PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

Social Events—Personal Mention—Damascus Wedding.

Damascus Wedding.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the home of J. A. Wilson at Hill Crest farm near Damascus, Thursday, September 3, at 12 o'clock, when their daughter, Victoria, was given in marriage to Arthur L. Heacock, of Gresham.

Miss Lillian Walter, of Portland, sang the beautiful solo "When Song is Sweet," after which the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. The groom was attended by Mr. Harold Wilson, the bride's brother, while Miss Mary Wilson acted as bridesmaid. Little Mildred Maple and Ruth Forbes, four-year old cousins of the bride, led the procession, carrying tiny baskets of pink sweet peas, followed by the bridesmaid and the bride leaning on the arm of her father.

Rev. Moore, of Clackamas, solemnized the ceremony under a bower of evergreens. Then came the congratulations of the guests, about fifty in number, relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was becomingly attired in white and carried a large bouquet of bride roses and the bridesmaid wore a gown of turquoise blue "Lansdown" and carried white asters and ferns.

The groom's sister, Miss Carrie Heacock, caught the bride's bouquet.

Refreshments were served after which Mr. and Mrs. Heacock took their departure amid a shower of rice, for a brief sojourn at Seaside, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

Social at Rose Farm.

The Ladies' Guild and the King's Daughters of St. Paul's church of this city held a most enjoyable social at the Rose Farm Thursday afternoon, and the affair was most successful in every particular. The feature of the afternoon was the sale by auction of parcels, a sort of "pig in a poke" affair, as the purchasers did not know what they were buying and the excitement caused thereby was only outclassed by the spirited bidding. The packages were all of the real value and represented hours of hard work by members of the guild, and the packages brought good round sums ranging from 15 cents to 75 cents. A short literary and musical program was given, among the numbers was a recitation, "Christmas Greens," Miss Florence McFarland, who gave as an encore "Her Letter." Mrs. Theodore Osmond sang in her pleasing manner, "June Madrigal," and was heartily applauded, giving "A Resolve" as her second number. Several piano selections were rendered during the afternoon. Beneath the large elm trees of this historical old home, tables were spread, where delicious refreshments were served by the members of the Guild. Those present were: Mrs. W. A. Dimick, Mrs. Theodore Osmond, Mrs. John Lawellon, L. Holmes, Mrs. H. L. Clark, Mrs. W. A. Shevman, Mrs. J. N. Wisner, Mrs. W. B. Layton, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. J. E. Samson Ties a Double Knot

Justice Samson was more than busy Wednesday making people happy by the simple process of two and two make one, and when it comes to this sort of work that's where the Judge shines, and he must have made a special rate on this day for there were four happy people joined together in the bonds of holy wedlock in his office. Miss Annie L. Bynum and William C. DeWall, of Portland, considered it the happiest of their lives, and Mrs. Lucy Chapman and John G. Bargeleit, of Logan, were made man and wife by the simple "twist of the wrist" in the Judge's office.

Pigeonholed Legislation.

Several grange measures were left in committee pigeonholes when congress adjourned. Among them were the bills providing for limited parcels post, postal savings banks and the election of United States senators by popular vote. Find out who among the congressmen voted against these measures and go after them with the "big stick," the ballot, if they come up for re-election. The only way, it seems, to secure legislation along these lines is to elect men who favor it. It takes time to accomplish these results sometimes, but the grange is not a "quitter." Uncle Joe won't be speaker always, and he seems to have been most as large an obstacle in the way of the legislation referred to as anything or anybody.

Business Matters.

Many granges in New York state have been doing things in the business line. Washingtonville grange did business amounting to over $85,000 last year and Warwick to about $72,000. At the Herkimer grange store a business has been done amounting to over $90,000, and the stocks and property will inventory $24,000. For the past four years the profits have been 75 per cent on the original stock, and 60 per cent dividends have been paid annually. There are very few granges in the state that can score this record in co-operative buying.

Overseer of New Hampshire Grange C. B. Hoyt has been appointed general superintendent of the Concord state fair. Secretary Drake will have charge of the grange department of that fair.

A Sure-Enough Knocker.

J. C. Godwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure enough knocker for ulcers. A had one come on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc., at Jones Drug Co.'s drug store.

GREAT INTEREST IN LAND OPENING.

Big Tract Promises to be Famous for Fruits.

The enormous number of letters that have been received by the Kings Hill Irrigation & Power Co., relative to the opening of its 15,000 acres of land in Idaho, under the Carey Act, indicates that on October 12, the date of the formal opening, this entire stretch of fertile land 20 miles along the Snake river, will be taken before the sun sets.

This property has the finest fruit soil in the Northwest! an overplus of water from the Malad river; a permanent system of flumes and canals; a telephone service; free ferries across the Snake River; the main line of a transcontinental railroad, a townsite and, superior to all the best soil, climate and market opportunity of any land that has been opened for settlement in the state of Idaho for many years.

The letters above referred to are from prospective settlers who signify their intention to be present opening day. The choice of lands will be supervised by the State Land Board of Idaho and those who fall to draw favorable locations will receive back their entrance money. The Carey Act allows ten years for payment of water rights after which the entire system of irrigation comes into possession of the owners of the lands supplied by the water. Railroads have made special rates for the occasion and also arrangements for the accommodation of those who gather to take advantage of the opening.

Rev. R. C. Blackwell, pastor of the M. E. church, of this city, has returned from a three weeks' sojourn on Salmon river, and will be in his pulpit morning and evening next Sunday.
