigadier-General Crawford, who was a former resident of this city and who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. C. Stevens, left Monday for his home in Washington, D. C. General Crawford came to Oregon City in 1847 and recalls many interesting stories of early life here.

The Post Card Emporium store of this city opened Friday evening under new management, the new proprietors being Mr. and Mrs. Pelletier, of Portland, who purchased the store some days ago but did not take full possession until Friday. The consideration for the same was about $600.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Robinson, who have been visiting with Mrs. Robinson's mother for the past summer, left by steamer Saturday morning for their home, and will stop at San Francisco for a short time before going to their home in Chico, California.

Rev. T. F. Bowen, who has been having a most delightful outing on Mount Hood, with W. B. Stafford, who has made many trips to the mountain, has returned and the two gentlemen are overjoyed at the grandeur of the scenery and the quantities of berries. The week of rugged outdoor pastime put a fine brown color on their faces.

E. D. Kelley left Thursday morning for Salem where he will visit his sister-in-law, Mrs. Craig, for a few days. On his return to this city he will start on an eastern trip through New York, Micigan, and several other states, visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Kelley made this trip a year ago, spending several weeks.

Mr. J. Tracey, owning property on Fourth street of this city, is moving one of his houses over on the vacant lot next to it, and will build a new house where the old one stood. The contract for the raising and moving was taken by Harry Jones, and the work is being superintended by Mr. Joe Rennar, of this city.

Mrs. C. E. Becker, of Chicago, Ill., who was in the city Thursday evening, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond, of Gladstone, left Saturday morning for Eugene, where she will spend three weeks with her sister, Mrs. P. K. Hammond. Mrs. Becker visited Seattle, Wash., also, and will go home by the way of California.

Mr. D. K. Bill left Sunday morning for the East, where he will attend the G. A. R. encampment at Toledo, and visit several states, distributing circular information of Oregon and Clackamas county, as an inducement to locate Eastern people in this state and county. He called at the Courier office for a large bundle of the late editions, which he states he wished to use in connection with his talks to his eastern friends about Clackamas county.

C. G Miller is remodeling his residence on the bluff on Seventh St., and will make quite extensive repairs on same. The main part of the building will be raised to allow two sleeping rooms on the second floor, a very large bungalow style front porch. The work of improvement will be carried pretty much throughout the whole house, and Mr. Miller has planned to make good use of the commodious front veranda, where he proposes to sit and while away the pleasant hours of Oregon's delightful evenings listening to the twitter of the lark, and dreaming of the coveys of China pheasants.

Miss Ada Frost and Miss Beryl Long returned the first of the week from a week's sojourn at Newberg.

Michael Driscol fell from the Southern Pacific trestle north of this city, a distance of 15 feet, early Monday morning, lying there for two hours unconscious before being discovered. He was taken to Dr. Meisner and treated. His injuries consisted of several cuts and bruises about the head but nothing serious.

C. H. Brownaugh, one of the proprietors of the Journal, published at Turlock, California, was a pleasant caller at the Courier office last Saturday. Mr. Brownaugh was unusually well pleased with the appearance of our little city and its picturesque surroundings, and expresed his desire, as many others do when visiting our city, that it might fall to his lot to some time reside here.

T. J. Gary, county superintendent of schools, left Wednesday for an outing at Aschoffs. He will be joined by friends from Portland, the party remaining for a week at the popular resort. Mr. Gary while in the vicinity will make it a point to assist in the work of organizing a new school at Sandy, which is badly needed in that section, and the people there have requested Mr. Gary's presence, knowing his ability in this work.

Many Successful in Exams.

County Superintendent T. J. Gary has completed the examination papers of the semi-annual examinations which were held in this city recently. There were 78 applicants and out of that number 25 will receive first-grade certificates, 21 second grade, and 27 third grade. A prominent feature in the larger number of successful applicants appears to be due to the fact that the profession has slowly but surely become more desirable and this in turn is due largely to their receiving better pay. The names of the successful applicants are as follows:

First grade—Edna Gard, Emilie C. Shaw, Francis M. Gill, Estella Niles, M. A. Criteser, Ellen Brobst, Emma Bluhm, Lou Albee, Emily K. McElroy, Ossie H. Endicott, Mae A. Egge, M. Flora Bertram, Cora Darr, Mary Strange, Effie Morris, Pearl G. Cartlidge, J. P. Ritter, O. E. Ramsey, T. J. McGill, Emily Spulak, Blanche E. Miller, Josephine Moe, Margaret Watenpaugh, Bronte Jennings, Martha Koerner.

Second grade—Pearl Sievers, W. L. Snidow, Nellie L. Miller, Fredaborg Hult, Mary A Scott, Arvilla Anderson, Susie Gribble, Ethel Strong, Florence O. McElroy, Thee Eulalia Snyder, Evan Applegate, Eva Applegate, Ora Little, Clara Lau, Emma Shibley, Edith Hargreaves, Alma O. Husely, Elizabeth Bradbury, Elsie Hatz, Miss Buchanan, Lena Kester.

Third grade—Rosa Moehnke, Elva Watts, Emery French, Nellie Johnson, Margaret McDonald, Lucy Mitts, Nellie Richardson, Lulu Miller, Effie Ramsey, Myrtle May Park, James F. Dibble, Flossie W. Churchill, Cora Yocum, Anna Sollie, Mabel Hodge, Leal Stevenson, Mabelle Mills, Roy Ross, Myrtle Purcell, Jake Mitts, Anna MacDonald, Mabel Seward, Pearl E. Miller, Mary Sunderland, Winnie F. Jackson, Mabel F. Francis, Clarice Zumwalt.

A Faithful Friend.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he knows its value and is competent to speak for it. For sale by Huntley Bros., Oregon City and Molalla.

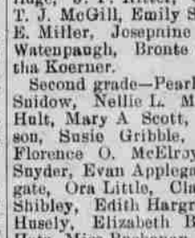
The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.



There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Birthday and Music

Sunday afternoon was the occasion of a delightful birthday entertainment given to 40 friends by Mr. and Mrs. C. Moehnke in honor of their son, August, it being his 28th birthday. The Oregon City band, of which Mr. Moehnke is a member, gave several selections and at 5 o'clock the guests sat down to a fine luncheon, after which they retired to the picturesque banks of the Willamette, and there listened to several selections by the band, who were embarked in Mr. Moehnke's launch a short distance from the shore. Miss Lydia Voltt, of Willamette, assisted Mrs. Moehnke in the entertainment. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. France and children, Mr. and Mrs. M. Switzenberg and children, Mrs. M. Schwartz, Mrs. E. Blakely and children, Mrs. M. Nixon, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer and children, Miss Lena Moehnke and Levean Moehnke, of Oregon City.

YEARLY PROFIT

PROSPERITY depends more upon investment than any other source of profit. Good investments are as difficult to find as a needle in a haystack.

REAL ESTATE is the basis of all value. It has made more big fortunes than all other investments combined. Provided it is desirably located, it is impossible to lose.

THE NORTHWEST is the center of greater real estate activity than any other part of the United States. Even Eastern capital knows it and invests.

OREGON has more wealth-making opportunities than any other State in the Union. Its resources are phenomenal. The development of the State means riches for the City.

PORTLAND realty investments pay from 20 to 100 per cent annually. We have several that require a few dollars a month and will net the investor big money and earn an annual profit. For particulars mail the coupon
